FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR RETIRED CITY POLICEMAN

MR. SAMUEL A. PENN, JR.

Funeral services for Mr. Samuel A. Penn, Jr. were conducted on Monday, May 17, 1971 at 4:00 p.m. at Shiloh Baptist Church, 730 S. Ashe St., Greensboro, N. C. with Rev. Otis L. Hairston, officiating. Burial followed in Maplewood Cemetery.

Mr. Penn, son of the late Rev. Samuel A. Penn and Maggie Diggs Penn, was born in Henry County, Va., August 21, 1912. He departed this life early May 14, 1971 after a brief illness at L. Richardson Memorial Hospital.

During his early boyhood days, the family moved to Greensboro where his father served as pastor of New Zion Baptist Church.

The deceased attended the public schools of Greensboro, and during high school years at J. B. Dudley High became famous as an athlete and a bass singer in the Mixed Chorus and Male Quartet.

After graduating from Dudley, the quartet was given a scholarship to the Junior College Division of Palmer Memorial Institute, and along with its president, Dr. Charlotte Hawkins Brown, traveled throughout the United States in the interest of the school.

He was united in holy matrimony to the late Eloise Logan and remained a devoted husband until her death Sept. 14, 1970.

He was a member of the Greensboro Police Department for 24 years, retiring in 1969.

His interest in athletics and music was maintained until his death. He was a chartered member of the Greensboro Men's Glee Club, founded by his late wife, organizer of the Shiloh Male Choir and a member of the Fred Huntley Choir of Shiloh.

For many years, he coached a Little League Baseball Team, winning numerous awards, and was a star first baseman with several clubs. He has also served several years as a member of the Greensboro Parks and Recreation Commission.

Since childhood, he has been a member of Shiloh Baptist Church. In recent years, he has served as a trustee, a member of the Building Committee, president of the Men's Bible Class, assistant Sunday School teacher in addition to the choirs.

He is survived by three sisters: Myrtle Pass and Mrs. Evon McNair, Greensboro, and Mrs. Trevester Robinson, Lorain, Ohio; four brothers: Orville D., Francis and Russell of Cleveland, Ohio and Lawrence of Greensboro.

Fight Injustices with Trained Brains, Durham Councilman Tells Students

Students at A&T State University were urged today to continue the push for broader representation by all races in all aspects of American life.

"We need to take our trained brains and fight injustices," said Dr. John S. Stewart, Durham City Councilman and president of the black-owned Mutual Savings and Loan Association. "For this is the salvation of a democracy." Stewart was speaker at the University's annual Inter-Organizational Awards program. He also called for the continuation of A&T as an independent university with its own board of trustees.

Alluding to changes being proposed for reorganizing the state's higher education struc-

The Bennett College Little Theater Presents Spectacle

The Bennett College Little Theater Guild will present their spring commencement production, Spectacle, on May 28th and 29th at 8:00 in the Little Theater. Spectacle is a three act drama written and directed by Betty Jean Jones '71 of Albany, Ga.

Miss Jones says, "Spectacle" is about a collection of people. It's a comment on a collection of things. It may even be about anyone of the people who may see it, adult or child. I'd rate it 'G' for general audience."

Spectacle will carry the regular cast, Hilda Freeman, Malachi Greene, Sylvia Freeman, Freida Williamson, Vonzell Chancy and Robert Eggleston. After a year of absence Edna Williams will return to the stage. Myra Browning is the newcomer to the stage. She is a student
