Editor and Mrs. G. G. Page and Attorney N. F. McMillan and sister, Miss Annie McMillan, of Kings Mountain were at Oak Grove church Sunday afternoon. As the pastor, Rev. J. R. Miller, could not fill his appointment he sent Mr. Page in his place. If Mr. Page were a preacher I would say that he preached a good sermon but as he is only a layman will have to say that he gave us a good talk on the Sunday School work. "The Layman's Part in the Great Plan of Salvation," was his subject. Before taking his seat Mr. Page introduced Mr. McMillan who made a talk on Aaraca work. He made a good talk and several voted to organize. We will be glad to have them with us again.

The guests were welcomed by Mrs. H. T. Fulton and shown to the Hall where Miss Mary and Miss Pearl Fulton served delicious punch from a beautifully decorated punch bowl.

The business meeting was presided over by the president Mrs. L. C. Maaney and four new members elected to the club, after the business meeting Mrs. G. E. Lovell with Mrs. Ridenhour as accompanist delighted all present with her beautiful voice, then little Pearl Fulton in bappy graceful way recited "The Burglar." Later all were invited to the cool inviting porches where tables were arranged for Roodles and after many enthusiastic games the tables were cleared and elegant ices were served. The meeting was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

105 MAUNEYS MEET IN ANNUAL FAMILY REUNION

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was the Mauney Reunion which was held at the Mauney Park about a mile north of town Tuesday.

The descendants of the late David and Fannie Mauney assembled themselves together for a day of outing, picnicking and fun.

About eleven o'clock the crowd began to gather and by noon the grounds were well covered by big Mauneys, little Mauneys, and Mauneys of all sizes and ages. Much fun was had from the start. Mr. S. S. Mauney was among the first to reach the grounds and when he arrived he had his coat off, his hat pushed back and a board with a hole through it in one hand and three bags of beans in the other. Before he was fairly through passing the time of day he dared anybody to beat him playing bean bag. Sides were chosen and the game started right square in the centre of the pavillion. Pretty soon the place was too populous for one game to suffice, so a game of horse shoe was started just above the spring. It lay for every man and woman to choose for himself the game he liked. Horse shoe and bean bag and bean bag and horse shoe, till well nigh everybody had taken a hand. There were five ministers present and so much delight did they get from the games, although they didn't play much, that one of them declared that he cut the hole through the board and as quick as a flash he and Mr. Sam Mauney were in a quandary for both wanted the honor.

It was the jolliest time ever. Everybody tried to make everybody else happy and everybody succeeded well. About 12:30 a bunch of the men laid hold and built a table, right spang fire up and down through the pavillion did they construct it. It was plenty wide and about six times as long and when the ladies had laid bare their contributions it was a sight to behold. It was one of the finest spreads we ever saw and one of the hardest crowds. Esquire W. A. Mauney became master of ceremonies and called upon Rev. C. M. Kohn of Mt. Holly to return thanks. The mature hour together with the brisk exercise of the morning had every appetite at its best and a sumptuous repast was heartily indulged in until all were filled and wanted no more. After dinner everything reverted to the characteristic informality of the occasion and everybody exercised at will. A bunch of men went to pull an auto mobile out of a ditch while another squad resumed the horse shoe game. About two o'clock the lightnings began to flash and the thunders to roll. Memories of last year's event when they were all put to so much inconvenience on account of being caught there in a cloud presented themselves and dispersion was soon the topic of general discussion. A lot of watermelons had been provided and by this time all felt that they could relish at least a small portion of the fruit. The melon feast was hastily disposed of and everybody departed declaring to the last that they had had a most pleasant day.

The Mauneys were by families as follows, and with few exceptions all were present:

W. A. Mauney, wife, Candace Miller Mauney. Children: Ida, married C. E. Neisler, eight children; Laura married W. A. Ridenhour, one child; Hunter, married Jessie Munday, three children; Bonnie and Virginia.

Rudisill, seven children; Mamie, married Dr. W. H. Houser, five children; D. A., married Ava Dellinger; Jake, married Annie Deitz; Julia, married W. A. Hall, one child.

The following were not present; W. A. Hall, deceased; Jake Mauney Jr. and wife, Sallie Rudisill, Vida Mauney, David Mauney and wife, Ola McLurd and family. Of the immediate members of the family 105 were present.

Among the invited guests were Rev. C. M. Kohn of Mt. Holly, Mr. John Van Lanningham of Charlotte, Rev. and Mrs. C. K. Bell, H. F. Peterson and Editor and Mrs. Page. There were a few guests whose names we failed to get.

ONE KILLED TWO INJURED.
Rev. C. M. Erwin of Hickory—Mr. Joe Bridges and Son of Lattimore Hurt.

As a result of a runaway in Bostic Rev. C. M. Erwin of Hickory, is dead and Joe Bridges and a son, of Lattimore are seriously hurt. The runaway occurred about 3 o'clock when Mr. Erwin and the other two occupants of the buggy were enroute to Sun. Pay school at the Baptist church at that place.

While descending a hill in the town of Bostic a holdingback strap broke or came unbuckled, the mule became frightened and ran into some posts nearby, shattering the buggy and throwing three to the ground. Mr. Erwin was thrown against a post and died within an hour. A physician was summoned from Rutherfordton and ministered to the Bridges. It is thought Mr. Bridges lost an eye and that the skull of his son is fractured.

Mr. Erwin's home was in Hick and he had been supplying the Bostic Baptist church for several months. He was about 50 years of age.

A telephone message yesterday stated that Mr. Bridges is not expected to live.
