Stratford

Stratford, Oct. 1.—Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Moxley, former Alleghanyans, who now live in Maryland, accompanied by Mrs. Moxley's aunt and uncle, Mr. Bob and Miss Annie Warden, of near Elk Creek Church, stopped here for a brief visit with old friends one day last week.

Mrs. Pauline Grant and little daughter, Doris, from Chester, Pa., are visiting Mrs. Grant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mabe. Miss Helen Patterson and brother, Robert Patterson, of Coatesville, Pa., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rector, of this place.

O. M. Richardson of this place has installed an up-to-date cane mill at his home. He uses his waterpower by attaching a pulley to the mill wheel to grind the cane, and has built a tall chimney for his furnace. He has an extra large evaporator, well covered, and no need to say the molasses are extra fine. The loads of cane arriving daily makes one think that we are going to have molasses for everyone.

Misses Imogene and Anna Ruth Richardson, who are attending Phifers College, spent the week-end with homefolks here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Fender attended the baptizing at Roans Creek, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Sexton visited at Edgar Mabe's Sunday night. Reedy Estep is again very sick. We were pleased to have with us one day last week for a short visit our former mail carrier, Walter Taylor, of Glade Valley.
