EDWARDS

Mrs. T. A. Edwards, age 78, died suddenly at her home in Airbelows community on Thursday, October 24, following a year's illness.

The funeral services were held at Union church in Whitehead, conducted by Elders S. G. Caudill, Coy Walker, J. M. Williams and Charles Kilby. Mrs. Edwards was laid to rest in the Union Church cemetery. Pallbearers were her grandsons, and flower girls were largely her granddaughters. She is survived by her husband and four daughters, Mrs. Ina Joines of Joines, N. C., Mrs. Myra Joines, Mrs. Eula Truitt of Sparta and Mrs. Nannie Joines of Stratford, and two brothers, Asa Caudill of Whitehead and Arza Caudill of Galax. One sister also survives, Mrs. John Richardson of Stratford.

The State forest tree nursery on the Clayton State Forest in Johnston county raised its annual production capacity from a half-million seedlings to ten million with the aid of C C C workers.

A Third Term?

YES!

EARL BROWDER

Communist Candidate for President of the U. S. "The tradition against a third term in the presidency must be set aside."

BOSS

EDWARD J. KELLY

Mayor of Chicago "I suppose I was one of the very first to go on record for a third term."

BOSS FRANK HAGUE

Mayor of Jersey City, N. J., and Vice-Chairman, Democratic National Committee. "Absolutely 100% for a third term for Mr. Roosevelt."

HAROLD L. ICKES

Secretary of the Interior. "But, after all, what is a 'sacred tradition' among friends?"

NO!

GEO. WASHINGTON

He declined a third term and thereby set the precedent of a two term limit for President.

THOMAS JEFFERSON

"Should a President consent to be a candidate for a third election, I trust he would be rejected on this demonstration of ambitious views."

ANDREW JACKSON

"It would seem advisable to limit the services of the Chief Magistrate to a single term of either four or six years."

WOODROW WILSON

"It is intolerable that any President should be permitted to determine who should succeed him—himself or another."

Democratic Platform of 1896

"We declare it to be the unwritten law of this Republic, established by custom and usage of one hundred years, and sanctioned by the greatest and wisest of those who founded and have maintained our government, that no man should be eligible for a third term of the Presidential office."
