MOTHER OF FIVE GENERATIONS OBSERVES 92ND BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Mary McMurray Herbin, mother of fourteen, who resides with a daughter, Miss Ada Herbin, 1015 Arbor Dr., was feted with a celebration of 92 years, Sunday, April 2, 1972, given by her children and grandchildren, at the home of a daughter, Miss Annie B. Herbin, 1915 Carlton Ave., at 4:00 P.M.

Mrs. Herbin, widow of Joseph Herbin, formerly lived in the Red Hill-Sedgefield Community where she reared ten living children, of whom eight nor are living. They are Raymond, Claude, Roy; Mrs. Johnnie Alston, Ada and Beatrice, all of Greensboro; U. S. Navy Chief Petty Officer (ret.) Troy Webster Herbin of Annapolis, Md., and John William Herbin, Newport News, Va. The celebrity had 31 grandchildren, 27 living; 42 great grandchildren, 41 living; and two great-great grandchildren. The eldest son who would have comprised the fifth living generation of this family, The Rev. Connie V. Herbin died October, 1971. This lineage would have read: his mother, himself, his daughter, Mrs. Ethel Mae Watson of New York City, her son, Captain Victor Russell, U. S. Army, stationed in Georgia, his two children, Victor Junior and Dana. Yet, this mother and great-grand mother has lived to see each generation.

She attributes her long life, which is still active at a slow pace with failing eyesight, to Christian living, years of hard work and early to bed at night. At age 82 she retired from the only job she held and which she took after the passing of her husband a little over thirty years ago. At that time she was nursemaid to little Betty Jo East in the Sumner Township whose father had passed and her mother worked. During her early years, she breast-fed several of the Groomes children of the Groomtown Section, where the

Black Women's Institute Inaugurated

Dorothy I. Height, President of the National Council of Negro Women, announced today the inauguration of a Black Women's Institute, an educational and research program designed to collect, interpret and distribute information for and about Black women and their families. The Black Women's Institute will provide a channel for research and publication of information about Black women, their social, legal, economic and educational status.

In addition, the Black Women's Institute will provide a Resource Service Center that women may consult to assist them in their day-to-day lives. It will compile information on employment opportunities, day-care facilities, health care, scholarship information, educational opportunities, legal assistance, and welfare rights.

The event inaugurating the Black Women's Institute will be a 1972 Hunger Convocation. With the cooperation and support of a wide range of seriously concerned Americans from 93 national and local organizations, the convocation will focus attention on the prevalence of hunger in America today and to determine a realistic course of action to end hunger.

On April 21, 1972, at the Americana Hotel in New York City, the Convocation will bring together national leaders, professionals, the general public, and spokesmen representing vulnerable groups from the poverty and hunger belts with which the National Council of Negro Women is concerned.

Miss Marian Anderson is the distinguished Chairman for the Convocation. Reservations may be secured at the NCNW Convocation office, 95 Madison Ave. New York, N. Y. (212) 889-2244.
