'Open Mind' Earns Scholarship For Bobby Wynn of Greensboro

Eighteen-year-old Robert L. Wynn II believes in keeping an "open mind." He's that way about his studies, race relations and life.

Apparently his personal philosophy pays off for him, for this week the brainy youngster was named a recipient of a prestigious Morehead Scholarship, to attend the University of North Carolina. The award for four year's of study is worth $9,000.

Bobby, as he is generally known around Greensboro, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Wynn, both educators.

He was notified of his selection as a Morehead Scholar while on vacation from the elite prep school, Deerfield Academy in Massachusetts.

"I was really surprised to be nominated by my school for one of the awards," said Bobby, "but I had an open mind as far as my chances of being selected."
