

The Future tlook

Keep Up With The Times — 1

Greensboro Public Library
Greene St.
P.O. Box 7-4
City 27402

VOL. 28, NO. 38

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, JULY 18, 1969

PRICE 10 CENTS

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

MR. MARION E. HAMILTON

Mr. Marion Ezell Hamilton, age 58 died Thursday, July 10th following a brief illness.

Funeral service was held Tuesday, July 15th, 4:00 P.M. Brown's Funeral Home Chapel, Rev. Otis L. Hairston pastor of Shiloh Baptist Church officiated. Burial followed in Piedmont Memorial Park.

The body remained at the funeral home until the hour of service.

There are no immediate survivors.

Brown's Funeral Directors in charge of arrangements.

MR. CHARLES WILSON

Mr. Charles Wilson, age 37 died at his home 737 Wilmington St. July 7th following a brief illness.

Funeral service was held Sunday, July 13th, 1:30 P.M. Brown's Funeral Home Chapel, Rev. Prince Graves pastor of St. James Baptist Church officiated. Burial followed in Piedmont Memorial Park.

The body remained at the funeral home until the hour of service.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Missouri Wilson; one brother, Lester Wilson, Greensboro; four sisters, Mrs. Texanna Byrd, Mrs. Mary Wallace and Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson, all of Greensboro, Mrs. Doretha Hampton, Stoneville, N. C.

Brown's Funeral Directors in charge of arrangements.

JAMES C. LEATH

Mr. J. C. Leath, age 53 of 764 Poteat Ct., died on July 9, 1969 at Moses H. Cone Memorial Hospital following a sudden illness.

Funeral services were held Saturday, July 12 at 3:00 p.m. at the Hargett Memorial Chapel with Rev. Frank Williams officiating. Interment was in Piedmont Memorial Cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Isabell Evan Leath; three daughters, Mrs. Carolyn Leath Ingram of Washington, D. C., Miss Elizabeth Ann and Miss Chiquitta Leath both of the home; two sons, James Clark and Dwight Leath both of the home; two sisters, Mrs. Denoris Tate of Graham, Miss Ruth Leath of Burlington, N. C.; four brothers, Vernon Leath of Elon College, Clyde, Herbert and William Leath all of Burlington, N. C. and five grandchildren.

The family met their friends at Hargett's Memorial Chapel Friday night from 8 to 9 p.m.

Hargett's Funeral Service in charge of arrangements.

Baby Contest of Ward Five of The Institutional Baptist Church

Shown in the photo above are a few of the outstanding personalities who took part in the Baby Contest of Ward Five of the United Institutional Baptist Church. From the left, are Mrs. Virginia Cherry and her daughter Virginia of 1709 Dunbar St. who won second place in the contest. Standing just back of them is Mrs. Mamie Harris of 1602 McConnell Road, who sponsored Mr. and Mrs. Cherry's baby and was also Chairman of the Baby Contest for the Ward. Next to them are Mrs. Robert Burwell and her son, Robert,

III, of 1324 Ardmore Drive, who won the first place in the Baby Contest. With them is Mrs. James Pearce, the baby's chief sponsor, and along with her family, the chief money-raiser for the entire Contest. The third prize was won by Derek G. Reid, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reid of 1849 Muncy Lane. He was sponsored by his mother and Mrs. Gladys Minor.

Ranking Students Cited at A&T State U. In Home Economics

Thirty-six students of the Department of Home Economics at A&T State University were recently cited for outstanding achievements during the past school term.

The honorees included Miss Ruby Dickens of Tarboro, N. C., who was honored as the top-ranking student in the department. She was presented the Stokely-Van Camp Silver Trivet award by Dr. Cecile H. Edwards, chairman of the department.

Also cited for her outstanding work in home economics was Miss Dorothy Mason, Charlotte, N. C. Miss Mason graduated in June and plans to teach beginning in September.

Other award winners include Miss Effie L. Stanford, Norwalk, Conn.; the Sears-Roebuck Foundation Scholarship Award; Miss Joyce Galloway, Southport, N. C., Winston-Salem District Dietetic Association Award; Honored for outstanding scholarship in the department were Marcia D. Dawson, Elvenor Hairston, Dorothy Mason, Merlene Tapp, Glenda Alston, Yvonne Brown, Janice Knight, Mary Caraway, Queen Laws, Betty Sherrod, Shirley M. Moore and Bettye Brown.

Also Hazel Gainey, Joyce E. Galloway, Mary L. Johnson, Dorothea Thomas, Claudia Goodson, Geraldine Henderson, Georgia Parker and Deborah Newman.

Tapped for Sales Career

LEROY BELL

Leroy Bell, a June graduate of A&T State University in animal science, has been employed by the Upjohn Pharmaceutical Company, Kalamazoo, Mich. A native of Concord, N. C., Bell has been assigned to the Wisconsin-Illinois area. He will specialize in animal health products.

TRAVELERS TO THE HOLY LAND

On July 9 at 10:30 a.m. the Rev Willie B. Harbor, his wife Mrs. Doris Cohen Harbor and their children left for a tour to the Holy Lands. The trip was made possible for the Harbor family by a well known business man, Mr. Murice "Zizzy" Osborne of Eden, N. C.

The Rev. Harbor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Harbor, Sr., and a life time resident of Stoneville, N. C. He was educated at the Stoneville Elementary and Charles Drew High School, Madison, N. C. He later served in the United States Army, spending most of his term in Europe, during World War II and received a honorable discharge in 1946.

He became inspired to the ministry upon returning to the States, received his pastoral credentials from the United Holy Church of America, Inc., in 1948 and was ordained in 1955. He founded the Burning Bush United Holy Church of Stoneville and pastored it for 23 years. In 1956 he was appointed as pastor of St. Mark United Holy Church, Greensboro, N.C. which he is rebuilding. Rev. Harbor is also the founder of the mission in the Black Bottom Community of Eden.

He serves as president of the Western District Union which consist of 40 churches. He also is chairman of the Board of Education of Stone School of Stoneville and is on the board of directors of community funds and the board of directors of the Rockingham County Fund of Public Welfare.