

JUN 27 1969

The Future

Greensboro Public Library
Greene St.
P.O. Box K-4
City 27402

ok

Keep Up With The Times — Read The Future Outlook

VOL. 28, NO. 35

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, JUNE 27, 1969

PRICE 10 CENTS

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

BAPTIST EVANGELIST DIES

Rev. King Virgil Cheek, Sr.
Rev. King Virgil Cheek, Sr., age 65, of 1201 S. Benbow Road died at a local hospital Wednesday, June 18, following several months illness. He pastored in several cities in North Carolina during his many years in the ministry. He is the father of two college presidents, Dr. King V. Cheek, Jr., Shaw University, Raleigh, N. C., and Dr. James E. Cheek, Howard University, Washington, D. C.

Funeral service was held Sunday, June 22, 12:30 p. m., Providence Baptist Church.

Burial followed in Piedmont Memorial Park.

Other survivors include his widow, Mrs. Lee Ella Cheek of the home; daughter, Mrs. Helen C. Dean, Greensboro; Albert C. Cheek, Houston, Texas, and Franklin Cheek, Knoxville, Tenn.; one brother, John Cheek, Newark, N. J.; four sisters, Mrs. Priscilla Rosser and Mrs. Louise Burges, Littleton, N. C., Mrs. Margaret Burges, New York City, and Mrs. Phebie Parker, Suffolk, Va.

Brown's Funeral Directors in charge of arrangements.

MR. CLYDE MITCHELL

Mr. Clyde Mitchell, World War II veteran, age 56, died enroute to a local hospital Tuesday June 17, following a brief illness. He lived at Route 3, Box 300, Greensboro, N. C.

Funeral service was held Sunday, June 22, 3:00 p. m., Collins Grove Methodist Church. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Survivors include one son, Ellis Mitchell of the home; two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Thompson and Mrs. Marie Waddell, both of Greensboro, and six grandchildren.

Brown's Funeral Directors in charge of arrangements.

MRS. VIZENA J. CRAWFORD

Mrs. Vizena Jane Crawford, age 33, died at a local hospital Tuesday, June 24 from accidental burns. She lived at 707 Rugby Street. Funeral service will be held Saturday, June 28, 2:30 p. m., Brown's Funeral Home Chapel. Burial will follow in local cemetery.

Survivors include her husband, Walter Crawford of the home; mother, Mrs. Janie D. Brown, Gastonia, N. C.; three sons, Walter D. Crawford, Jr., Robert Crawford and Napoleon Crawford; two daughters, Hazel and Valarie Crawford, all of the home; six sisters, Mrs. Helen Clawson, Baltimore, Md., Mrs. Uzelar Tait, Long Island, N. Y., Mrs. Tryphenas Bratton and Mrs. Charlotte D. Brown, Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. Evelyn V. Edwards and Mrs. Pearl Brown, Gastonia, N. C.; two brothers, William J. Brown, Gastonia, N. C. and Joshua Brown, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Brown's Funeral Directors in charge of arrangements.

MR. MELVIN D. YOUNG

Mr. Melvin D. Young, age 70, died Friday, June 20, at a local hospital following a brief illness. He lived at 215 East Bragg Street. Funeral service was held Monday, June 23, 4:00 p. m., Brown's Funeral Home Chapel. Burial followed in Maplewood Cemetery.

Survivors include one brother, R. H. Young, Greensboro; two sisters, Mrs. Louise Miget, Atlantic City, N. J. and Mrs. Frances Young, Norfolk, Va.

Brown's Funeral Directors in charge of arrangements.

MR. ERNEST CARTER

Funeral services for Ernest Carter, age 19, of Rt. 2, Box 828, Brown Summit, N. C., who died Tuesday, June 23, 1969 from injuries received when he was struck by a train on the Rudd-Hawkins Road, will be held Saturday at 2:00 p. m. at the Chapel Hill United Methodist Church, in Rockingham County. He was employed by the Guilford County Board of Education.

He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Shirley McCain, of Brown Summit, Mrs. Cleo Lindsey and Mrs. Ernestine King, both of Greensboro; four brothers, Bobby, Billy Leo and Charles Carter, all of Greensboro, and Edward Carter, of Brown Summit.

