

The Future Outlook

Greensboro Public Library
Box X-4
City 27402

Keep Up With The Times — Read The Future Outlook!

VOL. 28, NO. 5

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1968

PRICE 10 CENTS

Dedication of New Smith Funeral Home

On Sunday afternoon, Dec. 1, at three o'clock, Dedication Services will be held at the new home of Smith Funeral Service of Greensboro, Inc., which is located at 512 Asheboro Street.

A program has been planned with a number of Greensboro ministers and officials scheduled to participate.

Mr. E. E. Smith, Sr., started his career in the funeral profession in 1932 with Rev. R. C. Sharpe of Sharpe's Funeral Home. In 1946, he became a partner in Sharpe Funeral Home and the name was changed to Sharpe & Smith Funeral Home. During this time most of Rev. Sharpe's time was taken by the ministry and Mr. Smith did most of the funeral home business.

In 1952, Rev. Sharpe sold his interest to Mr. Smith and the home was renamed Smith's Funeral Service of Greensboro, Inc., with Mr. E. E. Smith, Sr. as president, treasurer and chairman of the board; Mrs. Ella M. Smith as vice president and secretary. With the move to the new location, Mrs. Smith became executive vice president and Herbert W. Smith, Jr. the vice president of the firm.

The building is of brick structure with the first floor complete with wall to wall carpet. The chapel has a seating capacity of 148, with a private family room in the chapel with a seating capacity of 22. There are two slumber rooms and two family rooms, all on the first floor along with office space and an attendants quarters.

The entire building has beautiful chapel music coming through an intercom system, and is completely air conditioned for hot weather comfort. This most modern facility is well located with off-street parking. The ground floor or basement has a modern preparation room, storage space, casket display room, furnace room and garage.

After the Dedication Service on Sunday, Dec. 1, there will be open house Dec. 2 through Dec. 8. You are cordially invited to attend both.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

MR. MILLEDGE BROWN, SR.

Mr. Milledge Brown, Sr., age 59, of 1016 Cottage Grove Avenue, died Thursday, Nov. 21, at L. Richardson Memorial Hospital following a brief illness.

Funeral service was held Saturday evening, 8:00 p. m., Brown's Funeral Home Chapel. Rev. W. D. Johnson, pastor of New Zion Baptist Church, officiated. Burial service was held Sunday, 4:00 p. m., Pleasant Grove Baptist Cemetery, Edgefield, S. C.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Easter Brown; one daughter, Mrs. Julia Westmoreland, Greensboro; two sons, Milledge and Nathaniel Brown, Greensboro; two brothers, Jim Brown, Edgefield, S. C. and Coley Brown, Columbia, S. C.; three sisters, Mrs. Henrietta B. Sims, Greensboro, Mrs. Elizabeth Anna Brown, Edgefield, S. C. and Mrs. Ada Mae Nixon, Augusta, Ga., 14 grandchildren.

Brown's Funeral Directors in charge of arrangements.

MR. FRANCIS O. COLE

Funeral arrangements are incomplete for Mr. Francis O. Cole, age 68, of Route 1, High Point, Florence Community, who died suddenly Monday, Nov. 25, 1968.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Youse Cole of the home; five sons, Francis Cole, Jr., Garland Cole, James Cole, Leroy Cole, all of High Point, and Thomas Cole of Germany; three sisters, Mrs. Jessie Williams of High Point, Mrs. Myrtle Ealy and Mrs. Annie Smith, both of Hempstead, N. Y.; seven brothers, Rev. Wyatt Cole, Oscar Cole, Kermit Cole, all of High Point, David Cole, Lee Cole, Herman Cole, all of Hempstead, N. Y., and Lester Cole of Baltimore, Md.; six grandchildren; other relatives and friends.

Hargett Funeral Service in charge of arrangements.

MR. HENRY ISLEY

Funeral services for Mr. Henry Isley will be held at 1:00 p. m. Friday at Hargett's Memorial Chapel. Burial will follow in Piedmont Memorial Park.

