Permits to marry were issued during the past week to four white couples and one colored couple from the office of W. E. Ormond, Wayne

County Register of Deeds.

They were: White--Corbit Lee 21 to Georgia Grady 18, both of Mount Olive; Garland Newell 19 to Zula Bass 17, both of Goldsboro; George F. Hartley 27 to Hazel Cole, 19, both of Grantham; Elton Baysden 21 of Lenoir County to Christine Taylor 18, of Craven County, colored--Luther Wooten 55, to Bettie Crook 39, both of Goldsboro.

F. R. Whitaker, of the Goldsboro Realty Management Corporation, reported to police headquarters that a Royal portable typewriter, No. A426-282, was stolen from offices of the firm in the Professional Building.

Although it was several days before the theft was discovered, the typewriter is believed to have been stolen on or about July 28. Members of the office force failed to notice that the typewriter was missing, as it was not generally used.

Clark Davis, wanted in Rocky Mount for a hit and run charge, was arrested by Officers Harry Morris and H. T. Hines in Goldsboro Monday for driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Davis was tried Tuesday in County Court, found guilty and fined $50 and costs. His driver's license was revoked for twelve months.

Patrolman Lewis and Broadhurst of Rocky Mount came to Goldsboro Tuesday to take Davis back to Rocky Mount to face charges there.

H. A. Wood, district supervisor of the Vocational Rehabilitation Department of the State, will come to Goldsboro today to interview clients. Mr. Wood will hold interviews at the offices of the Welfare Department.
