The Curse of Progress

His Suggestion
"What wor that I saw yer boy Mike carryin' yesterday?" asked Mr. Dolan.
"That," answered Mr. Rafferty, "wor his golf outfit. What do yer think iv it?"
"Well, it struck me at the time that all it wanted was a pick an' shovel to be a fine kit o' tools."

Selective Society
"How's the new jail coming along?" asked the traveling man.
"Fine," answered Cactus Joe. "Crimson Gulch has taken great pride in making it so handsome and comfortable that the warden expects to have a long waiting list of our most prominent racketeers."

The Penl
A meek little man was in court for a minor offense.
"Were you ever in trouble before?" asked the judge.
"Well, er—er—," was the hesitating response. "I kept a library book too long once and was fined 6 cents."

POSTPONING THE DISHES

By GLUYAS WILLIAMS

A Winsome Quartette

THERE was a lull in the mid-morning activities of the Chic Twins (in aprons this time) and their week-end guests when the candid camera caught this gay quartette. The guests are wearing—let's have a close-up—sports dresses because they are so all purpose: tennis frocks go shopping just as often as not. The spectator model to the right with its unusual use of buttons is demure enough to wear when calling on one's Sunday school teacher and yet would have sufficient swing to "belong" in the gallery at the golf tournament. Summer days offer so many unexpected opportunities that these dresses are chosen as equal to any informal occasion. The aprons on the charming hostesses to the left are both cut from one pattern. The clever miss will never overlook a pattern package that offers two such charming numbers for the price of one. The exhibit is over now; feature in one yourself in the very near future by ordering these patterns today.

The Patterns.
Pattern 1276 is designed in sizes small (34 to 36), medium (38 to 40), large (42 to 44). Medium size requires 1 3/4 yards of 39-inch material. Pattern 1915 is designed in sizes 14 to 20 (32 to 42). Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards of 35-inch material.
Pattern 1224 is designed in sizes 12 to 20 (30 to 40). Size 14 requires 4 1/2 yards of 39-inch material. With long sleeves size 14 requires 4 3/4 yards of 35 inch material.
