Goldbugs Best Kinston Eagles 12-11 In First Night Game of Season On the Local Diamond

Contest Proves to Be One of Thrills and Chills as Teams Swap Leads

LEFTY FLORA GETS WIN FOR GOLDBUGS

Skipper Shirley Leads Hitting for Goldbugs With 4 Hits for 5 at Bat

Under bright lights, and in a contest of thrills and chills by turn, the Goldbugs broke the hearts of the Kinston Eagles, 12-11, last evening in the first home night game of the season.

Goldbug fans were sitting complacently on their haunches as the fourth inning found them 5-0 in the lead. The joy was short-lived for Kinston rallied in the fourth to score 6 runs, and thus began the real action. The fifth and sixth counts went by uneventfully. In the seventh Buck Overton took over the station of Sanford Peele, Bug catcher, and slapped out the first homer of the Bugs this season. Shirley followed with a hot one that hit the initial sack and was not traced until he was safely on second and was brought home by Pawlak.

Kinston again made the Bugs uneasy, very uneasy, in the ninth when they scored 5 runs to lead 11-10. Kepler was tried on the mound for Goldsboro, but was replaced by Flora who stopped further action.

Goldsboro sent Buck Overton up first and he hit to place on first. Shirley slapped another double to score Buck. Pawlak walked and Vaughn sacrificed to put Shirley in a scoring position, with one out. Reh Kemp was called to pinch hit for Flora and sent a long fly to left field to bring Shirley home with the winning run. After Winston weakened in the ninth, Shirley called Kepler to pitch to two hitters, and then Flora came up to halt the rally and receive credit for the game.

Nowak was marked losing pitcher, replacing Simiek in the fourth for Kinston.

Skipper Shirley led the Bugs for hitting honors with 4 for 5. Peele came next for 2 for 3, Pawlak, 2 for 3, and Overton 2 for 2.

For Kinston, Albritton with 3 for 5, Nowak, 2 for 3, and Stringfellow, 2 for 3, were the heavy hitters for the visitors.

Kinston chalked the only miscue of the contest.

Watson shone in the outfield for the Bugs and Kennedy for the Eagles.

Umpires were Phaup, on bases, and Ritter calling balls and strikes.

In all the Goldbugs got 16 hits and Kinston 11.

All week-day games in Goldsboro are scheduled at 8:00 o'clock P. M., with the exception of June 3 and July 14, which will be afternoon games. All Sunday games in Goldsboro will be held at 3:00 o'clock P. M.

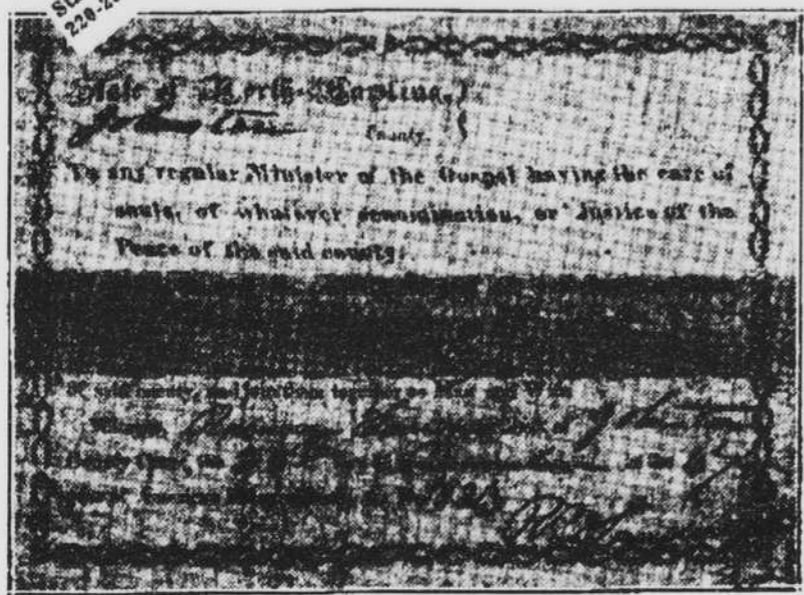

Charlie Hare, 39, Takes His Life in Saulston Township

Young Man Drank Lye on Saturday and Died in the Hospital On Sunday

Funeral services for Charlie Hare, 29, of Snow Hill, who died Sunday morning in the Goldsboro Hospital, were conducted at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hare, in Saulston township, Monday afternoon by the Rev. Jimmie Roberts of Greenville, Primitive Baptist minister. Interment was in the Ruckley cemetery near Nahantia church.

