A Thought to Ponder

"If we turn our back upon our fellows, we turn our back upon God."

ORGAN RECITAL

The Senior Choir of The United Institutional Baptist Church on East Market St. will present Miss Lucy Guest in organ recital, Friday night, September 11, 1970, at 8:00 P.M. The public is invited to attend. S. E. Graves, director of music; Dr. C. W. Anderson, pastor.

BEGONIA GARDEN CLUB

The Begonia Garden Club held its first business meeting of the 1970-71 year, Wednesday, Sept. 2, with Mrs. Melvin Henderson, 1607 Pichard Street as hostess. Mrs. Donnell Pearce presided. The Calendar of Activities of the club for the year was distributed among the members.

An excellent report of the N. C. Federation of Garden Clubs, held at the Hilton Inn in August, was given by Mrs. Samuel Headen who served as official delegate from the club.

Mrs. Pearce received a citation at the Federation for her leadership in her club and in the local Council of Garden Clubs.

The club was awarded a blue ribbon for their Scrap Book and Year Book.

Members present were Mesdames Samuel Headen, James Tonkins, Jr., Donnell Pearce, James E. Burnett, Charles Anderson, William I. Peterson, Charles O. Gill and Mrs. Melvin Henderson.

A delicious repast of lime frappe, cake squares, nuts and mints was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. E. Burnett.

The next meeting will be held September 16, with Mrs. Charles Anderson, 606 Tuscaloosa St. as hostess. This will be a Fall Workshop meeting, with Mrs. F. B. Owens as demonstrator.

THE NAPPER FAMILY HOLDS FIFTH REUNION

Miss Irene Pleasant of 1312 Salem St. just returned from Lawnside, N. J. where she was a special guest at the Napper Family Fifth Reunion, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Hamilton of Oak Ave. in Lawnside, N. J.

Mrs. Pleasant, also, was a special guest on the program for remarks and sales, which was very enjoyable by the friends and family. The family enjoyed approximately 200 friends from different cities.

The Napper Family

Rev. Willie L. Napper and wife of Greensboro, N. C.; Mrs. Cleola Hamilton of Lawnside, N. J., Miss Lillian Flord of Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Bernice Norwood of Greensboro, N. C., Mrs. Marion Gorrell of Lawnside, N. J., Mrs. Iris Howell of Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Josephine Haskins of Philadelphia, Pa., and Mrs. Naomi Waters of Lawnside, N. J.

Ten of the Napper Family, brothers and sisters, the Wheel, yet, have not been broken by the Napper Family of the Brothers and Sisters.

May God bless them as they go on two years from now to Columbus, Ohio to the Sixth Reunion to be held at the home of Mrs. Iris Howell of Columbus, Ohio.
