

The Goldsboro Herald

"Wayne County's Leading Weekly Newspaper"

VOLUME XVI—Number 27

Goldsboro, N. C., Thursday, April 20, 1939

PRICE: 5 CENTS

Judge Frank A. Daniels, 81, Distinguished Jurist, Dies

Hundreds Gather for General Sunday Afternoon; Pay Tribute to Beloved Man.

HE HAD SERVED AS JUDGE MANY YEARS

Distinguished Men Pay Tribute To Life of Man; Governor Hoey Pays His Tribute.

Judge Frank A. Daniels, 81, judge of the Superior Court of North Carolina for 24 years and emergency judge since 1924, died at the Goldsboro Hospital last Saturday afternoon, following a brief illness and a minor operation a few days ago.

Judge Daniels was a leading citizen of the State and a few years ago when there was balloting for the 10 leading citizens of Wayne county he led the list.

He is survived by three children, Frank B. and George Daniels, and Mrs. H. M. Stenhouse; two brothers, Josephus Daniels, United States Ambassador to Mexico, and E. C. Daniels of New York City; nine grandchildren, Frank and William Daniels of Richmond, Va., Misses Martha and Mary Cleaves Daniels, Carolyn, Marjorie, and Mary Cleaves Stenhouse, Henry and George Stenhouse, all of Goldsboro; and a great grandson, William Daniels, Jr., of Richmond.

Funeral services were conducted at his home on South George street Sunday afternoon by his pastor, the Rev. Walter C. Ball of St. Paul Methodist Church, and the Rev. A. S. Barnes, superintendent of the Methodist Orphanage at Raleigh. Interment was in the family plot in Willow Dale cemetery.

Pallbearers at the funeral were: Josephus Daniels, Jr., Worth B. Frank A. and Jonathan Daniels, of Raleigh; nephews: Edwin Borden, Edwin Lee, Arnold Borden, Arnold Edgerton, Fred P. Parker, Jr., H. Fitzhugh Lee, and Dr. Donnell B. Cobb, of Goldsboro, nephews and nephews by marriage of the late Mrs. Frank A. Daniels; and Dr. R. B. Miller, of Goldsboro.

A group of 500 people, including his friends and neighbors, State officials, members of the judiciary and attorneys from here and adjoining counties, gathered for his funeral. The rites were simple. There was no singing, but the ministers read comforting passages from the Scriptures.

Friends completely filled the house while hundreds stood outside. Across the street was a group of Negroes, standing with bare heads. They were friends and admirers of Judge Daniels, who had come to show their respect in this manner.

Among those present were the following distinguished officials and attorneys: Chief Justice W. P. Stacey; Associate Justices M. V. Barnhill, A. A. F. Seawell and Herolt Clarkson; Judge Clawson Williams, who succeeded Judge Daniels as resident judge of the Fourth District; Judge G. V. Cowper, of Kinston; Judge Henry A. Giady, formerly of Clinton, now of New Bern; Secretary of State Thad Eure; M. T. Dickinson, of the Social Security Board's legal staff, Washington, formerly of Goldsboro; Attorneys T. A. Finch, of Wilson; J. C. Pittman, of Sanford; Kemple Battle, of Rocky Mount; I. D. Thorpe, of Rocky Mount; F. H. Brooks, of Smithfield; James Poole, of Smithfield; Norman Shepard, of Smithfield; Elmer Wellons, of Smithfield; Dickson McLean, of Lumberton; Henry McKinnon, of Laurinburg, and many others, from far and near.

Present also was Josephus Daniels, Ambassador to Mexico, a brother of Judge Daniels, and C. C. Daniels, of New York, another brother, besides nephews and other relatives from Raleigh and elsewhere.

Governor Hoey Pays Public Tribute

In Raleigh, Governor Hoey issued the following statement: "North Carolina is poorer because of the death of Judge Daniels, for more than a quarter of a century his name and fame have been a part of the judicial life of the State and he has made a fine contribution to the administration of justice."

"His service as judge began before the State was divided and hence every section had the benefit of his visitation and everywhere he held court there was an increased respect for the judiciary and wholesome regard for the law. I share the sorrow of the family in his passing."