The family will meet their friends at 1225 Ogden Street.

Hargett Funeral Service will be in charge of arrangements.

A & T Alumni Contribute $35,000; First Woman Named President

The A&T State University National Alumni Association turned over $35,000 to the University as a partial payment of the 1969 Annual Giving Campaign goal.

Another highlight of the annual meeting here last weekend was the election of the Association's first woman president. She is Mrs. Julia S. Brooks, a Philadelphia teacher, who will head the Alumni group for two years.

Other officers elected are Eugene Preston, Washington, D.C., first vice president; Jimmie I. Barber, Greensboro, N. C., second vice president; B. H. Thornton, Durham, N. C., treasurer; Mrs. Veda Stroud, Greensboro, secretary; and attorney Walter Johnson, Jr., parliamentarian.

At an awards banquet held Saturday night at King's Inn, the association, composed of some 10,000 members, presented its annual national service award to Attorney Henry E. Frye, only Negro member of the North Carolina Legislature.

The national achievement award was presented to the Rev. Jesse Jackson, national director of Operation Breadbasket, an affiliate of SCLC.

In his remarks to the group, Jackson said A&T may become the institution in America "to

(Continued on Page 4)

Mrs. Mable Orrell, Woman of The Year

Mrs. Mable Orrell was recently honored by being designated the Woman of the Year, of the United Institutional Baptist Church. She reported more than $200 for our Building Fund Drive.

Mrs. Orrell is a native of Bladenboro, N. C., where she graduated from the Spaulding Monroe High School.

Mrs. Orrell resides at 1406 Randolph Street, with her husband, Mr. Frank Orrell and their five children.

Mrs. Orrell is very active and a strong supporter of the total program of the church. She is a teacher in the Children's Division of our Church School, member of Ward No. 4, the Ever Ready Chorus, and Assistant Director of the Hour of Power, which convenes each Sunday morning at 7:27.

We are happy, therefore, to salute Mrs. Orrell as Woman of the Year for 1969-70.

Famous Black Chamber Trio To Present Program At A&T

Area music lovers will be in for a very special treat when the famous New World Trio, three noted black musicians, appear in concert at A&T State University Thursday, July 10.

The concert, to be presented at 8 p. m. in Harrison Auditorium, is the first program on the third annual summer lyceum series.

The New World Trio was formed in 1967 and has already drawn rave notices in appearances in New York City and other places.

For its program, the trio offers a varied selection of duets, trios and sonatas, and concertos from the baroque, classical, romantic and modern periods.

Members of the trio are Harry Smyles, former first oboist of the Cleveland Conservatory of Music; and Harold Jones, first flutist with the American Symphony Orchestra, directed by Leopold Stokowski.

The concert at A&T will include "Trio Sonata in C Minor" by Quantz, "Suite for Flute and Oboe" by Ulysses Kay, a black

(Continued on Page 4)

Baby Contest at New Zion Baptist Church Raises $1,179.05

The Senior Usher Board of the New Zion Baptist Church held a baby contest Sunday, June 8 at 3:30 p. m.

Shown in the picture are (reading from left to right): Mrs. Ruth E. Coleman and her baby, Debra Kay, who was sponsored by her grandmother, Mrs. Lizzie Coleman and who raised $400.00; Mrs. Claude Williams and baby Yvette Williams, sponsored by Mrs. Cora Howard, raised $170.00; Mrs. Charles Browning and her baby Angela LaShaun, sponsored by

Mrs. Virginia Headen, raised $129.00; Mrs. Deloris Bratcher's baby Rodney Roosevelt Bratcher, who was sponsored by his grandmother, Mrs. Francis Bratcher, raised $206.00; Mrs. Martha Greene and her baby Bonita Greene raised $126.25 and the sponsor was Mrs. Emma Cokley; Mrs. Charles Simmons, Jr. and baby Kimberly Simmons and sponsor, Mrs. Irene Lewis, raised $147.80.

The total amount raised by the group was $1,179.05. Rev. W. D. Johnson, pastor.