NECK BROKEN, BOY DIES

West Orange Player Meets Death Same Way as Byrne.

Wibralske, the Victim, Was the Star of the Team, Which Was Playing Trinity Chapel Eleven.

West Orange, N. J.—Snapping a vertebra much the same way as Cadet Byrne, of West Point, did in the game with Harvard, Albert P. W. Wibralske, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wibralske, of 97 Riggs place, here, died in the Orange Memorial Hospital three hours and a quarter after he had been admitted to the institution.

Wibralske was playing right half-back for the West Orange High School team on the Watsessing Oval of the Essex County Park playground against the Trinity Chapel team, of New York, when the accident occurred. In the second half with the score 17 to 0 in favor of the local team, Wibralske on the second down rushed the ball to the thirty-yard line of Trinity's goal when he was tackled low. When he fell his head was doubled up under his chest and his neck was broken.

The unconscious form of the boy was picked up by his teammates and hurried to the office of Dr. Frank W. Lockwood, at East Orange, three blocks away. The physician ordered his immediate removal to the Orange Memorial Hospital, two miles distant. An automobile made the run there in less than five minutes, and the boy was placed at once on the operating table. He died without regaining consciousness.

When it was seen that Wibralske, who was the star of the team and the athletic star of the school, for he played on the basketball and baseball teams as well, was badly injured, the field was emptied on the instant.

Wibralske was regarded as one of the best all-around athletes of his year in this section. His two elder brothers are both prominent in athletics. He was highly respected by his schoolmates.

In speaking of the accident, Charles Wibralske, eldest brother of the big boy, himself a player on one of the local teams, said that while the Manhattan players used no disorderly tactics, the accident was undoubtedly the result of their ignorance of the "no points of the game."

LABOR STANDS BY BOYCOTT

President John Mitchell Makes Stirring Speech at Toronto.

Declares That Term in Jail Will Not Cause Him to Recede From Assertion of Constitutional Rights.

Toronto, Can.—Indorsing a report at the Committee on Boycott, John Mitchell, one of the three officers of the American Federation of Labor under sentence for contempt of court, in a dramatic speech to the convention of that organization at the close of its session here, declared that as far as he was concerned, regardless of consequences, he intended, while at liberty, to declare for the rights guaranteed him by the organic laws of his country. The report which drew forth Mitchell's speech and which was adopted by the convention, said:

"We say that when your cause is just and every other remedy has been employed without result, boycott; we say that when the employer has determined to exploit not only adult male labor, but our women and children, and our reasoning and appeal to his fairness and his conscience will not sway him, boycott; we say that when labor has been oppressed, browbeaten and tyrannized, boycott; we say that when social and political conditions become so bad that ordinary remedial measures are fruitless, boycott; and finally, we say that we have a right to boycott and we propose to exercise that right. In the application of this right of boycott, to paraphrase the president (Gompers), we propose to strike on and on."

"I want the people of the United States to know my position," said Mr. Mitchell. "I shall not speak defiantly, but not be the consequence of any amount of suffering will persuade me that I have not the right to spend my money where I please or that I have not the right to write and speak as I please, being responsible under the law for my acts."

"I understand that cognizance is being taken at Washington, D. C., of the utterance of men on the floor of this convention, and I want clearly to state my position. I propose in the future, as I have in the past, to exercise the rights secured to me by the fathers of my country, and I propose if I am sent to jail to declare again when I come out that I shall not for myself purchase any product of the Buckle Stove and Range Company. I make this declaration not to tickle the ear of any man, but that I may publicly declare the conviction that that is within me."

The convention broke into loud cheering, and there were cries of "Morrison!" but the secretary did not respond. President Gompers was not present.

NEED NOT SERVE NEGROES.
Iowa Supreme Court So Decides in Case of Private Business Concern.

Des Moines, Iowa.—The Iowa Supreme Court handed down a decision holding that a private business concern under the Iowa statute can legally refuse to serve a negro.

Sadie Brown, a negro, sued the J. H. Bell, a newspaper man, for $1,000 damages because the attendant refused to serve her a cup of coffee at a pure food show in Des Moines a year ago. In the lower court she won her case, but the Supreme Court has reversed the decision, holding that the Bell company, being a private concern, had the right to refuse to serve any one it wished, even though the person had paid an admission fee at the door.

Chief Justice Evans and Justice Weaver filed vigorous dissenting opinions.

ZELAYA MUST ANSWER FOR AMERICANS SHOT

State Department Demands Explanation For Execution of Men.

WARSHIPS SENT TO NICARAGUA

Leroy Cannon and Leonard Grace Court Martialled and Shot by Order of the President of the Republic at Managua.

Managua, Nicaragua.—Two Americans, Leroy Cannon and Leonard Grace, after a trial by court martial, were shot here as rebels. They were charged with having placed dynamite mines to blow up Government steamers carrying troops to Greytown. One bomb exploded fifteen yards from the steamer Diamante.

The men were captured with dynamite machines and accessories. They are said to have confessed their guilt in letters to their families. Previously Cannon had taken part in a revolution against Nicaragua in Honduras, where he was imprisoned several months.

State Department's Quick Action.
Washington, D. C.—Following the receipt of a report here that two Americans, Leroy Cannon and Leonard Grace, had been shot in Nicaragua as rebels, quick action was taken by the State Department.

Demands have been made upon the Government of Nicaragua for explanation of the shooting of the two Americans.

The relations of this country with the war-torn republic of Central America became very threatening in consequence. The fact that two Americans, Leroy Cannon and Leonard Grace, had been shot in Nicaragua was a matter of great concern.

