A THOUGHT TO PONDER

Art builds on sand; the work of pride.

And human passion change the fall;

But that which shares the life of God

With Him surviveth all.

Begonia Garden Club Installs Officers

Members of the Begonia Garden Club met in the home of Mrs. James E. Burnett, 1305 Marboro Drive, Wednesday, May 7. Business of the hour was the installation of officers for 1969-1971. This was done by Mr. David Morehead, Executive Director of Hayes-Taylor Y. M. C. A. The officers installed are as follows: Mrs. Donnell Pearce, president; Mrs. W.

I. Peterson, vice-president; Mrs. Samuel Headen, secretary; Mrs. Mildred Reed, assistant secretary; and Mrs. James Tonkins, treasurer. Mrs. Charles Anderson stood in for Mrs. Tonkins who was not present due to another engagement. The officers were elected April 16, at the home of Mrs. Donnell Pearce. Corsages were made by the members at the April meeting to be used at the Annual Garden Show and Tea sponsored by the Begonias.

Several members attended the District meeting April 27, held at Hayes-Taylor Y.M.C.A., and won blue ribbons for flower arrangement and a "Bird Project." Members attending the meeting were, Mrs. Samuel Headen, Mrs. Everett Graves, Mrs. P. P. Shoffner, Mrs. Donnell Pearce, Mrs. Mildred Reed and Mrs. James Burnett.

Mrs. Pearce gave a report from the monthly Council meeting at the May meeting.

At the May meeting the Horticulture project was discussed. Flowers have been planted at the Carolina Nursing Home by the Club as a project.

A&T State University To Be Featured in Photo Exhibit

The ninth annual photo exhibit by the Greensboro FAWM Camera Club will feature scenes and action at A&T State University.

The showing, to include nearly 100 prints, is to be held in the main ballroom of the A&T Memorial Union for one week beginning on May 25 and extending through May 31. The public is invited.

Dr. F. E. Davis, president of the photo group, said his members have been shooting photos about the campus for the past six months in preparation for the exhibit. He also announced a new departure for this year. Instead of using a panel of Judges, visiting viewers will decide the winners by casting ballots at the time of their visits.

The showing will be open to the public in the late afternoons beginning at 4 p.m. and extending through 9 o'clock in the evenings.

Aggies Beat Hornets In Playoff To Defend CIAA Baseball Crown

RICHMOND, Va. — In future preparations for championship playoffs, A&T baseball coach Mel Groomes may change his usual strategy and limit his players to four hours of sleep the night before the big game.

At least, that amount of sleep proved sufficient for the Aggies to beat Delaware State 7-4 last Monday night for the CIAA title. It was A&T's eighth championship in 15 years.

A&T's bus broke down Sunday night enroute from Richmond to Greensboro. The Aggies grabbed a quick snooze, then took off for Richmond again. It worked out just fine.

"These kids played the way I have been trying to get them to play all season," said a happy Groomes. "They just did everything right. We found out what we will have to do in the forthcoming NAAI playoffs in Greensboro and we are looking forward to it."

The Aggies pushed across three runs in the top of the 10th inning to whip the Hornets. A&T got a fine pitching performance from senior David Ellison of Laurinburg.

"The pitching of Ellison was just great," said Groomes. "He had only started one previous game this season and he must have been scared to death. He did a fine job and also relievers Tyrone Bolden and Wilson Stallsworth."

The Aggies and the Hornets split the first two games, also played here Sunday on Parker Field.

In the first game, freshman catcher Charles Middleton's single in the eighth inning, sparked a four-run rally and A&T won 6-3. Wilson Stallsworth picked up his eighth straight win for the Aggies.

In the second game, Delaware's pitching ace Tony Dupree yielded only two hits for an 113 victory for the Hornets.

In the championship game, the Aggies had overcome a 3-2 deficit in the ninth, when A&T's ace slugger Royal Mack tripled home Williamson and Cumings.

Delaware tied the score with a run in the bottom of the ninth, but could not match the three runs in the tenth.

Ellison, the winning pitcher, gave up only five hits.

Even in victory, Groomes had nothing but praise for Delaware State's fine pitcher Tony Dupree, who was pitching his third ball game (26 innings) in three days.

"He did an outstanding job," said Groomes. "I really don't see how he did it."

A&T's title marks the eighth time in 15 seasons the Aggies have been declared CIAA champions.

Notice Of Thanks

The Relatives of the late Mrs. Connie M. Mebane would like to acknowledge their deep appreciation to the many friends, for their many expressions of sympathy during their hour of grievement.
