

Obituary

LEVI M. FENDER

Levi Monroe Fender, son of Solomon and Bettie Fender, was born at Edwards Cross Roads, September 2, 1866, and died May 18, 1936, making his stay on earth 69 years, eight months and sixteen days. He was married to Mary Jane Gillespie September 12, 1889. To this union were born four children, viz: Sarah Ella, who died at the age of two years; Gideon Lester Fender, of Annapolis, Md.; William Floyd Fender, of Canton, and Mrs. Edd Miller, of Laurel Springs. He is also survived by his kind and affectionate wife and granddaughter, Miss Evon Fender, of Sparta, two sisters, Mrs. S. E. Cox, of Fox, Va., and Mrs. Lundy Joiner, of Edwards Cross Roads, and one brother, W. I. Fender, of Detroit, Mich.

He joined the Primitive Baptist church at Zion about 22 years ago and remained a faithful member until death.

He was afflicted 27 years, being unable to do any manual labor. For 18 years he was not able to walk and was blind for 15 years.

Funeral services were held by Elders J. A. Moxley and S. G. Caudill.

His body was laid to rest in Crab Creek cemetery.

He was buried a warm physical body but will come forth a glorified spiritual body.

There are many things we can't understand and one is why this good man had to be afflicted and suffer so long. God only knows. As Paul said, "We know that all things work together for good to them that love God." Romans 8:28. He could not see the beauties of nature on account of physical blindness but, through the eyes of faith in Christ, he could see like Abraham of old, the Holy city, whose maker and builder is God. I have been in his home frequently, and never left without hearing him speak of the goodness and mercies of God.

Dear ones, do not grieve but rejoice. You can cherish the memory of such a father. He has left you a legacy far greater than silver and gold. It is sad to think of his passing but our loss is his eternal gain. May we all look forward to the day when we shall see him wearing a robe made white in the blood of the Lamb. May his Godly walk and righteous conversation bring us all closer to the God he served and loved so well.

Funeral arrangements were carried out according to his request. Written by his nephew, who loved and admired him as a man of God. DAVID G. MOXLEY his brother Rufe were his supporters; he added that their support contradicted that he was a "machine" candidate.

He concluded that "you can't build a great state on hate," that North Carolina "ought to be a great family" and advocated "harmony" in building a "great commonwealth."

In her remarks, Mrs. Spencer referred to Mr. Hoey as a man who has been preaching Democracy up and down the state for the other fellow for 35 years. She referred to Rufe Doughton as a warhorse of Democracy, "who knows we need a leader now as never before."

Mr. Doughton reminded his listeners of the state's past history and "fine tradition" and pointed out they "look forward more to the future." He referred to the speaker as a man who has preached Democracy for 40 years and said that "where the line was about to break he (Hoey) was called to the rescue to save the army from defeat."

Daily Papers Of

support the opposition. In this territory six papers swung away from the Chief Executive and one went over to him. On the basis of the figures compiled, only 1.1% will urge his re-election.

As might be expected, most of the papers in the Solid South will line up behind the Democratic nominee. One hundred twenty-eight replies were received from 397 papers, and 99 of them, or 77%, will support him. However, it is interesting to note that a total of 12 southern papers have veered from the administration and will support the chief opposition ticket, while 11 are still in doubt as to what course they will pursue. But, including the shifts, only 14 southern dailies announce their intention of supporting the opposition of Mr. Roosevelt.

The North Central States present some interesting figures. 34% of the 480 papers questioned replied, and of this number 54%, or 90 papers, will support the Republican candidate, while 41, or 24%, will be behind Mr. Roosevelt. Fourteen papers announced they had changed their policy from four years ago and six recorded themselves as doubtful.

In the Agricultural states— from which come most of the grain and meat of the nation— there is also an interesting picture. A high proportion of returns, 36%, was received from this territory. Questionnaires were sent to 315 papers and 115 of them replied. Sixty-nine, or 60%, will support Mr. Roosevelt's opponent. This total includes 10 which supported the President four years ago. Thirty-five per cent, or 41 papers, including one which has reversed its stand since the last election, are for re-election of the Democratic president, and only four list themselves as doubtful.