The Governor said he regretted that he was unable to attend the funeral. Several appointments kept him in Raleigh, he explained.

Don't Shoot

Don't shoot! It might be Pete. Gloom has struck the firmen. Their beloved Pete has strayed away and no one knows where the little bright-eyed roon has gone.

Pride and joy of the boys since he was made a permanent resident two years ago, Pete was fed, coddled, and guarded by Lee Sanford and never was a fond parent mere sollicitous of the welfare of its young one than Lee and his companions were of Pete.

Tuesday new undertakings were under way at the new fire house and Pete was tied in the wrong place. Lee will tell you sorrowfully that he must have gotten caught in the fence, the chain snapped, and off he went to discover new lands. Not a doubt enters the firmen's minds but that he wants to come back to the spot he loved so well, but seems travel at night and perhaps poor Pete is up some tree, with his paw on his forehead trying to sight the little box that was his comfortable domicile and the place where he enjoyed so many raw eggs. He hasn't had time to become accustomed to the new home and if you see a gray, fuzzy ball up a tree, shading its face and searching with lonesome eyes, don't frighten him—because that's Pete and he wants to go home.

John T. Price, 46, farmer of Brogden township, drove to a park in Mt. Olive, this county, about 8:00 o'clock Monday morning, got out and shot himself in the stomach with a shotgun, and died instantly.

A man who saw him enter the park and heard the shot, hastened to him and found him lying with the muzzle against his stomach, having apparently pulled the trigger of the gun with his toe. Relatives reported that Price had been drinking heavily, but could give no other reason for the suicide.

Coroner T. R. Robinson of Goldsboro ruled the death a suicide and an inquest unnecessary.

For the third consecutive month a decline has occurred in local market prices for farm products, bringing the price index to the lowest point since July, 1934.

Mrs. Mary Fentress Honored Last Sunday

Friends and relatives from Goldsboro, Kinston, Albemarle, High Point, Pleasant Garden, and Greensboro honored Mrs. Mary E. Perkins Fentress, 614 Fifth Ave., Greensboro, at a birthday dinner Sunday at her home.

Mrs. Fentress received many nice gifts and pretty flowers on the occasion of her 88th anniversary. We wish for her many happy returns of the day.

Rules Indicate That Persons May Pick Berries and Then Get Pay When Idle.

RULING SHOULD SPEED GETTING BERRY HELP

Those Who Refuse To Work When Got Chance Will be Subject to Investigation.

Many persons who, in seasons of large production, go to the berry fields to pick berries are this year entitled to unemployment compensation benefits because of unemployment in their usual occupation. These persons are required by law to report once each week at the nearest Employment Office for the purpose of making themselves available in case the Employment Service has found suitable work for them and for signing a continued claim for unemployment benefits if it has not.

These persons are being offered jobs by the Employment Service as strawberry pickers. Many of them, for various reasons, do not accept. For some of them strawberry picking is "suitable" work within the meaning of the act and their benefit payments may be suspended for a period of some weeks if they decline to accept jobs where working and living conditions are reasonable.

The Unemployment Compensation Commission has placed additional claims deputies in Employment offices in which berry growers are placing orders for pickers. The Employment Service offers the job and if it is refused, the deputy hears the reasons for refusal, and decides whether or not the person shall be penalized. Both the office and the determination of suitability are on a basis of individuals. Each job and each individual has, therefore, to be considered separately. This insures fairness and justice to all.

The Employment Service has opened temporary offices to serve growers in Wallace and Chadbourn. These offices will accept orders for pickers from growers and, where necessary, will present to the Unemployment Compensation Deputies persons with benefit claims who seem to prefer drawing benefit checks to picking berries.

It is the desire of both the Unemployment Compensation Commission and the State Employment Service to aid growers in harvesting a valuable crop and to protect the Unemployment Compensation fund from unjustified withdrawals. They can do this most effectively if growers will use the Employment Service as the channel for routing pickers to the fields.

Farmers Get Cash For Participation in Farm Programs

Total of $128,222.80 Received of $375,000 Expected for Local Farmers

Farmers of Wayne County have received checks in payment on 1938 soil conservation applications amounting to $128,222.80, according to Farm Agent C. S. Mintz, in a report issued from his office this week.

