BIG TOP

Everyone is interested in the fate of Alta, the elephant. Meanwhile, Jeff Bangs, the big boss, has a plan.

COME ON, BUTCH - MYRA SHOULD BE DRESSED BY NOW - LET'S GO TO HER TENT AN' FIND OUT WHAT HAPPENED LAST NIGHT!!

HA-A-A- THERE SHE IS, BOYS - SHOOT THE BUCK!!

HELLO, MYRA!! IT'S 'FLIP' AND 'BUTCH' - ARE YA DECENT?

YES, I'M ALL READY, BOYS - COME IN!!

MEANWHILE, JEFF BANGS HAD SOUGHT OUT TWO HUSKY CANVASMEN -

IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE SHOW TONIGHT, I WANT YOU BOYS TO REPORT TO MY CAR!

O.K., GUV'NOR!!

IF I'M NOT THERE SAM, THE PORTER, WILL LET YOU IN - NOT A WORD OF THIS TO ANYBODY - I'VE GOT A SPECIAL JOB FOR YOU!!

Why He Was Late
Burglar (to belated assistant)—You're late. I told you 'alf past one.
Young Burglar—I forgot the number of the 'ouse so I had to break into every 'house on the street.

Running Short
Dentist's Daughter—Well, dear, have you asked father for my hand yet?
Shy Suitor—No. Every time I step into his office, I lose courage. Today I allowed him to pull another tooth.

Let Freedom Ring

New York, N. Y.—"IT'S TRUE! that 'Let Freedom Ring' marks the first reunion in fourteen years of Victor McLaglen and director Jack Conway," says Wiley Pagan. "Their last previous association was 'The Hunted Woman' in 1925. . . . Testing hand strength between scenes at M-G-M the other day, McLaglen bent a large spike nail using but three fingers of his left hand. . . . As a graduation present for his eighteen-year-old son, McLaglen will pay his fare on a round-the-world trip, but his son will help pay the other expenses by writing magazine stories of his experiences, to be illustrated by Lawrence Tibbett, Jr., who will accompany him."
