We understand that it has not been customary for the Times to be published during Christmas week heretofore, so we feel sure that our subscribers will not expect an issue this week. However we are sending out an abbreviated edition, with the hope that you will find the New Year one of greater hope and more prosperous than the past.

WHY WE GREET THE NEW YEAR

WHY do we greet thee, O blithe New Year?
What are thy pleasures of mirth and cheer?
Comest, knight-errant, the wrong to right?
Comest to scatter our gloom with light?
Comest to thrill, the sparkle and shine to heart and eyes at a word of thine?

Through the ether clear, from the solemn sky
The New Year beckons and makes reply:
"Bring your friends, what the years have brought
Since ever man toiled, aspired, or thought—
Days for labor, and nights for rest;
And I bring you love, a heaven-born guest
Space to work in, and work to do,
And faith in that which is pure and true."

FATHER and SON BANQUET

The Sparta Chapter of The Young Tar Heel Farmers held their annual Father and Son Banquet in the reading room of the high school building on Thursday evening, December 7. This was probably the best banquet in the history of the organization. The room was attractively decorated with evergreens, and place cards in the form of miniature Christmas trees indicated the places of the sixty-one guests.

Friday morning December 15, Miss Lambert's primary chorus classes participated in a contest of Christmas carols.

First and second grades—"Upon the House Top"; Third grade—"Away in a Manger"; Fourth grade—"Santa Claus Land". The third grade was chosen winners and was awarded a picture, "Morning Song" for their room.

Monday morning the grammar grade chorus classes had their second contest. They sang the following Christmas songs: Fifth grade—"Joy To the World"; Sixth grade—"It Came Upon a Midnight Clear"; Seventh grade—"Silent Night". The seventh grade won this contest also and was permitted to keep their picture which they won in the first contest.

The senior class entertained at the Chapel hour Tuesday morning Dec 19, with the following program: Piano Solo—"Christmas Fantasia" Mildred Taylor. "Who's Who"—Mildred Shores, Music—Guitar and banjo, Johnson Sanders, Bowen Irwin. Reading "Mollie Little Ram"—Madge McMillan. Guitar Solo—"Moonlight and Skies"—Johnson Sanders. Guitar solo, "Hobo Bills Last Ride"—Bower Irwin; Duets—Lonesome Roar Blues; "Bury me Under the Weeping Willow Tree" by Johnson Sanders and Bower Irwin. Songs "When the Cactus is in Bloom"—Bower Irwin "Sweet Jennin Lee"—Bower Irwin.

Recent survey shows that pipe lines used for transporting oil in the United States have a total length of 111,660 miles.

HEART ATTACK IS FATAL TO JUDGE T. W. WATSON

Winston-Salem, Dec. 19.—Judge Thomas W. Watson, of municipal court here, died tonight of a heart attack. He was 62 years old. Judge Watson, who had a wide reputation as a jurist because of his often unconventional decisions, was ill for about 30 minutes. He was stricken at his home here. For the last ten years, Judge Watson had presided over municipal court here. He was known for the severity of his sentences upon violators of the prohibition laws, and only recently announced a policy of imposing terms of a year and a day, to replace the federal sentences that went out with repeal.

MONOPLANE BELEIVED THAT OF LINDBERGH'S

Wilmington, Dec. 19.—A large monoplane headed north and flying fast passed over Wrightsville Sound eight miles from here at 10 A. M. and residents believed the ship to be that of Col. and Mrs. Lindbergh, who took off from Charleston, S. C. earlier today. The plane was at an altitude of approximately 1200 feet.

Reynolds Hunting Ducks

Currituck, Dec. 19.—Dick Reynolds, of Winston-Salem, is in Currituck county shooting ducks and geese. Mr. Reynolds is at Crain Gunning lodge at Jarvisburg.

GOVERNOR CALLS BURLEY HOLIDAY

Although he expressed cognizance of the fact that only a very small proportion of tobacco grown in North Carolina is of the burley type, Governor Ehringhaus yesterday issued a proclamation calling on growers in the western part of the State to cooperate with burley producers in Kentucky and Tennessee, where marketing holidays have been declared, by observing a voluntary holiday, beginning today and continuing until further proclamation.

He called upon all growers and warehousemen in the burley belt to cooperate in this endeavor to secure a satisfactory solution of the marketing situation now presented. Governor Ehringhaus declared he was in sympathy with and wanted to do as much for the burley growers as for producers in the flour-cured belts.
