POP— Foolish Question

By J. MILLAR WATT

Curse of Progress

Foking Fun

A vicious jab in the midsection with an umbrella attracted the street car conductor's attention to the information-seeking old lady. "Young man," she demanded, "is that the post office?" "No, ma'am," said the conductor, backing away. "That there's my stummick!"

Aunt's Septic Dept.
Dear Aunt—Knowing you to be addicted to sports (teh, there, Aunt!) I wish to know who was the last man to box John L. Sullivan?—Courageous Cal.
Dear Cal—The last man to box Mister Sullivan was the undertaker—Aunt Septic.

Wrong Number
Fuming Business Man (as the lady emerges from the telephone booth)—So you've finished with that phone at last, madam?
Woman (lilly)—May I inform you that I have not touched the telephone? I was only resting until the rain would stop.

STUDYING

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for August 29

GOD CONDEMNS INTEMPERANCE.

LESSON TEXT—Leviticus 10:1, 2, 8-11; Proverbs 31:4, 5; Isaiah 28:1-8; Romans 14:21.

GOLDEN TEXT—Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise. Prov. 20:1.

PRIMARY TOPIC—What a Wise King Said.

JUNIOR TOPIC—When a Man Drinks.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How Drinking Harms Others.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Why Beverage Alcohol Is a Social Foe.

The use of intoxicating liquors is financially unprofitable to the nation, scientifically unwise and destructive, socially degrading, and morally wrong. We have, therefore, in our series of lessons for 1937, four which are devoted to the drink problem, touching it from each of these viewpoints: the financial on January 31; the scientific on April 18; the social today; and the moral yet to come, on October 31. Let us make sure that this grave issue is being faced both in our homes and in our churches.

I. The Problem.
The selected Old Testament scriptures which comprise our lesson present the use of intoxicants as causing four socially undesirable results.

1. Religious disobedience (Lev. 10:1, 2; Isa. 28:7). Two things we may rightfully expect of those who serve the nation in its religious life: (1) a vision of God and obedience to that vision in life and service, and (2) the exercise of sound God-guided judgment in the affairs of the people. But note what happens when the prophet and the priest turn to wine and strong drink. They err in vision" (Isa. 28:7). That is, they have no clear concepts of divine truth, and lead the people into error. Further, we see that "they stumble in judgment," that is, of advising and counseling those to whom he ministers. If his mind is befuddled by the use of alcohol (or, for that matter, of any other kind of worldly indulgence) he will "stumble," and cause his people to stumble.

A sad incident is related in Lev. 10:1, 2 of the sons of Aaron, appointed to the priesthood and instructed in its privileges and duties, but coming with strange fire to be offered before the Lord. Swift and terrible was the judgment they received. We are not told directly that they were intoxicated, but it is implied in the fact that there is an immediate injunction against the use of wine by the priests.

Let someone think that such a thing could not happen in our day the writer mentions word which recently came to him that a leading seminary has professors on its staff who defend the so-called moderate use of alcoholic drink.

2. Political disorder (Prov. 1:5). While political leaders make sanctimonious protestations that government agencies are not influenced by the liquor interests, it is common knowledge to even those who are slightly informed that the two are closely associated. The result of that unholy alliance is rightly described in Prov. 31:5—"They forget the law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted." Much of the sad disorder in the body politic is traceable directly to the door of the makers and sellers of alcoholic beverages.

3. National decay (Isa. 28:1-6). "Overcome with wine"—stricken down, useless in life, without true ambition, such is the picture of the man who gives himself to drink. Poverty, with all its attendant social problems, follows on the heels of the sale and use of intoxicants. Some liquor dealers are beginning to sense a rising tide of opposition to their business, and are advertising, "We do not want bread money," but the fact is that it is all too often bread money that goes for liquor, and the vile stuff is still on sale where the poor man may readily spend his "bread money" for it.

4. Personal degradation (Isa. 28: 8). "Vomit and filthiness" are not very nice words, but they describe accurately the ultimate condition of the drinker and his surroundings. The writer knows a young man who boasts that he never gets drunk because the "booze" makes him so sick that he vomits it up. Imagine a supposedly intelligent man drinking stuff so vile that his stomach (evidently having more sense than his head) sends it back—and then boasting of his ability to drink more!

II. The Solution, a Divine Principle (Rom. 14:21).
Thousands of Christian people have solved not only the drink problem, but practically every question of conduct and social life by applying this principle. Surely no true follower of Christ will be guilty of doing anything that will cause any brother to be offended, to stumble, or to be made weak. This is a high standard of life and conduct, but the Christian has a high and holy calling.

A Crocheted Rug Is a Lifetime Joy

This rug that you can so easily crochet yourself will be a lifetime joy. See it isn't! Do the stunner medallions separately—they're just 8 1/4 inch squares—and joining them till you've a rug of desired size. If you like, in each flower center a different or, keeping the background uniform. Rug wool or candlewick make for a sturdy durable rug otherwise useless rags will serve the purpose. In pattern you will find instructions for making the rug shown; an illustration of it and of all stitches used; material requirements; color suggestions, a photograph of the actual rug.

Send 15 cents in stamps or coins (coins preferred) for this pattern to The Sewing Circle Household Arts Dept., 259 W. Fourteenth New York, N. Y.

What You Seek

Have you ever thought of many objects you pass with even noticing them; how many voices and sounds fail to register with you?

It seems that one usually seeks what he is looking for and he that to which his ears are attuned.

Perhaps this is what Emerson had in mind when he said that one brings back from Europe something which he did not take with him. (Excluding merchandise of course.)—Ohio Farmer.

HELP KIDNEYS

To Get Rid of Acid and Poisonous Waste

Your kidneys help to keep you healthy by constantly filtering waste matter from the blood. If your kidneys functionally disordered and fail to remove excess impurities, there may be poisoning of the whole system and body-wide distress.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination may be a warning of some kidney or bladder disturbance.

You may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up at night, swelling, puffing under the eyes—feel weak, nervous, played out.

In such cases it is better to rely on medicine that has won country-wide acclaim than on something less favorably known. Use Doan's Pills. A multitude of grateful people recommend Doan's. Ask your neighbor!
