The Curse of Progress

She Wonders Why

The sweet young thing was showing him her snapshot album.

"This," she said, "is a snap I took of a bird."

"B-but," he murmured, "I can only see his tail."

"Well, you see," she explained, "I was afraid it would frighten him when he heard the click of my camera . . ."

"Yes," and the young man waited.

"So I coughed to drown the sound and the silly thing flew away!"

Better

A teacher was instructing a class in English, and called on Jimmy Green.

"James," she said, "write on the board—Richard can ride the mule if he wants to."

"Now," continued the teacher when Jimmy had finished writing, "Can you find a better form for that sentence?"

"Yes, ma'am, I think I can," was the prompt answer. "Richard can ride the mule if the mule wants him to."

For Discriminating People

NOW is the time for all smart women to come to the aid of their wardrobes. Sew-Your-Own wants to lend a hand, Milady; hence today's trio of mid-summer pace makers.

At The Left.
A trim little reminder that careful grooming is an asset anywhere, anytime, is this frock. It features simplicity. Its forte is comfort. Make one version in cotton for all purpose wear, another of sports silk for dressy occasions. You'll praise the cool cut of its short sleeves and softly rolled collar. Yes, Milady, you'll enjoy making it.

In The Center.
Here you have a light and breezy ensemble that's the perfect attire for Society. It has cosmopolitan dash, refinement, and engaging charm. Once more you'll be the subject of complimentary tea table talk with your delightfully slender silhouette. Make it of sheer chiffon or more durable acetate. You'll have a winner in either.

At The Right.
The little lady who likes unisex touches in her frocks will go to this new dress and pantie set. It has the chic of mommy's dress plus a little-girl daintiness that more than fetches. Wrap around styling makes it easy for even the tiniest girl to get into and quite a time saver on ironing day. A splendid idea is to cut this pattern twice and be assured of your sister's all summer chic.

Favorite Recipe of the Week

Freer Ice Cream.
1 quart milk
1 package ice cream powder (vanilla, strawberry, lemon, maple, or chocolate flavor)

Add milk very gradually to ice cream powder, stirring until dissolved. Pour into freezer can; place in freezer and pack mixture of cracked ice and salt around can (use 8 parts ice to 1 part salt). Turn slowly for 3 minutes, then rapidly and continuously until frozen. Makes 1½ quarts ice cream.

Any of the following may be substituted for milk in this recipe: 1 quart rich milk or light cream, 1 cup cream and 3 cups milk, or 2 cups evaporated milk and 2 cups milk or water.

*With chocolate ice cream powder, add ½ cup sugar.
