APPRECIATION SERVICE HELD FOR SISTER GERTRUDE JEFFRIES

An appreciation service was held last Sunday, Aug. 6, at Goodwill Baptist Church, Rev. Foushee, pastor, for Sister Gertrude Jeffries. Sponsors of the program were V. Nathaniel Graves and family of Moments of Consideration heard over WEAL Radio Station, 1510 on your dial, each Sunday morning from 7:30 to 7:45.

Master of ceremonies was V. Nathaniel Graves. The program was enjoyable, inspiring and a great success.

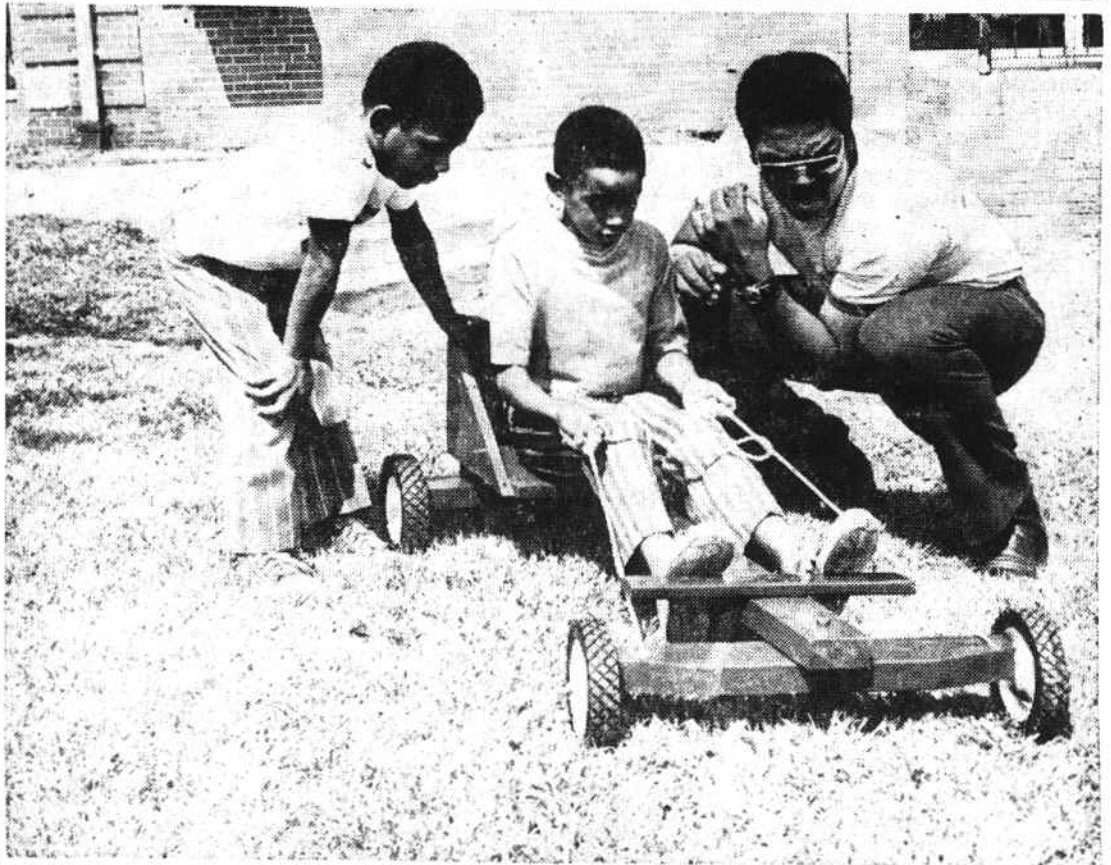

Those participating were: Evangelist Sis. Gertrude Grey of Rescue Temple Holiness Church; Deacon J. McGuy of the Community Prayer Band, who conducted the devotional and testimonial service; The Frank Williams Male Chorus of St. James Baptist Church, Rev. Prince Graves, pastor and the Sensational Gospel Band.

Mr. P. Kittrell, manager of the Sensational Gospel Band was presented and in turn presented the band. The selections from the band were enjoyed by all. May we say that the small children played their instruments with so much spirit that they almost talked.

Following the public offering was the introduction of the minister, Rev. Joseph Walker, a young man ordained last week from the Gethsemane Baptist Church where Rev. W. H. Hall

YMCA TO HOLD PUSHMOBILE DERBY

M. D. Pitchford, program director of the Hayes-Taylor YMCA, shows Robert Myrick, and Eric Price (seated) how to operate a pushmobile. A Pushmobile Derby will be held at the Y on Aug. 19.

HAYES-TAYLOR YMCA TO HOLD AREA'S FIRST PUSHMOBILE RACE

It will soon be "pushmobile" time at the Hayes-Taylor YMCA, and officials at the Y are expecting their first annual Pushmobile Derby to be the climax of the successful summer activities.

The Derby will be staged on an asphalt course in back of the YMCA on Saturday, Aug. 19 at 2 p.m. and will be open to all youngsters of the community from ages 12 through 15.

"We want it known that this will not be a Soapbox Derby," said M. D. Pitchford, program director at the Y. "This will be a Pushmobile Derby, in which one youngster will ride a simple cart, and the other youngster will push. We already have a lot of interest in this new event and we expect it to go over real big."

Pitchford said that churches, social clubs and fraternities and individuals in the communities are sponsoring entries in the Pushmobile Derby. He said there will be two divisions of the race, one for ages up to 12, and the heavyweight division for boys and girls from 13 to 15. Pitchford said there will be a speed race and one for coasting. He said trophies and other prizes will be awarded to the winners of each race.

He said the fee for entering the Pushmobile Derby will be $20.00 and organizations interested in sponsoring a crew are asked to contact him at the Y. The YMCA will furnish all materials necessary to construct a pushmobile.
