

The Future Outlook

Keep Up With The Times - Read The Future Outlook

VOL. 27, NO. 48

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1968

PRICE 10 CENTS

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR

MISS BENITA ANITA MILLER

Miss Benita A. Miller, age 13, Lincoln Junior High School student, died Sept. 14 following a brief illness at L. Richardson Memorial Hospital. She lived at 809 Burbank Street. Funeral service was held Monday, Sept. 16, 4:00 p. m., Brown's Funeral Home Chapel. Rev. Otis L. Hairston, pastor of Shiloh Baptist Church, officiated. Burial followed in Maplewood Cemetery. The body remained at the funeral home until the hour of service.

Survivors include her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Miller; six sisters, Misses Barbara, Ruth, Brenda, Reneta, Debra and Vanessa Miller; three brothers, Samuel, Jr., Dwight and Reginald Miller, all of the home.

Brown's Funeral Directors in charge of arrangements.

MRS. EVELYN JACKSON SIMPSON

Funeral arrangements are incomplete for Mrs. Evelyn Jackson Simpson of 1319 Payne Street who died Monday morning, Sept. 16, 1968 at her home.

Hargett Funeral Service in charge of arrangements.

MR. ELBERT BRADY

Funeral services were conducted for Mr. Elbert Jerry Brady of Rt. 4, Asheboro, N. C., on Sunday, Sept. 15, 1968 at 2:00 p. m. at Piney Ridge Methodist Church, Piney Ridge, N. C. Rev. G. L. Warren officiated.

Mr. Brady was a native farmer of the Stouts Chapel community. He is survived by his wife, 5 daughters, 10 sons and 29 grandchildren.

Hargett Funeral Service of Asheboro, N. C., funeral director in charge.

MR. GEORGE WILLIAM GREENE III

George William Greene III, formerly of 907 Bennett Street, died Sunday, Sept. 15, 1968, at the Veterans Administration Hospital, Durham, N. C. He was better known as "Long Daddy" Greene while playing football and basketball at Shaw and A. & T. universities.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 12:00 noon at the First United Church of Christ, Raleigh, with interment in the National Cemetery following military rites. The body is at the Raleigh Funeral Home, Raleigh, N. C.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Launa Hargett Greene of Greensboro; one son, Brian Hargett Greene of Greensboro; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Greene, Jr. of Raleigh; several aunts and uncles.

Courtesy of Hargett Funeral Home.

MR. JAMES HOPKINS

Mr. James Hopkins, age 49, of 530 Douglas Street was killed Sunday, Sept. 15, 1968.

Funeral services will be held at 3:00 p. m. Saturday at Memorial Chapel with the pastor of the Gethsemane Baptist Church, Rev. W. M. Hall, officiating. Burial will follow in the Chapel Hill Methodist Church cemetery.

The family will meet their friends at Hargett Funeral Home on Friday night from 7 to 9 p. m.

Hargett Funeral Service in charge of arrangements.

In Memoriam

Funeral service for Miss Geneva Joyce Holmes was conducted on Tuesday, Sept. 17, 1968 at 4:00 p. m. at St. Matthews United Methodist Church. Rev. J. B. Bethea, pastor, officiated.

Miss Holmes died on the morning of Sept. 14 at the Moses H. Cone Memorial Hospital following a critical illness of over a month.

Born on Sept. 4, 1905 in Guilford County, she was the only child of Mrs. Lillie Holmes, now Mrs. Lillie Austin and the late Neil Holmes. Miss Holmes received her early education in the Greensboro community. In 1930, she earned the A.B. degree in history from Howard University in Washington, D. C. At Columbia University in New York City, she earned in 1949 the M.A. degree in personnel guidance.

At the time of her death, Miss Holmes held the position of Assistant Professor of history and Advisor to foreign students at the A&T State University. Previously, she had served either as a dormitory counselor or as a dean of women at Bennett College, Florida A&M University and Fayetteville State Teachers College. Her teaching experience started at Reidsville, N. C. where she taught history at the high school level.

MISS GENEVA JOYCE HOLMES

Although Miss Holmes followed her careers largely in North Carolina, she traveled widely to foreign lands. During World War II, she served as a Red Cross Officer. In this position, she traveled extensively in Europe. In the late 1940's, on a Fulbright Fellowship, she taught history at a girls' school in Freetown, Sierra Leone, West Africa for two years.

Shortly before her death, Miss Holmes was the recipient of two honors: she was invited to attend and to participate in the twentieth anniversary of the annual conference of the National Association of Foreign Student Affairs held at San Francisco and Honolulu, Hawaii on April 30-May 7. In addition, she was the recipient of a faculty fellowship award which allowed her to study at an institute of international studies during June and July, 1968. This institute was held at San Salvador of the Republic of El Salvador, Central America. Here Miss Holmes studied for approximately six weeks. Because of illness, Miss Holmes returned one week earlier from this institute to the United States.

Besides following a busy career Miss Holmes was actively identified with the Methodist Church. She was a member of

(Continued on Page 8)

The Webbs Golden Wedding Anniversary

Many out-of-town guests joined relatives, friends and community folk Sunday, Sept. 1, 1968, from 5 to 7 o'clock at the home of the Webbs in Sedalia, N. C., to honor them on their golden wedding anniversary.

Hosts, all from out-of-town, were the honored couple's four sons and daughters-in-law: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Webb, Jr., of Rome, N. Y., Dr. and Mrs. Burleigh C. Webb of Greensboro, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Harold Webb of Raleigh, N. C. and Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Webb of Washington, D. C. The hosts were also joined by the eight grandchildren of the honorees.

Presiding at the refreshment table, which was beautifully decorated with golden candlesticks and floral arrangements, were the four daughters-in-law assisted by two teen-age granddaughters, Kay Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Webb and Kathy Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burleigh C. Webb.

Assisting the hosts were Mesdames Mable Pattishual and Ruth Smith who registered the guests at the door; Mesdames Jeanne L. Rudd and Esther T. Custer who presided at the gift table.

The honored couple were married fifty years ago on Sept. 11, but the reception was held on Mrs. Webb's birthday which was Sept. 1.

In addition to rearing and educating their four sons, both Mr. and Mrs. Webb have given many years to public service. Mrs. Webb, who attended Pal-

(Continued on Page 5)