Mintz said that this is for payment representing approximately 950 applicants, and is part of the $375,000 that will be paid to Wayne farmers for complying with the 1938 soil conservation program. Under the 1939 program, the farm agent reported, it is possible for Wayne county to receive more than $500,000 in payments.

Figures have been computed at the farm office whereby it is possible to estimate the amount of money a farm can earn under the 1939 soil conservation program. The figures are available at the farm office for all farmers who wish to inspect them.

"Everyone seems to be very well satisfied with the payments," Mintz said.

Mt. Olive Man Takes His Life

John T. Price, 46, farmer of Brogden township, drove to a park in Mt. Olive, this county, about 8:00 o'clock Monday morning, got out and shot himself in the stomach with a shotgun, and died instantly.

A man who saw him enter the park and heard the shot, hastened to him and found him lying with the muzzle against his stomach, having apparently pulled the trigger of the gun with his toe. Relatives reported that Price had been drinking heavily, but could give no other reason for the suicide.

Coroner T. R. Robinson of Goldsboro ruled the death a suicide and an inquest unnecessary.

For the third consecutive month a decline has occurred in local market prices for farm products, bringing the price index to the lowest point since July, 1934.

Hammana-American Discuss Plans for a State-Wide Meet

Delegates to Meeting in Goldsboro Sunday Plan for July Meet in Raleigh

Plans for a state-wide convention of the Hammana-American Association to be held in Raleigh Sunday, July 9, were discussed at a meeting of the Association in Goldsboro this week.

B. Shadlan, of Raleigh, president of the Association, who presided over the meeting, was named to take charge of arrangements for the Raleigh meeting. A number of prominent speakers will be on the program.

Father Zeytoun of New Bern was the speaker at the Goldsboro meeting. He urged his hearers to "teach your youths to become good citizens. In doing this you make not only a good name for yourselves as citizens of America, but for the country of your ancestry."

Neil Joseph, Goldsboro merchant, explained that the purpose of the Association is to promote fellowship and high ideals of citizenship and to launch a program of social service. He welcomed the delegates. Forty-five Syrians from Raleigh, Wilson, New Bern, Kinston and Greenville, met with the Goldsboro members.

ON THE BEAT

James Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Davis, was elected to the office of president of the student body of the University of North Carolina at the annual student election held last week.

This is the second successive year a Goldsboro boy will serve as president of the student body at the University. Davis will succeed Jim Joyner, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Joyner.

A barn valued at $3,000, stock, feed, and equipment running into about $2,000 were destroyed by fire on one of the West farms about five miles southeast of Goldsboro Friday afternoon. A chicken laying house was also destroyed.

A sow and her pigs, a calf, and some chickens were burned in the fire.

The Goldsboro fire department reached the scene after the fire had gained so much headway that they could only protect adjacent buildings.

A car stealing "epidemic" seems to be prevalent in Goldsboro. According to reports from police headquarters 15 cars have been stolen since April 1, with all cars recovered. Three cars were stolen over the week end, two recovered in good condition and the third wrecked.

L. W. Pearson reported a Plymouth stolen Saturday night and found the next morning. A Ford sedan, belonging to W. H. Elliot was found on West Walnut street Saturday evening.

Sunday night a Buick sedan belonging to A. T. Griffin was stolen from in front of his home and found wrecked on the Mt. Olive highway Monday.

Fire in the home of Dr. D. J. Rose, 1404 East Mulberry street, caused considerable damage from the flames and water Saturday afternoon.

The fire is believed to have originated from defective wiring in the bathroom. The estimation of damage has not as yet been made, as the Rose home is just outside the incorporated city limits and official estimates of fires outside the limits are not kept.

Dr. Rose and his family are residing temporarily at the Hunt Apartments on 1503 East Mulberry street.

On the occasion of the "open house" held Friday in the Mount Olive schools over 700 guests registered in the guest book.

Exhibits by the various departments displayed interesting examples of the work being carried on in the schools. An interesting feature was a series of demonstrations by the students of the Home Nursing and Care of the Sick by Miss Marie Farley, County Health Nurse.

