This paper desires correspondence from all sections of the county.

We wish to thank those who have come in and renewed their subscriptions to the Times without solicitation on our part.

We desire correspondence from all sections of the county. The responses to our request for news items have been splendid.

Some cornfield philosopher once remarked, "A mule a kickin' ain't a pullin', and a mule a pullin' ain't a kickin'."

Those who desire the Times sent to them each week for the low price of one dollar a year should subscribe at once.

Many years ago this writer became a member of a national organization of boys. Out of that experience came many pleasures and ideals.

The organization of business and professional men got off to a good start Friday night. We hope that the next meeting will have as good, if not better attendance.

FARM NEWS

By W. B. COLLINS, County Agent

The farmers of this county who are growing certified seed potatoes are keeping their vines sprayed to prevent injury from insects and blight.

Mr. A. A. Woodruff has sweet clover 2 feet high growing in his field of wheat. It looks like the sweet clover will about get the best of the wheat.

The Jersey City lamb market on Thursday, June 8th, was as follows: Receipts this morning were 10 cars. The quality was generally quite good.

Prospects for next week will depend largely on the size of the receipts and the demand.

The dominating factor in present lamb prices is the extremely short supply at western points at this time and is not caused by any strong demand for lamb meat.

The Idaho and other early new crop lambs that usually commence to come to western markets after the middle of June are reported two or three weeks late and light receipts of lambs are expected at western markets during June and possibly early July.

LOW PRICE CARS VS. CHEAP CARS

We do not build a low-price car; the cost to us of building our car is pretty high. But we do sell a high quality car at a low price. Almost every new Ford V-8 car we have built so far this year, has cost more to manufacture than its selling price was. As you buy them at only $490 to $610, we have to depend on increasing volume to make up the difference. The reason for this is simple: — a manufacturer who gives good value must expect to lose money on the first cars he sells because he cannot charge all his costs to the people who are first to buy. But with the purchaser it is different — he cannot afford to lose anything on a car. It must give him full value from the first, and keep on giving him full value for years. Two things make possible our combination of low prices and high cost quality: 1. Volume Production 2. Taking only one profit First, we set our price at what would be fair to the public on the basis of economies we enjoy in volume production. Then, in order to justify and maintain our low price we must get volume sales. Thus it comes that a car which is really high-cost to make, is also low-cost to buy. There is a difference between a cheap car and a low-priced high quality car. Ford prices are always fixed at a point which makes it profitable for a customer to buy. Good and lasting business must produce profit to the buyer as well as to the seller. And of the two, the buyer's profit must be, comparatively, the larger one. It pays us to sell the Ford V-8 because it pays you to buy it.
