Aggies Drop First Tilt, 9-6 To Md. State In Rain

Princess Anne, Maryland — A drizzling downpour put the damper on A&T's ground game, but didn't seem to hurt Maryland State's fullback and the Hawks knocked the Aggies from the ranks of the unbeaten, 9-6, here last Saturday.

The two CIAA rivals slipped and slid to a scoreless first half, but the Hawks came alive late in the third period when Denson, a 250-pound sophomore, circled his own right end, found his footing and raced 34 yards for a touchdown.

Maryland State iced the win with a 29-yard field goal by Warner Robertson early in the final quarter.

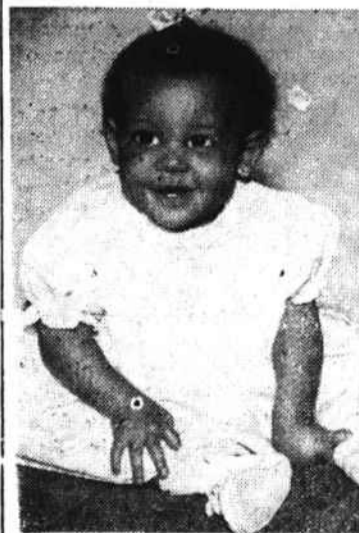

Although the Aggies had completely dominated play in the first half, they muffed an important scoring chance from their six-yard line late in the first period and didn't get on the scoreboard until seconds remained in the game.

With 45 seconds remaining in the contest, A&T quarterback Stanley Jacobs threw a 12-yard scoring pass to Merle Code. Code the Aggie's defensive safety, had gone into the game as a tight end for the scoring play.

The Aggies' score capped a desperation 80-yard drive and was set up by a brilliant 69-yard pass play from All-CIAA halfback Willie Pearson to end Daryle Cherry.

Pearson took a handoff from quarterback Stan Jacobs, then

DR. ISAAC H. MILLER, JR. INAUGURATED AT BENNETT

By Douglas McAdoo

Dr. Isaac H. Miller, Jr. was inaugurated last Saturday, Oct. 12, as the tenth president of Bennett College. Before a crowd of nearly 250 educators, representing universities and colleges all over the country, and scores of friends and well-wishers, Dr. Miller received his investiture of office from Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, chairman of the college Board of Trustees.

In becoming president of the College, Dr. Miller was, in some respect, returning "home," for he spent three years here as a youth while his father served as dean and treasurer of the college.

"I was born," he said, "in Jacksonville, Fla. where my father was teaching at Cookman Institute. Later when it merged with Bethune College at Daytona Beach to become Bethune-Cookman College, my
