Daily Thoughts

By BILL WOOTERS

From the looks of things, Goldsshould be again considered one of the most attractively decorated cities in the state at Christmas time. Seems like the firemen are having a pretty good time decorating the streets too. Every day I see a truck with a tall ladder setting upright in the back and a fireman on top riding along with a smile on his face, looking as if he had just won a prize as a flagnole sitter. Nice to enjoy your work like that I am sure the people of Goldsboro and the surrounding towns are anxious to see the city blazing with hundreds of Christmas lights and the streets filled with Christmas shoppers.
