MEDICARE BENEFITS INCREASED

"The overall cost of living keeps going up, and hospital costs are no exceptions," said Charles H. Myers, District Manager of the Greensboro Social Security Office.

Because of the tremendous increase in the cost of the average hospital stay social security Medicare beneficiaries will have an increase in their share of hospital costs. Beginning Jan. 1, 1970 the social security beneficiary will pay the first $52.00 of their hospital costs rather than $44.00 as in the past. In the event the beneficiary stays more than 60 days then his share of the cost will be $13.00 per day for all days over 60 days up to 90 days. Before January 1, 1970 this was $11.00 per day. This means the beneficiary who stays in the hospital 90 days will now pay $442.00 where before the increase, he would only have paid $374.00 for the same 90 days.

For more information about this increase in hospital payments or any other questions about Medicare Myers suggests you call or write the social security office at 324 W. Market St.

The Veterans Administration during 1969 administered government insurance programs totaling more than 5.6 million policies, with coverage valued at more than $38 billion.

LOCAL ARMY OFFICER CITED FOR BRAVERY IN VIETNAM BATTLE

First Lt. Hubert T. Wagstaff, a graduate of the ROTC program at A&T State University, has been awarded a Bronze Star for his heroic efforts during his unit's military operations in Vietnam.

Wagstaff's award was earned last October while he was serving as assistant battalion advisor to the Army of the Republic of Vietnam.

According to a military report, Wagstaff's company was engaged by enemy cross-fire, when he fearlessly exposed himself in order to make a quick estimate of the situation.

He then moved to an exposed vantage point and, with disregard to his own safety, directed gunships on the enemy's fortified defensive positions.

The young officer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie H. Wagstaff, 1111 Ardmore Dr. and the husband of Mrs. Lenora Miller Wagstaff, 1820 Larkin St., in Greensboro.

HARLEM GLOBETROTTERS ENDORSE PRO-KEDS

The Harlem Globetrotters have endorsed Uniroyal's Pro-Keds basketball shoes and have agreed to participate in a national campaign backing the product on and off the basketball court.

Uniroyal officials say the world famous team will be featured in a television commercial and will be involved in clinic promotions with key Pro-Keds dealers throughout the United States. Uniroyal will also build a complete merchandising program for dealers, including displays and newspaper mats around the team's endorsement.
