JOHN WADDELL IS GIVEN SURPRISE BIRTHDAY DINNER

On Sunday, May 31, a surprise birthday dinner was given in honor of John W. Waddell, whose 75th birthday fell on June 2. A large group of relatives and friends gathered on Sunday morning at the home of Mr. Waddell, who lives alone on his farm near Nathan's Creek, and found he had gone away from home for the day. A car was sent to bring him back and on his arrival he found the crowd waiting to greet him.

Tables had been placed on the lawn under a large cherry tree and covered with food from the well-filled baskets and boxes brought by the visitors. After a few preliminary remarks by Sidney Gambill, the delicious dinner was fully enjoyed by those present.

The list of those attending follows: Mrs. Eliza Plummer, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Tucker and sons, of Furches; Mr. and Mrs. J. Lester Waddell and Pauline Richardson, Whitehead; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Waddell, Jefferson; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Waddell, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Waddell, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Waddell and Janie Wood, Laurel Springs; Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Waddell, Miss Elma Waddell, Mr. and Mrs. Vince Waddell, S. C. Richardson and J. D. Williams, Scottville; Guy Waddell, Nora Waddell and Willard Waddell, Piney Creek; E. F. Gambill, Mr. and Mrs. Brice Gambill, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fender and Phleat Fender, Crumpler; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Little and son, John Clifford, Nathans Creek, and Mrs. Ollie Edwards, Mary Lucy Gunter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Gambill and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Gambill, Sparta.
