The Way Of The Transgressor Is Hard

Never was more real truth and wisdom incorporated in one sentence than when the wise man said "The way of the transgressor is hard". Look about you if you please and see if the fact is not already established. Think of the cases which have come before the eyes of the people of Kings Mountain during the past few months. See Irwin Dellehue as he sits in jail at Shelby charged with robbery. See Claud Haynes and Jim Melton as they peep between the bars for the same offence. Think of the cold and hunger endured while fleeing from the officers of the law. Think of the humiliation of lying in a dirty filthy cell awaiting trial. Then see them as they stand at the bar of justice to hear the sentence of another period of privation and hardship.

We cite these few cases just to illustrate. They are duplicated the world over. Men of sinful inclination are going on in their wickedness. The righteous man foreseeth the evil and hideth himself but the simple pass on and are punished.

These difficulties are only temporary. But beyond the grave what? We hear the great and righteous judge saying, "The gift of God is Eternal life but the wages of sin is death."

Two Entertainments at the Graded School Fri. and Sat.

Let the people come out and enjoy the entertainments scheduled for this week at the graded school. The proceeds of these plays go for the recent improvements made in the auditorium. It will certainly be appreciated if we can have a most liberal patronage and thus repay the students and the teachers for their efforts to improve the equipment.

R. C. Cox, Supt.

With Mrs. Cornwell.

Mrs. C. T. Cornwell was the very clever hostess to the Thursday Afternoon Book Club and a large number of guests at her beautiful home Feb. 26. The guests were greeted by the hostess and directed to the parlor where the decorations were suggestive of Washington's Birthday. Partners for a Historical contest were found by matching small red hatchets with corresponding numbers. All the guests were asked to wear an helmet and there many quaint costumes and pieces of jewelry formerly worn by the grandmothers of those present.

A vote was taken for the most colonial costume. Mrs. G. E. Lovell wearing a dress of sixty years ago received the prize, a box of Martha Washington candy. Refreshments consisting of a delicious salad course and coffee followed by a sweet course was served by the hostess, Mrs. J. S. Hood and Mrs. J. C. Patrick.

With Mrs. Dilling.

Mrs. W. S. Dilling delightfully entertained last Wednesday afternoon at Rook Party from three to six-thirty. Her invitations were issued and notwithstanding the bad weather there was no cause for regret. The guests were cordially greeted at the door by the hostess and shown to the living room where Miss Emelyn Dilling served cards. By these the guests were guided to the tables where many enthusiastic games were indulged in. The tables were placed in the hall parlor and HOSE were stirring times on our western frontier just after the War of Independence. Then the name of Simon Girty was the most hated, reviled and feared along the whole border; Hamilton, the British commander at Detroit, was stirring the Indians to revolt, and death lurked in every shadow of the forest.

It's just the setting for a real Parrish story—the kind that only he can write—the swinging, thrilling kind like "Molly McDonald" or "Keith of the Border." When we tell you that "The Maid of the Forest" is every bit as good as these two, we know you'll lose no time in reading it.

We have secured this story for our next serial and the first installment will appear soon. Watch for it living room all gay in their decorations of palms, ferns, and bright spring flowers. Late in the afternoon when going home time was near the hostess assisted by Mrs. H. T. Fulton and Miss Martha Simonton, served an elegant three-course luncheon. The hospitable home radiated warmth and good cheer with its glowing fires and bright lights. The occasion proved of much pleasure and enjoyment to those present.

Carnival Coming.

Mr. H. Wilen, agent for the Barkoot Tropical Amusement Company, has closed a contract with the city for a spring festival and Carnival for one week, commencing Monday March 10th. Mention was made of the coming of the carnival several weeks ago in the Herald. The shows of this company seem to be very clean and up-to-date from what we can learn. Some newspaper clippings from towns where the shows have been would indicate to same. When Mr. Wilen was before the city council in regard to the matter he assured them that there would be nothing savoring of gambling or other wise objectionable on exhibition. He furthermore stated that the council would be at liberty to close down any show that they might pronounce indecent or undesirable even after it had been opened up. They authorize us to say that there will be two free attractions each day, afternoon and evening, also free concert by the Royal Italian Band. The carnival will be pitched on the vacant lots owned by the Misses Falls near the overhead bridge generally designated as Vinegar Hill.

Wind Takes Roof.

It was reported over town Monday that the wind Sunday night totally unroofed the Klotho mill and the company store of the Kings Mountain Manufacturing Company. The story was very much exaggerated. The fact is, about twenty-five or thirty squares of the roof of the Klotho mill were blown off which is about one sixth of the total roof. No damage at all was done to the company store at the Kings Mountain Manufacturing Company. About one square of roofing was torn up on the cotton house but was not taken from the building.

Many water pipes were burst and much confusion was experienced in many lines of business and especially in kitchens. The Kiser Lumber Company suspended business all day Monday and the graded school was not able to hold session.