The "open house" was attended not only by local friends and patrons of the schools, but by teachers from every county school and several out of county schools. Those who attended expressed their appreciation of the splendid work represented.

On April 25, 1939, 2:00 P. M. the State Hospital at Goldsboro will receive bids for approximately $72,000 for general construction, plumbing and heating, on superintendent's house, kitchen equipment, etc., a Public Works Administration project located at Goldsboro.

Programs Under Way to Acquaint Folks with Goldsboro Free Auction

Board of Education Names School Committeemen Here

Deadly "Weapons" Galore Are Found By Mad Negro Gai

Goes To Higher Court On Charge of Using Various Weapons Which May Be Deadly

Leona Hatch, colored girl, charged with disorderly conduct and assault with deadly weapons, weapons consisting of bricks, an ax, a butcher knife, automobile jack, and an iron pipe, was bound over to county court by Mayor Jack Hill at the session of Mayor's court Monday morning.

Officer Carl Smith testified that the defendant threatened to assault him with a brick when he arrested her. However, upon advice from Officer Smith, she refrained from further violence.

Other cases were disposed of by the court as follows:

Capias Lewis, charged with larceny of an automobile, Superior Court; Floyd Hartley, colored, charged with an affray, appealed to county court, giving $100 bond; W. H. Cole, assault, not guilty; Heck Howell, charged with assault with deadly weapon, county court, $100 bond; Carl Langston, charged with larceny and store breaking, superior court, $500 bond; David Mazingo, assault, $5 and costs; Obie Ford, colored, drunkenness, costs; Hugh Hardy, colored, drunkenness, costs; Daniel Mazingo, drunkenness, costs; Roscoe Smith, colored, charged with having unpaid tax whiskey for sale, county court, $100 bond; William Justice, assault, $5 and costs; J. E. Phillips, drunkenness and disorderly conduct, costs; Ezra Murry, colored, drunkenness and disorderly conduct, 30 days on the road; Joe Denning, drunkenness, turned over to health authorities; Jennie Cade, drunkenness, costs or 30 days.

More than 250,000 electric cookers are now being sold annually.

Members of the board of directors of the Baracas: B. V. Hedrick, Salisbury, a past president of the Union, chairman; Dr. Roebey Wilson of Asheville; O. A. Johnson, Durham; Judge W. A. Devin, Oxford; M. K. Hall, Greensboro; N. O. Fisher, Durham; and George E. Dennis, Raleigh. New members added: D. L. Cuthrell, Goldsboro; F. S. Leavister, Oxford; and Paul Murray, Canton.

Philathea directors: Mrs. C. E. Seeloff, High Point, chairman; Miss Florine Robertson, Burlington; Mrs. T. G. Stem, Oxford; Mrs. S. C. Southard, Salisbury; Miss Elizabeth Clark, Wilson; Mrs. J. C. Jackson, Lexington; Mrs. John B. Steele, Hickory; Mrs. Fred Smith of Goldsboro was added as a new director.

Appointments of World Wide Baraca-Philathea Union: Mrs. K. Edwin Fussell, Winston-Salem, past president; N. C. Union, counselor; A. Saleeby, Salisbury, past president of the Union, advisor.

Canton was selected as the place for the 1940 convention.

Officers Re-elected and New Officers Named During Meeting Saturday

PROMINENT SPEAKERS ARE HEARD IN MEET

The 27th annual convention of the North Carolina Baraca-Philathea Union closed a 3-day session Sunday afternoon with services at the Goldsboro First Baptist Church, which were attended by two or three hundred people. The convention was held Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

B. D. Bunn of Oxford, superintendent of Granville county schools, was re-elected president of the Union at the Saturday afternoon session.

All other officers were re-elected and several new members were added to the board of directors. Others re-elected were: Dr. David E. Faust, Salisbury, professor of Bible at Catawba College, first vice-president; John Milne of Henderson, second vice-president; Hon. R. N. Simms of Raleigh, third vice-president; Miss Gladys Kivett, High Point, secretary; R. L. Pope of Thomasville, treasurer; and Mrs. Max Washauer, Wilmington, auditor.

