

The Future look

Keep Up With The Times — Read The Future Outlook!

VOL. 28, NO. 25

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 1969

PRICE 10 CENTS

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Funeral services were conducted for Mrs. Nannie Chavis at Mount Zion A.M.E. Church, Greensboro, North Carolina on Monday, April 14, 1969 at 2:00 P. M., Reverend J. R. Cheek, Pastor, officiated.

Mrs. Nannie Windsor Chavis, daughter of the late Mr. Paul and Elizabeth Windsor was born in Caswell County, N. C. March 19, 1887. She departed this life on Thursday, April 11, 1969.

She was a loyal and faithful member of the Mount Zion A. M. E. Church as long as health permitted. She was Chaplain of the Senior Missionary Society, member of the Stewardess Board, and Pastor's Aid Society and Bible Band.

MRS. NANNIE CHAVIS

She was united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. John Chavis in 1910. To this union was born seven children.

Surviving are her husband, John Chavis; two daughters, Mrs. Odessa Staton and Mrs. Rosa Watt of Detroit, Mich.; four sons, Mr. Emanuel C. Chavis and Mr. John Duesle Chavis of Detroit, Mich., Mr. Lemuel Chavis and Mr. Samuel Chavis of Greensboro, N. C.; two sisters, Mrs. Emma Dick of Greensboro and Mrs. Mattie Stokes of Ruffin, N. C.; nineteen grandchildren, seven great grandchildren, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Louise Chavis, who was just like a daughter to the end, and other relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

Hargett Funeral Service in charge of arrangements.

MR. ALVIN MINOR

Mr. Alvin Minor, age 48 died at L. Richardson Memorial Saturday, April 5th following a brief illness. He lived at 1700 Asheboro Street.

Funeral service was held Friday, April 11th, 2:00 P. M. Brown's Funeral Home Chapel, Rev. J. L. Foushee, Baptist Evangelist officiated Burial followed in Mebane, North Carolina.

The body remained at the Funeral Home until the hour of service.

Survivors include three daughters, Misses Luella, Ethel Mae and Catherine Minor; two sons, Roy Lee Minor and Tony Minor, all of the home; six brothers, Donald, James, Archie and Rudolph Minor of Mebane, N. C., Rand Minor, Haw River, N. C. and Alex Minor, Wilston-Salem, N. C.

Brown's Funeral Directors in charge of arrangements.

MR. MILTON WEBSTER

Mr. Milton Webster, age 58 died Friday morning, April 11th following a lengthy illness at L. Richardson Memorial Hospital.

He lived at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Virginia Webster, 2121 Hunter Street.

Funeral service was held Wednesday, April 16th, 4:00 P. M. Brown's Funeral Home Chapel. Burial followed in Piedmont Memorial Park.

The family received their friends at Brown's Funeral Home Tuesday from 7-9.

Survivors include two brothers, James Webster, Greensboro, Robert Webster, Toledo, Ohio; two step children, Willie Hicks and Mrs. Fannie Mae Wiggins, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Brown's Funeral Directors in charge of arrangements.

MRS. MAGGIE L. MORRISON

Mrs. Maggie L. Morrison, age 57 of 709 S. Macon Street died at Moses Cone Memorial Hospital Friday morning, April 11th following several weeks illness.

Funeral service was held Monday, April 14th, 2:00 P. M. Trinity A. M. E. Zion Church, Rev. Cecil Bishop pastor officiated. Burial followed in Piedmont Memorial Park.

The body remained at Brown's Funeral Home until the hour of service. Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Alfonsa Carney, Oakland, California; three brothers, David Brenon, Columbus, Ohio, Henry Bouknight, Chicago, Illinois, Robert Bouknight, Oakland, Calif; one sister, Mrs. Viola Robinson, Greensboro, N. C.

Brown's Funeral Directors in charge of arrangements.

MR. FRANK SHOFFNER

Funeral Services for Mr. Frank Shoffner were conducted at New Goshen Methodist Church, Greensboro, North Carolina on Monday, April 14, 1969 at 4:00 P. M. The Reverend Eugene Black officiated.

Mr. Shoffner was born in Guilford County, N. C., the son of the late Mr. & Mrs. Jerry Shoffner.

