WILL MANAGE CONGRESS
President Roosevelt, it seems to us, should have little trouble in managing the coming Congress with its unwieldy majority of Democrats. Boiled down, the President will not have to depend on the support of any specific group and, in most instances, can get along without quite a number of them. On the other hand, the individual congressmen will need the President much more than he will need them and cooperation is apt to be the watchword of nearly all of them.

This does not mean that there will not be some strong divisions of sentiment among the members of his party but that the presidential influence will throw into line a sufficient number of non-committal congressmen to carry almost anything he wishes carried. Of course, there may be a congressional stampede on some special issue but, in the main, the next Congress may be expected to carry out the wishes of the Chief Executive.

REPUBLICAN PARTY ALIVE
We are unable to follow the reasoning of those who view the recent election as the death knell of the Republican party. While the Democrats scored an outstanding victory, no one should overlook the more than 12,000,000 votes cast for Republican candidates nor the fact that the aggregate majority of Democratic voters in the country was only about 3,000,000.

The probability is that the Republicans will re-form their lines, re-state their objectives and come back in the future. Nobody will say when this will occur but the surprising Democratic strength after the amazing whippings administered by Harding, Coolidge and Hoover easily illustrates the possibilities of the Republican Party.

AIRSHIP LINES PLANNED
The proposal to span the seas with American-built, owned and operated lighter-than-air airships, is receiving attention from several agencies of the government and serious consideration is being given to the establishment of Federal financed trans-Atlantic and South American airship services.

Two ships of the Zeppelin type for European service, and one smaller ship flying to South America are included in the tentative program. The first cost is estimated at $17,000,000. Later, it is expected the service would be enlarged to include service from Western ports to the Far East.

Recently, Rear Admiral E. J. King, Chief of the Naval Bureau of Aeronautics told the aviation commission that a special committee, of which he was the Navy member, had recommended that the Secretary of Commerce secure PWA funds to construct two transoceanic airships. Later, another study of the problem was made by the Department of Commerce which asked all aviation services to prepare plans for the construction of airships and their subsequent operations, with the ultimate objective "a round-the-world" mail and passenger service.

PLANNING '35 BUDGET
According to the best information, the federal budget for the fiscal year which begins next July will be about as large as that of the present period, or about $7,500,000,000. While the emergency expenditure items are somewhat uncertain, they are expected to include an undetermined amount for public works, emergency relief and continuation of the Civilian Conservation Corps. Direct relief plans are expected to include the FERA, slum clearance, rural rehabilitation, subsistence homestead projects and the Home Owners' Loan Corporation. The idea is to eliminate direct relief as much as possible and, if possible, provide work for those on relief rolls.

BORAH CHARGES WASTE
Harry L. Hopkins, relief administrator, was quick to take action on the charges by Senator Borah that there has been "shameful" waste in distributing relief funds. Mr. Borah said the greatest "political scandal" of modern times lay in what he regarded as the use of relief money to promise political advantage. He also declared that "while everyone wants to see those in need get relief, millions never reach those who need it," and the amount "expended before it gets to those in need is appalling." Instances had been brought to his attention, he said, in which the cost of administering a fund was about half the fund to be administered.

HOPKINS STARTS INQUIRY
In reply, FERA officials declared that administration costs were approximately eleven and one-half percent. In addition, Administrator Hopkins ordered his chief investigator to "go the limit" in investigating the charges and assured Senator Borah "you can be assured that no conditions which you state exist will be tolerated for a moment." In reply, Mr. Borah said he would be glad to see the investigator and assured Mr. Hopkins that he did not question the sentence above quoted.

Playthings Ranked With Bread As Vital Childhood Necessities

Variety of Toys Held Essential to Child Education

EVERY American youngster must have the toys and games required for normal child development.
With this slogan for equal play opportunity, communities in every part of the country are organizing to provide under-privileged children with the toys and games suitable for their age. ## Hectic Days Sleepless Nights

IF YOU are nervous today, you probably will not sleep well tonight. If you don't sleep well tonight, you will probably be nervous tomorrow.
Don't allow yourself to become nervous. Take Dr. Miles Nervine. It will relax your tense nerves and let you get a good night's sleep.
Irritability, Restlessness, Sleeplessness, often lead to Nervous Headache, Nervous Indigestion, Hysteria—sometimes to a nervous breakdown and organic trouble.
Some of the people, whose letters are printed below, were as nervous as you are—possibly more so—yet they have found relief.
Three years ago I was so nervous I could not bear to go out in company and could not sleep nights. A friend recommended Dr. Miles Nervine. I now enjoy myself thoroughly and sleep every night. Miss Juliette Currier, New Market, N. H.
I have used Dr. Miles Nervine in liquid form and find it the best medicine for the nerves I have ever used. Christene Lanier, Middleton, Tennessee

Dr. Miles Nervine Tablets quiet your nerves, brace you up and are the simplest, most convenient tablets to take I have ever found. Miss Grace Redmann, St. James, Minn.
Before using your Nervine I was very nervous and irritable. Since I have started to take it I feel so much better that my family notice the difference. I still take it from time to time and the good result is wonderful. J. H. Redding, 1027 18th Ave., Rock Island, Ill.
