VERY IMPORTANT NOTICE

To Association Members:

On account of fire October 29, at N. Wilkesboro, which caused considerable damage to our Main office we have been granted special permission from the State Insurance Department on behalf of our membership to extend your dues, giving us sufficient time in which to again set up our records for keeping accurate accounts. As a result of the fire, no names have been lost, but many cards were disfigured, and a new set will have to be made up. However, we are in position to receive membership dues, and have also been granted 30 days additional in which to re-arrange our files. Your time limit is now November 30 instead of October 31, but we advise that you attend to it promptly.

30 DAYS ADDITIONAL TIME IN WHICH TO PAY