Dr. Hazzard, the newly appointed Minister Plenipotentiary, was informed that he would not be received by President Tait, and two warships, the Des Moines and the Vicksburg, were ordered to Nicaraguan waters.

It would seem that the President of Nicaragua really brought about a condition of affairs which this country must treat in a manner different from its usual displays of force for the purpose of keeping the peace. A national offense, in the opinion of the State Department, has been committed, requiring for the present investigation and perhaps afterward reprisals.

STEEL PIER AT WRIGHTSVILLE

Great Promenade Similar to Atlantic City's Famous Pier to Be Built in Front of the Seashore Hotel.

Wilmington, Special.—At a special meeting of the stockholders of the Wrightsville Beach Hotel Company, which owns the Seashore hotel, here this week, it was decided to increase the capital stock to $75,000 and this increase will include about $25,000 improvements to the property before another season. Chief among these improvements will be an eighty-room annex and the construction of a steel pier into the ocean a distance of 600 feet, similar to the great pier at Atlantic City. The pier will be a long promenade to an octagon shaped pavilion near the end which will afford a dancing hall, concert room and refreshment stands. At the end of the pier will be a wharf for pleasure craft and fishing boats of all kinds. The grounds of the hotel are also to be much improved, including the building of a covered walkway to the suburban line station and the planting of flowers and shrubbery. The improvements will place the hotel in the very front rank of the best hostelrys in its line on the Atlantic coast.

New Station Inaugurated.
Salisbury, Special.—At midnight Monday night power was turned on at the Southern Power Company's station here over the new steel tower line via Albemarle and the 100,000-volt transformer put into service. In the future Concord, Kannapolis, China Grove, High Point, Winston and other points will receive their power from what is known as the "booster station" here, said to be the most important of the company's stations. In the future should the line from Salisbury to Concord get out of working order the current can be cut off and power turned on from Charlotte, and vice versa, or if between Salisbury and Albemarle trouble arises the power can be furnished over the old line. The voltage is reduced by this new transformer from 100,000 to 50,000, and the current is distributed. From now on all points north of Charlotte will get power by the line from Lancaster to Monroe, Albemarle and Salisbury, except in case of this one becoming disabled, then the old line from Charlotte will be put into service. It almost eliminates any possibility of points north of Charlotte being caught without power at all.

Pathetic End of Errant Genius.
Salisbury, Special.—The death of Charles A. Gomer, an aged inmate of the county home, Monday afternoon ended an eventful career. Gomer came here a number of years ago and worked as a mechanic at Spencer. He was intelligent and refined and was devoted to his "wife," who later became deranged and died in the Morganton hospital. Gomer brooded and finally went blind. He was taken care of and supported by friends. Then in a roundabout manner his past was revealed. He had been a former member of the New Jersey Legislature, had a loving wife and a happy home. He fell in with another woman and one day left home and all for her, they came South and lived as husband and wife. His lawful wife all these years struggling, wondering where her helpmate had gone and why. Upon being questioned the old man broke down and cried: "Yes, my God, it is true." His once happy wife in New Jersey learned of it all and Gomer refused to longer accept the charity of his one-time friends here and went to the county home.

Investigating Coble Murder.
Greensboro, Special.—The preliminary hearing of Daniel Coble and Hiram Elliott, charged with the murder of Simpson Coble, son and brother-in-law of the accused, consumed all of Wednesday morning. The State had concluded its case at 4:30, and Daniel Coble, the first witness for the defense, was on the stand at the time of adjournment.

There were no witnesses who gave any account of a fight at an illicit still operated by one of the defendants, but in the quarrel which is said to have occurred between Elliott and Simpson Coble earlier in the afternoon, Coble is reported to have threatened to report the distillery to the officers. The next morning he was found unconscious lying in a ditch 25 yards from Elliott's home, while about 150 yards from the body the bloody hat and pocketbook of Simpson was found, together with a large pool of blood. His skull was crushed, his cheekbone broken and there were several bruises on his body. He never regained consciousness.

Lincolnton, Special.—Charles Reep, the 13-year-old son of Mr. L. Jacob Reep, a prominent farmer of this county, was accidentally shot and killed Tuesday by his brother, Aubrey Reep, aged 19. It seems that a dog had chased a rabbit into a hollow tree and the boys took their shotgun and went out about noon to get him out. They failed to do this, however, and the younger boy was trying to root a rabbit out of a branch bank. He himself ran out about the same time the rabbit did and was shot in the right side, about 200 shot entering his right lung. He was attended within an hour by Dr. W. C. Kiser, who states that he lived six hours after the shooting and that he was conscious up to five minutes of his death.

St. Paul, Minn., Special.—In an opinion written by Judge Walker S. Sanborn, of St. Paul and concurred in by Judges Vandewater, Hook and Adams with a special concurring opinion by Judge Hook, the United States Circuit Court for the eastern district of Missouri Saturday handed down an opinion declaring the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey an illegal combination operating in restraint of trade and orders its dissolution.

The opinion of the court was filed simultaneously in St. Louis and in St. Paul.

In this decision the government of the United States wins a sweeping victory and according to Frank B. Kellogg of this city, who was the government's special prosecuting officer, the government has won every point for which it contended.

The case will be appealed directly to the United States Supreme Court as the judges who signed the decree, are in effect the judges of the United States circuit court of appeals, although they were sitting for the purpose of trying this case as the circuit court for the eastern district of Missouri.

The decree of the court dissolving the Standard Oil trust becomes effective in 30 days when no doubt a stay will be granted for the purpose of an appeal.