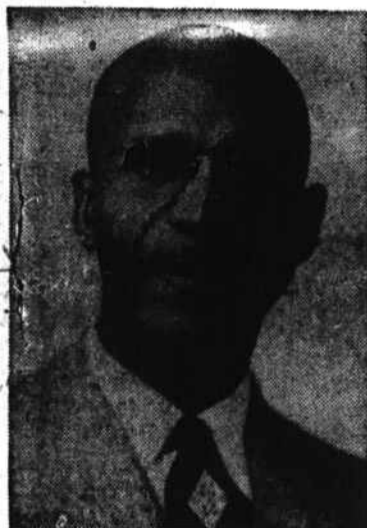

He was a veteran of World War II and was educated in the public schools of Greensboro.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Cora Wharton Isley of New York; one sister, Mrs. Nettie Warren of Brooklyn, N. Y.; two brothers, Robert Isley of New York and Ernest Isley of Greensboro; two uncles, George and William Wharton, both of Greensboro; one nephew, Charles Peoples, of Greensboro; other relatives and friends.

The family will meet their friends at Hargett Funeral Home on Thursday evening from 7 to 9 p. m.

Hargett Funeral Service in charge of arrangements.

STAFF OF FUNERAL HOME

E. E. Smith, Sr.
President and Chairman,
Board of Directors

Mrs. Ella M. Smith
Executive Vice-President and
Funeral Directress

H. W. Smith, Jr.
Vice-President

Wright
Ass't. Dir.

Miss Wells
Organist

Mrs. Reese
Organist

Greenlee
Ass't. Dir.

Mrs. Crosby
Secretary - Receptionist

Young
Ass't. Dir.

Mrs. Hayes
Beautician

Hughes
Attendant

Mrs. Cunningham
Beautician

Davis
Attendant

THE VETERANS CORNER

Editor's Note: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning the benefits their Government provides for them through the Veterans Administration. Below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.

Q—I receive a pension from the Veterans Administration. With my November check I received a questionnaire regarding my income for 1968 and 1969. Since my income is what I estimated on last year's questionnaire, must I return this new questionnaire?

A—Yes, it is particularly important that you return the questionnaire you received in early November.

(Continued on Page 8)

A and T STATE UNIVERSITY

BETHUNE-COOKMAN CONCERT CHORALE WILL APPEAR AT HARRISON DECEMBER 2

Some 36 young men and women, members of the Bethune-Cookman College Concert Chorale from Daytona Beach, Florida, will perform in Harrison Auditorium on Dec. 2 at 8 p. m. The concert is sponsored by Dr. Howard T. Pearsall and the Music Department. The choir's repertoire includes classical and religious songs, Negro spirituals, and folk songs.

Under the direction of Thomas D. Demps, the group has become internationally famous. Demps received his musical training from Bethune-Cookman College, Teachers' College and Columbia University. He has taught music in the public schools of Florida and is called upon frequently as an adjudicator at many local festivals. A former member of the Bethune-Cookman Concert Chorale, Demps sang professionally with the de Paur Chorus of New York City under the outstanding conductor, Leonard de Paur.

The Concert Chorale consists of men and women representing nearly every major field at the college with the department of music contributing the majority of members. Featured soloists are Yvonne Talton, contralto. Accompanists for the chorale are Orville Lawton, a sophomore music major from West Palm Beach, and Sonja Wilson, a freshman music major from Sarasota.

A&T OFFERS SHORTHAND COURSE

The Department of Adult Education and Community Services at A&T State University has announced that a non-credit course in shorthand will be held at the university beginning December 4. B. W. Harris, chairman of the department, said the course will be open to beginners and to persons who may wish to refresh their skills.

He said the class will meet Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6:30 to 8:30 p. m. and will be taught by Mrs. Onnie A. Whitelaw, a graduate of North Carolina College.

Persons interested in enrolling in the course are asked to contact Mr. Harris in Carver Hall. The first session will be held on Dec. 4.

Prices will tumble if hog numbers build up too fast, according to extension specialists at NCSU.