Elbethel Notes

Special to the Herald. Mrs. Wayne Ware of Mt. Holly is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Black.

Miss Freeloze Black is getting along nicely with her school. The attendance has not been so large since the weather has been so bad.

The Elbethel Local has moved back from town to the school house and a number of backsliders reclaimed.

Mrs. Sastey Cannady is with her father, Mr. Mat Hollender near Antioch, who is critically ill.

Mr. Ramer Harmon who has been very low with pneumonia is improving very nicely. Also two of Mr. Dock Hancock's children.

Well, the wheels of progress are still rolling in our neighborhood. Mr. Rodney Mauney has put up a new house to be used for a blacksmith shop. Mr. Felment who bought Mr. Jim Ware's mill is putting in a new saw mill to be run by water power. Go on train, go!

Mr. Tom Humphrey's little boy who has been sick is better.

Mr. Clarence Black of Kings Mountain was here Saturday visiting his people.

Mr. —Black and Mr. —King who work on the dredge in Buffalo spent a few days at home on account of the bad weather and returned to their work Monday.

While sitting around reading first one thing and another during the bad weather I ran across the report of the Commissioners in the Herald. I found there a feed bill so I thought that I would figure it out while I had nothing else to do. I find the last quarter cost for feed $1,401.75. I believe that there are four quarters in a year, so, if I make no mistake, it will cost $5,619.00 to feed 21 or 22 head of horses a year. That is what I have been told, by one of the commissioners. So, if it costs that much for feed and other expenses the $15,000.00 that has been voted will soon be gone, so, good-by to the branch roads.

Rambler.

Attend Bible Conference.

There will be no preaching at Boyce Memorial A. R. P. church next Sabbath on account of the pastor, Rev. G. L. Kerr, being in Atlanta attending the Atlanta Bible Conference Association which meets at the Baptist Tabernacle. This is the sixteenth annual session of the conference. It met last Sunday, the 1st, and will be in session all this week including next Sunday. While this conference was originated by Dr. Len G. Broughton, then pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle and now of London, England, it is interdenominational and has men of high rank in practically all Protestant denominations on its various boards.

Dilling Mill Items.

Under the above caption we are in receipt of a nice little batch of locals but with no name signed to the manuscript. We are very sorry that the person who was so thoughtful as to send us this matter forgot to let us know the name. We suppose that every item is all right but we cannot publish them unless we knew who was responsible. However, we reproduce a few of those which appear to carry no risk in them with the understanding that the correspondent always sign hereafter. We do not wish to publish the name but only want it for our protection.

As I often see news from East Kings Mountain I would like to see some of our news.

Mrs. Otto Cox is on the sick list.

Mrs. Geo. McCullough is very sick with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parrish have the LaGrippe.

Mr. C. A. Allen of Emlen, S. C. is spending several days with his parents.

Oak Grove Items

Miss Mattie Plonk of Cherokee S. C. is spending some time with Mrs. H. T. Wright.

The many friends of Mrs. Crawford Jolley will be sorry to learn that she is again very sick at her home near here.

Mr. Tom Hicks of Atlanta is spending some time with his parents.

Miss Lula Ford visited in the Ware School community Saturday and Sunday, the guest of Mrs. John Watterson.

A large crowd came to the "Picnic" last Saturday. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, Mr. Bert Seism was the lucky winner of the gold watch. Several prizes of silver ware were also awarded.

Every one in the community seems interested in the county commencement, so we are expecting to be well represented that day, in numbers, at least.

Dr. O. G. Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Dilling attended the Craig reception in Gastonia last week. From all accounts it was a very swell affair. Mrs. Thomas L. Craig gave the reception in commemoration of her husband's fiftieth birthday. The affair was of the highest order in every respect and many people enjoyed one of their very best evenings in the hospitable Craig home.

HAD CATARRH FIVE YEARS

MR. S. S. JOHNSON - St. Elmo, Ill.

Mr. Johnson of St. Elmo, Illinois, was troubled five years with catarrh. The catarrh was so severe in his case that his life seemed threatened. As he expressed it himself, he had "one foot in the grave."

Of course he tried to get relief. Many practitioners were consulted and a catarrh specialist in St. Louis was tried. He got worse and thoroughly run down. He could not walk more than a hundred yards without resting. Few people understand that catarrh is a constant drain on the system. The discharge of mucus, going on in such cases is composed of blood serum, and is a waste. Sooner or later it will exhaust the strongest man.

According to reports from Mr. Johnson, he was in a poor condition, but he found his trouble. We will let him tell his own story. His own words: "My friends told me to try Peruna, and I did so. I never felt better. Peruna has saved my life. The best medicine on earth, and I do not know of any other that will think so. My statements, however, can be verified by writing Mr. Johnson." Every home should be provided with the last edition of "The Illustrated" sent free by the Peruna Co., 1000 bus. Ohio.