A committee was named to consider organization of a conference for young people.

The Founder's Day luncheon on Monday was one of the highlights of the convention. Mrs. Hattie Weinberg told of "The Association's Beginning and Ideals" and Mrs. Lionel Well told of "The Association in Retrospect."

During the convention high tribute was paid to the late Mrs. Sol Weil, founder of the organization; and to Mrs. N. A. Edwards who has done such fine service in keeping the history of the organization.

County to Study Advisability of Borrowing to Build Needed Units in County

VARIOUS SCHOOL BOARDS APPOINTED

Brogden High School and Mt. Olive Negro School Need Additional Rooms

At a called meeting of the board of education Monday afternoon, members discussed filing a tentative application for $30,000 from either the State Literary Fund or the Special Building Fund of the State Department of Public Instruction to finance cost of construction of additions to the Brogden high school and the Mount Olive Negro school.

The school committee of the Rosewood district was enlarged from three to five, with the remaining of one member who has served several years, and another who was appointed recently to fill a vacancy made by a resignation.

District committeemen were appointed by the board to serve for a two-year term. Committees appointed for the various schools are: Rosewood, F. S. Sutton, C. M. Braswell, N. B. Ingram, Paul Thompson, Mrs. L. R. Casey; Grantham, Dr. L. A. Warrick, R. E. Hood, Joe M. Grantham; Belfast, W. W. Anderson, Hubert Powell, B. L. Pate; Brogden, W. F. Moore, J. M. Potts, Albert Cox; Eureka, G. E. Yelverton, Dr. Henderson Irwin, J. B. Chase; Indian Springs, J. C. Barwick, Kirby Hall; Mount Olive, S. M. Davis, W. P. Martin, L. G. Geddie; Nahunta, Milford Aycock, F. L. Hooks, Will Vaughn; New Hope, Jim May, Lemuel Lancaster, Ben Casey, Mark Corbett; Pikeville, Lonnie B. Smith, Dr. Jimmie Rose; Seven Springs, Morgan Maxwell, Royle Kornegay, Darius Price; Smith's Chapel, J. A. Smith, A. G. Jordan, Herman F. Hollowell, June Wolf, Walter Odom.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Number of Entertainers from Goldsboro Visiting Schools To Tell Plans

THEY GO TO PIKEVILLE FRIDAY NIGHT OF WEEK

Next Week They Will Go to Eureka, Belfast and Grantham High Schools

A number of the Wayne county school communities will be able to see free a good program of entertainment furnished by the Goldsboro Chamber of Commerce during the next few days.

Pikeville folks may see and hear the entertainment on Friday night of this week, when a group of fine entertainers from Goldsboro will be there to offer them a program of fun and frolic. The meeting will be at the high school.

The program starts at 8:00 o'clock, and is free.

"Dr." Elton Warrick, known around Goldsboro as "Dr. Chunkum" will be the master of ceremonies and will introduce the other performers on the program.

The Southern Buddies string band will be on hand to make music for the occasion at Pikeville Friday night and at Eureka High School on April 25, Belfast School April 26, and at Grantham High School on April 27th, as will the other entertainers on the program.

R. F. Yocum, widely known for his accordion numbers, will play at these meetings; Miss Nellie Farfour and Jimmie Kannan will sing a duet; Herman Joseph, once a Barnum and Bailey circus clown, will be there to give some of his comedy stunts, songs and readings.

During these programs at these schools time will be taken to announce the free auction sale to be held on Center Street in Goldsboro on May 19. On that day thousands of folks from the Goldsboro area are expected to be present for Goldsboro's first free auction sale, at which time any person may bring anything he wishes to sell and have it sold for him for the high dollar and that without cost.

Folks are asked to seek out any items that they no longer need so that they may have them here for the sale. The farmer may have a plow, a cow, a mule, a hog, or some other item which he wishes to sell; the farm woman may have a bed quilt, some chickens, or some other item.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.

Whoever you are and whatever you have that you wish to convert into cash you are asked to bring it to the auction; and the folks who attend these programs at the various schools will learn more about this unique event to be held in Goldsboro on May 19.