might be a person called in when, for example, a company of soldiers were depressed and dispirited to put new courage into their minds and hearts. Always a parakletos is someone called into help when the person who calls him in is in trouble or distress or doubt or bewilderment."

O God, who hast spoken to our fathers and hast brought us to this hour, continue to speak to us through the ministry of thy Holy Spirit. Open our minds to receive his word and strengthen our wills to obey it; through Jesus Christ, who obeyed even to death on the cross. Amen.

BEGONIA GARDEN CLUB

First February Meeting

Mrs. Samuel Headen served as hostess for the Begonia Garden Club Wednesday, Feb. 4, with Mrs. Donnell Pearce, presiding. Membership cards were given each member.

Following the business session, Mrs. Headen gave a very interesting and informative lecture in the Conservation series on Trees, naming the different trees in North Carolina, including the State tree, the pine tree, and the Dogwood tree which bears our state flower. Each member was given a booklet on trees. Mrs. Mildred Reed and Mrs. Dorsey Hayes are conservation leaders in the club. Members present were, Mesdames J. E. Burnett, W. I. Peterson, C. O. Gill, Chas. Anderson, Samuel Headen, Donnell Pearce and Melvin Henderson.

Second February Meeting

On Wednesday, Feb. 18, Mrs.

Roscoe Parker served as hostess for the Begonia Garden Club when they met in the home of Mrs. Donnell Pearce on Llano Place at 8:00 p.m. The activity of the evening was a Flower Arrangement Workshop, using artificial flowers. Tiny arrangements were made by the group for patients at the Carolina Nursing Home. Fourteen arrangements were made. They will be taken to the Nursing Home by the Club's Civic Committee, Mrs. Alphonzo Gore, Mrs. Mildred Reed and Mrs. James Burnett.

Members taking part in the workshop were Mesdames Manley Royal, James Tonkins, Jr., Everett Graves, C. O. Gill, Donnell Pearce, Samuel Headen, J. E. Burnett, Charles Anderson, Melvin Henderson, and Alphonzo Gore.

Several members of the Club attended the District meeting February 7, at 11:00 a.m. in Carver Hall at A&T State University.

Meet the perfect electric chef.

A flameless electric range that turns itself on...
Cooks meals to perfection...
Turns itself off...
And even cleans up after itself!

Now you have a choice. You can do the cooking . . . or let the electric range do it while you go shopping. Either way, it's just as easy. Because the flameless electric range offers precise control for perfectly-cooked meals.

And since its flameless, your whole kitchen stays cleaner all year round.

The electric range also cleans up after itself. Automatically. Electrically. Without muss or fuss. Just set the controls and forget about it. And the range does the rest.

For more information on today's modern self-cleaning electric range, ask your favorite electric appliance dealer or Duke Power.

Live a life of pure comfort... electrically. Duke Power
