

Ennice

Ennice, Dec. 2.—Miss Opal Edwards left Saturday for North East, Md., where she will spend a few weeks with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Spurlin spent Thanksgiving with Walter Cheek and family. Mrs. Earl Smith of Dalhart, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Andrews. Mrs. Erdine Ree Edwards is still improving slowly. Mrs. John Jarvis and children, Mrs. Earlie Smith, Mrs. Kemper Jarvis and Wanda Jean Wilson visited Wiley Andrews and daughter, Estelene, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Andrews and son Hoke had Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Reynolds. Miss Martha Mae Smith of Dalhart spent Saturday night with Misses Evon, Eura Lee, Elaine and Emolene Spurlin. Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Reynolds and family of Maryland spent Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Reynolds. Miss Mildred Wagoner of Sparta spent the week-end with her father, I. W. Wagoner. Steve Spurlin made a business trip to Sparta with Charlie Reynolds Saturday and it was the first trip Mr. Spurlin had made to Sparta in over three months.

Hooker, Dec. 2.—Vance Choate and Walter Cheek had a wreck on the stiff curve on the north road just beyond Hooker Saturday afternoon. No one was badly hurt. Mrs. D. Wagoner and Mrs. John McCann, who were riding in the Cab of the Cheek pickup, suffered several bruises, while Lonnie Cheek, who was riding in the back of the pickup, received a slight cut on his face. Mr. Choate was driving a '41 Chevrolet Coach and Mr. Cheek a Chevrolet 1/2-ton truck. Both vehicles came out with very badly smashed fenders, and it has not been decided who was at fault.

Kellie Edwards spent Sunday with his invalid father, Hasten Edwards, who lives in the Vox community. A very large crowd attended the sale of M. L. Gentry Saturday. Everything sold at a fairly good price. Mr. Gentry and his son "Dick," will leave this week for Florida, where they will be engaged in the trucking business. Miss Nellie Mae Miles was unable to return to school Monday morning on account of an attack of tonsillitis. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Anders announce the birth of a daughter. James Miles has purchased a '41 Chevrolet 1/2 ton truck. Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Collins and son, Leo, spent the week-end with Mrs. C. Hendrix.

Leonard Hendrix, formerly of this community, who now lives in Maryland, was the victim of a hit-and-run driver one night last week, while walking on the highway. He was knocked down and dragged about 50 feet. Later he was picked up by patrolmen and carried to the hospital. He was badly bruised but no bones were broken. "Bucky" Wagoner, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Wagoner, has tonsillitis.