The Mountain States made the highest rate of return of any section, 38% of the 117 blanks being returned. Here the support for the President and his forthcoming opponent will be much more evenly divided, with the doubtful papers holding a "balance of power." There are eight publications so listing themselves, while 19 are against Mr. Roosevelt and 15 for him.

The Pacific Coast publications register strong disapproval of the administration. Out of 75 replies from 198 papers, 57%, or 43, indicate their intention of lining up with the opposition, while but 17 papers express approval of the present regime. Four papers have switched from Roosevelt and two have swung over to him, while seven are in doubt as to whom they will support.

How Tax Experts Are Made

(An editorial reprinted from the Greensboro Daily News of Sunday, May 31.)

Forsyth county tax records indicate that Ralph W. McDonald made a voluntary tax return or listing of taxes only three times since becoming a resident in 1928. The tax department was compelled to pick him up as an unlisted delinquent for the years 1929, 1930, 1932, 1935. Tax collector advises he was compelled to levy in order to collect first three mentioned delinquent taxes. This information is not given as campaign propaganda but is furnished to any reputable citizen of North Carolina same as similar inquiries regarding any other Forsyth county taxpayer.—Vernon W. Flynt, tax supervisor in reply to a telegram from the Harnett County News.

And it is not given at this juncture as campaign propaganda per se; statements by county taxpayers of taxation delinquency on the part of any other gubernatorial candidate will be given the same prominence.

We are suing this primarily as a preface to asking the question if the delinquents of North Carolina constitute any considerable part of those untapped sources from which Dr. McDonald aims to make up the shortage when he repeals the sales tax. If so, we hasten to prophesy his disappointment. The general run of college professors list their taxes; and even if they did not, their combined payments would not amount to more than about .05 per cent of the $10,000,000 which the sales-tax levy will produce this year.

As to whether such delinquency renders Dr. McDonald unfit for governor we are not going to say. Many a good citizen, we daresay, has forgotten to list, and college profs are notoriously absent-minded. But we think that after having been levied on three times and then elected to the legislature—where he himself admits having qualified as a taxation expert—he ought to have attended to the matter in 1935.

There are, we think, sufficient other reasons for not voting for Ralph W. McDonald for governor, and we confess that any decision we may have reached had been arrived at before hearing from Supervisor Flynt; but if Dr. McDonald will find a machine candidate who has four times failed to list in eight years, we'll agree to vote against him, too.

In the meantime we hardly know what to do with the statement Dr. McDonald is said by the Harnett County News to have made in a speech at Lillington that he had made an intense study of taxation for the past 15 years!—adv.

RIDING TWO HORSES.

If you demand the term "broad-minded" be used in connection with your name, then stop to consider your vote.

Are you voting blindly, selfishly, ignorantly, and without consideration for the principles of honor, idealism, and integrity on which our State's Government is founded?

When you reach your polling place Saturday, June 6, to assist in selecting the candidates for office, it is your individual duty to vote as honor demands.

In selecting a man for the honorable and responsible position of Governor of North Carolina, we must select a man who is honorable, experienced, trustworthy and capable. Are you willing, in order to satisfy a selfish aim, to sacrifice the idealism of the government of our State and Nation? Are you willing to accept promises rather than the actuality of safe guidance—particularly in a period of insecurity? Are you willing to accept inexperience rather than an unselfish attempt at state betterment?

If you are egotistical enough to believe you can demolish the foundations of a structure laid by the finest of statesmen and oust the line of occupants in whose veins flows the undefiled blood of loyal, patriotic nativity, without also destroying yourself, then you will be careless in casting your ballot.

Support your state, the ideals for which it has stood for years—and for which it still must stand—and CAST YOUR BALLOT ON JUNE 6 FOR CLYDE R. HOEY.
