Entertainment Committee Of L. Richardson Hospital To Meet Sunday, December 14

The Entertainment Committee of L. Richardson Memorial Hospital will meet at the hospital on Sunday, Dec. 14 at 4:00 p.m. Dr. Smith, Hospital Administrator, will speak to the group at that time.

The committee met in the hospital lounge on Sunday, Nov. 30 and again on Dec. 7 to make plans for the decorations and entertainment for the patients during the Christmas season. Mr. Breeden of the YMCA was elected chairman of the Purchasing Committee.

Mr. J. F. Johnson presided over the meeting at which a number of organizations and churches were represented. People were present from Shiloh Baptist Church, Mount Zion Baptist Church, Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal Catholic Church, Providence Baptist Church, the Old North State Elk's Club, the YMCA, Chandler Women's Club and the L. Richardson staff.

The churches and organizations plan to donate money for the decorating and hope to have enough to purchase small gifts for the patients. A&T State University has offered the use of their decorations when the school closes for the holidays. Dudley High School will decorate the 3rd floor and students have offered their services as carol singers.

Mr. Johnson says everybody plans to start working on the project on December 15. He wants to extend an invitation to everyone — your help will be greatly appreciated. Here is your chance to do your good deed for this holiday season. (You will enjoy Christmas much more if you will please send your check in now.) MAKE THAT CHECK PAYABLE TO THE L. RICHARDSON HOSPITAL ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE.