Mr. Hare, who was on a visit in his native section, drank lye at Smith's filling station in Saulston Saturday. He was rushed by ambulance to the Goldsboro Hospital, and his condition was considered critical from the first.

He is survived by his widow and one child, Jewell; his parents; five sisters, Mesdames Arthur Pelt of Albemarle, Howard Anderson of Richmond, Va., Selby Davis of Stauntonburg, James Teachey and Seth Hollowell of Saulston; and three brothers, Arthur Hare of Saulston, Russell of Princeton, and Floyd Hare of Columbia, S. C.

OLD MARRIAGE LICENSE

Above is the reproduction of a marriage license issued in Johnston county in 1823, 116 years ago. If one will look closely he can see a part of the worn edge of the license at the upper right corner. The paper was frayed all around but the engraving does not show all this. The contracting parties in this marriage were Henry Pope and Polly Lee. The license was loaned to the Herald by B. F. West of Goldsboro.

275 Singers To Give Two Programs Here on May 19

Combined Chorus of Snow Hill, Ayden, Greenville and Goldsboro to Sing

LEWIS S. BULLOCK IS TO LEAD THE SINGING

Two Performances, One in Afternoon and One at Night, Are To Be Given

Singers from Snow Hill, Ayden, Greenville, and Goldsboro, will come together in a program of the fourth annual spring music festival of the Eastern Carolina Symphonic Choral Association to be staged in Goldsboro on Friday, May 19. President Lewis S. Bullock will conduct the 275-voice chorus in the two performances scheduled.

The afternoon performance will feature the singing of 80 trained high school students in an operetta, "An Old Kentucky Garden." The operetta combines a group of Stephen Foster's best known songs and is in commemoration of the 75th anniversary of his death.

In the evening performance the junior chorus, high school chorus, and adult units, representing 275 vested singers, will render a varied musical program. This will mark the third of the association's three annual musical performances, the other two being Handel's "The Messiah" at Christmas and a cantata at

Junior-Senior Reception Is Gala Affair at Hotel

The annual reception and dance given by the members of the Junior Class of the Goldsboro High School to the Seniors was held in the ball room of the Hotel Goldsboro on Friday night with an attendance of more than 350.

Officers of both classes received the students. Ike Manly presided as master of ceremonies, and also welcomed the seniors. The juniors sang "To the Seniors" with Miss Hazel Shaver accompanying at the piano.

An interesting program was given consisting of music and dances. Block ice cream in maroon and white, the Junior class colors, was served with cup cakes and salted nuts. Eighteen members of the Sophomore Class served refreshments.

The ballroom was decorated with balloons and spring flowers. Each guest was presented with a gaily-colored party cup.

James Kannon is president of the Senior Class; Willie Boykin, vice-president; Marjorie Stenhouse, secretary; and Lillie Burns, treasurer. Junior officers are: Martha Best, president; Lamuel Summerlin, vice-president; Tony Lupton, secretary;

Easter.

The afternoon performance is scheduled to be held at the Goldsboro high school auditorium at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, and the evening performance at 8:00 o'clock. Campfire suppers for the 175 singers in the junior and high school groups are entertainment features preceding the evening performance. The annual banquet for the adult chorus will follow the recital. Committees have been named by the groups making up the association, and these committees are aiding in arrangements. The Goldsboro Chamber of Commerce is offering a number of prizes for achievements of the year.

The executive committee of the association will meet also on that date. James W. Butler, president of the Goldsboro chorus, has named the following as committees to represent the local chorus:

Hospitality: Jack Fonville, A. G. Ellinwood, Mrs. A. C. Hodges, Mrs. Julian H. Rumley, Miss Margaret Long.

Banquet program: Mrs. T. A. Early, Jr., Miss Nellie Mack Herring, Lewis S. Bullock.

Campfire suppers for juniors and high school groups: Mrs. Fred L. Harrell, Miss Elizabeth Smith, C. H. Westin.

Banquet (menu): Mrs. A. J. Smith, Chairman.

Staging: Lewie Hallman, Ray Lyles and Roy J. Parker.

and Noah Bass, treasurer. Members of the faculty of the High School and members of the board of directors of the school and husbands and wives were among the guests.

Ray S. Smith is Injured by Auto

Ray S. Smith, twenty months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray S. Smith of Pikeville, is in the Goldsboro Hospital with cuts and bruises about the face and head suffered Sunday afternoon when he was struck and knocked down by an automobile driven by Miss Bessie Clayton on South Center street in Goldsboro. His condition is not considered serious.

The little boy stepped from between two parked automobiles into the path of Miss Clayton's car. Officer H. C. Weigand, who investigated the accident, reported the car stopped within a few feet, the officer said.