He was a life time resident of Greensboro, North Carolina. He was a faithful member of New Goshen Methodist Church for many years.

He leaves to mourn; 5 daughters, Mrs. Marie Goins, of the home, Mrs. Jalandr Brown, Mrs. Beatrice Branch and Mrs. Margaret Gladney all of Greensboro, and Mrs. Gladys Daniels

(Continued on Page 5)

Bennett College Spring Festival Queen

MISS MARCENIA BROWN Miss Marcenia Brown, Hickory, N. C. senior, has been chosen queen to reign over the annual Spring Festival to be held at Bennett College, on May 3, Greensboro, N. C.

These 3 To Appear in Fashion Show At A&T

A&T State University coeds Miss Rosetta Linton, Winston-Salem, (left) Miss Avis Hill, Williamsburg, Va., and Miss [Name obscured], Seaboard, N. C., will appear in a fashion show in the first annual Spring Week at the University, April 24-26. The three-day program is being sponsored by the Department of Home Economics.

One of the most colorful events ever staged by the coeds of A&T State University will be the first annual Spring Weekend, April 24-26.

Sponsored by the Department of Home Economics, the three-day presentations will be centered around the theme, "The Consumer Wants to Know."

Highlights of the weekend will be a fashion show, coordinated by nationally-known fashion expert Elsie Archer of McCall's; an address by Gus Maultsby, industrial relations specialist for the Warnaco Corporation, Bridgeport, Conn.; individual workshops on clothing and careers in the field of home economics; and a special career workshop and fashion show for high school students.

The opening session of the weekend will be held Thursday, April 24 at 10 a.m. in Benbow Hall. The keynote address will be given by Mrs. Archer, who is also the author of "Let's Face It," a very popular book on good grooming for teenage girls.

Other participants will include Dr. Lewis C. Dowdy, president of A&T; and Dr. C. H. Edwards, chairman of the Department of Home Economics.

At 1:30 p.m., workshops will be held on "The New Look in Jewelry," by Mrs. Ann Waddell

(Continued from Page 4)

Mrs. Koontz To Be NCC Commencement Speaker

DURHAM, N. C. — Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan Koontz, Director of the Women's Bureau in the Department of Labor, will be the speaker for North Carolina's College's commencement services, Sunday, June 1, it was announced today.

Mrs. Koontz was appointed to the post she now holds by President Nixon on February 7. She is the first Negro to head the Women's Bureau and was the first of her race to serve as president of the National Education Association. She is also U. S. Delegate to the United National Commission on the Status of Women.

From 1945 until she became president of NEA in 1968. Mrs. Koontz was a special education teacher at Price High School, Salisbury, N. C., working with slow learners and disadvantaged children. She had taught before that in Winston-Salem, Landis and Dunn, N. C.

Mrs. Koontz is a graduate of Livingstone College, Salisbury, and holds a master's degree in elementary education from Atlanta University. Other graduate work was done at Columbia University and Indiana University. She has also done special work in the field of special education for slow learners at North Carolina College.

She is a life member of NEA, and was president of the association's largest department, the Association of Classroom Teachers, in 1965. She is a member of the NEA Council for Exceptional Children, the North Carolina Council for Retarded Children, and the National Association for Retarded Children. From 1965 to 1968 she was a member of the President's Advisory Council on Education of L. Advantaged Youth.

In 1964, Saturday Review magazine sent Mrs. Koontz and 15 other Americans to the Soviet Union. She went to West Berlin for the NEA in 1962, observing the effects of the Berlin Wall on education.

Begonia Garden Club Presents Show and Tea

The Senior Choir of the United Institutional Baptist Church will present Inspirational Gospel Singers of the Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, Washington, D. C. on Sunday afternoon, April 20, at 3:00. The singers are nationally known. Mr. LeRoy Lindsey, formerly of Greensboro, N. C., is a member of this group.

Rev. C. W. Anderson, pastor S. Edward Graves in charge

The Inspirational Gospel Singers of Washington will also appear at 7:00 p.m. Sunday evening at Mt. Olive A.M.E. Zion Church on McConnell Road. Mrs. Emmice Douglas, sponsor