More Americans Are "Eating Out"

Fifty-seven million persons are estimated to eat one meal a day away from home. Whereas a few years ago a worker or student carried lunch in a paper bag or pail, today they are more likely to buy it at or near their place of employment, or school.

RICHARD MOORE OF A&T STATE ELECTED TO NATIONAL BODY

Recently Richard Moore, head of A&T's News Bureau, was out of town and the school's public relations department was like a human body without a head.

But Moore was in New Orleans, La. attending a meeting of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges where that body realized his worth by naming him to the group's 100 member Executive Committee of Public Information Officers.

Moore has served as A&T's news director since 1967 and is a graduate of the University. After obtaining a masters degree in journalism from Columbia University, he worked for the Norfolk Journal and Guide, the Norfolk Ledger-Star and the Long Island Press.

"Public relations is a very rewarding field for young Blacks," he said in an interview recently, "and I am proud to serve on this commission."

The position will carry a 3-year term.

STAMP HONORING PHARMACISTS TO BE ISSUED NEXT YEAR

Postmaster R. E. Sharpe said today he had been informed by the U. S. Postal Service that a postage stamp will be issued next year in tribute to the service role played by the nation's 100,000 pharmacists. Two new regular stamps also will be issued.

The stamp will be keyed to the theme "Partners in Health."

A stamp honoring doctors appeared in 1947. There was a stamp in 1959 to salute the 150th anniversary of the American Dental Association. In 1961, nurses had their stamp, and earlier this year American hospitals were commemorated with a postal card.