I ONLY HEARD!

By ISABELLE BADDOUR

Boy, I wouldn't miss that Donkey ball game. What with all the players and all it will be the biggest show of donkeys ever to hit this town. They tell me signs are being made to enable the fans to designate which are the donkeys.

An acquaintance remarked recently: "A Virginia man has succeeded in crossing a cabbage with an onion, and I am smoking it right now."

A young lady, finding herself stranded in a small town asked an old man at the station where she might spend the night.

"There ain't no hotel here," he said "but you can sleep with the station agent."

"Sir," she exclaimed, "I'll have you know I'm a lady."

"That's all right," drawled the old man, "so is the station agent."

The Injuns are coming! The Cowboys are already here. Everything is getting in swing for the big rodeo the end of this month. I reckon after the donkey game, they'll try to sign up some of our citizens.

Asked John F. Hobbs, who is quite a cowboy himself, where the boys were stopping. He looked at me as tho' I were a bit wacky and politely informed me that they were "stopping" in hay lofts. I think he is trying to hand me something, because he insisted that if they took a bath and slept on a bed they would get pneumonia. They don't look nearly as wild and woolly as some of the town boys that have turned jitterbug.

What married woman in town caused a young fellow to lose his job by calling him over the phone and intruding upon his business hours — who were the two women who got in such a fight that the man mixed up in it had to pull the big one off the little one — and who took the knife away from them — why did it never reach the courts — who was seen staging a love scene at the softball game — that was put in at the request of the Bremen — who asked his mother if she thought his daddy was going to marry his stenographer — who was the young man who had lipstick on his hospital shirt — what former well-known woman was taken from a dive by ex-Sunday school companions — who went out of town to check up on her husband's maneuvers — who was seen with her head on a shoulder that didn't belong to her husband — who had rather work evenings than listen to his jealous wife all evening — who bops his wife when she gets on a nagging spree — who went on a binge and ran off with his boss's hat and coat and 16 coca colas — who unwittingly had a little party in the Tavern with his boss out front — who reputedly brags about how she throws coffee pots, etc., at her husband — who is the girl at the Hotel Beauty Salon who hates to see school come to a close and the Yankees leave — and who is it that had better watch out for the meanest looking man in this town.

Dopey: I was frightfully embarrassed when I dropped my fork at the banquet.

Mo: Why everybody drops a fork now and then.

Dopey: Yes, but everybody doesn't drop one out of his coat sleeve.

Dean D. B. Bryan Speaks to Class at Pikeville High

Wake Forest Professor Uses "Youth and Democracy" As His Subject

"Youth and Democracy" was the subject of the address by Dean D. B. Bryan of Wake Forest College at the graduating exercises of the Pikeville High School on Tuesday night. He urged the members of the class not to forget that their high school education has been directed towards making them better citizens in a Democracy. In his address he made several striking references to international affairs.

Principal B. K. Miller introduced the speaker and presented diplomas to the eighteen graduates. Lash Fleming, valedictorian was presented with the Nathan B. Burger Memorial Cup for one year. Margaret Vail was salutatorian.

The seniors attended a meeting of the Pikeville High School Alumni Association Wednesday night.

Johnnie Crowell of Charlotte, noted stunt flyer, was painfully injured when his plane cracked up at the Goldsboro airport Sunday, while performing for a crowd estimated at around 20,000 people, who were attending the air show of the Carolinas' Aero Club.

The crash occurred when Crowell failed to gain altitude enough to right the plane which he was flying upside down. The left wing of the plane struck the ground and crumpled, throwing the motor a distance of about 50 feet. Crowell sustained a severe gash on the forehead and chin and multiple bruises.

The ambulance had some difficulty reaching the pilot when the crowd surged around the plane and found Crowell conscious and clutching a fire extinguisher.

When visited by the Herald reporter Tuesday, Crowell made light of his injuries and displayed the indomitable will of stunt flyers when he told the reporter "Of course, I will continue to stunt. This is the first incident of its kind I have had in my 18 years of flying over the country. When no one was around I got out of bed and walked around, just to assure myself that I am all right. I am O.K. and will soon be up flying again."

Crowell was asked if he carried a good luck token of any kind and he answered that his wife, who is with him, was his only good luck token, and that he was not superstitious in the least.

Big Rodeo to Show in Goldsboro May 24-28; Promises Thrills and Spills; Sponsored by Lions Club

TO BE SEEN AT RODEO

Above are views of one of the country's best trained mules. This mule and the owner, Tom Hunt, will be seen in the Rodeo to be given in Goldsboro from May 24 to 28. The Rodeo is being sponsored by the Goldsboro Lions Club for the benefit of its blind fund.

150 Former Pikeville Folks Attend School Alumni Meet

Those Who Have Graduated from the School Since 1910 Gather for Meeting

OLD STUDENTS AND STUDENTS HONORED

Father A. Raine Freeman Tells of the Early Days of School When He Taught

Around 150 former students of the Pikeville High School attended an alumni banquet held at the school Wednesday night.

Former students of the school — men and women, boys and girls — came to the school for the first general meeting of the alumni group.

Besides a sumptuous dinner, a program, both informal and varied was enjoyed.

Mrs. Lizzie Bullock, the first person to graduate from the school, was present, as were many others who

Fremont Finals Open On Friday Night of Week

Rev. Norfolk Gardner Will Deliver the Sermon On Next Sunday Night

The Fremont High School commencement exercises will open on Friday night, May 12, when Miss Ivor Aycock, head of the music department presents her piano students in a music recital.

The Rev. E. Norfolk Gardner, pastor of the First Baptist church of Henderson, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday evening, May 14, at 8:15 o'clock. The Seventh Grade exercises, followed immediately by the Home Economics Review, will take place Thursday afternoon, May 18. Class Day exercises conducted by the seniors will be held on Thursday night, May 18.

The final event in the commencement program is that of graduation exercises which will be held on Friday evening, May 19. The feature of this program will be an address to the seniors by Dr. Clyde A. Erwin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Immediately following the address, diplomas will be presented to the graduates by Superintendent H. Wellons.

The following awards will be made: To the high school student who has made the highest scholastic average for the year will be awarded the scholarship medal. To the best citizen in high school will go the citizenship medal. To the student in the elementary school who has made the most improvement in Public School Music will go the music medal, and to the best all-around athlete will go the athletic medal.

Forty-five planes and 87 pilots were in Goldsboro for the occasion. Five stunt pilots competed in the contest. Crowell won first prize, $50, for stunting, and Beverly Howard, of Charleston, S. C., won second prize, $25, which he presented to Crowell. Crowell also won the prize for bomb dropping, and Walter Tharrington of Rocky Mount for best ribbon cutting.

Variety Program To Be Shown When Cowboys and Cowgirls Gather For This Big Event.

SHOWS TO BE HELD AT HOBBS' STOCKYARDS

Rodeo Is Widely Known, Having Shown in Several States During Past Summers.

A Rodeo, featuring Western cowboys and cowgirls in a varied program, will be staged in Goldsboro May 24 to 28 inclusive.

This rodeo is being sponsored by the Goldsboro Lions Club, the proceeds to be used in the club's work with the blind.

The shows will be held on the big lot adjoining J. F. Hobbs' stockyards on the Wilson highway.

From all parts of the west, cowboys and cowgirls are coming to take part in this Rodeo.

Harry Huff, of Phillippi, West Virginia, who is associated with Mr. Hobbs in the stock business is owner and manager of the Rodeo, and has for the past five years showed many towns through Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, and Tennessee. He is busy scouring the country for the best bucking horses to use in this show. A shipment of wild Brahma steers are on the way and will arrive in time for the show.

Many of the beautiful, well-trained horses used in the various Rodeo events are now at the stockyards and are being put into shape by the boys now in quarters.

Rodeos have grown in popularity so fast the last few years, they now rank second in sports in this country. The word "Rodeo" or "Rodayo" means "roundup" but today it has come to mean a gathering together of cowboys and cowgirls who compete against each other in various cowboy sports, such as saddle bronc riding, bareback bronc riding, roping, steer wrestling, calf roping, and steer roping. All of this will be demonstrated at the Lions Club Show, in addition to many feature events, such as trick and fancy horse roping, bow and arrow shooting, educated horses, funny clown mules, high jumping horses, and an old-fashioned square dance on horseback, known as the Quadrille or Horseback, or Dance of the Rangeland, and a thrilling exhibition of trick riding.

The show will last two hours and is full of excitement, fun, and thrills. All lovers of horses will enjoy seeing the well trained cow ponies work in the steer wrestling and calf roping events. You will marvel at the numerous tricks, poses, and dances that the horses perform in the beautiful high school horse number. The children will enjoy the antics of the Rodeo clown and his funny little mule, and you will be thrilled to see those squealing, pitching, bucking, horses from the ranges of Montana come out of the chutes with a cowboy trying to stay aboard. Then watch the contest of mastery between man and beast.

A bigger thrill is in store for you when the wild Brahma cattle come bawling, kicking and twisting down the arena, vainly trying to throw their rider.

Then there is steer wrestling, or (Continued on Back Page)
