FARMERS CURTAIL

Will Sell No Cotton for Less Than Ten Cents and Not More Than 15 Cents.

We will not sell any cotton for less than ten cents and not more than 15 cents, said the Farmers' Union here Saturday. The union has decided to sell its own cotton at these prices. The union has a large amount of cotton in the hands of the growers and it is expected that the price will be maintained at these levels. #### THOU ART WEIGHED

Says Supt. J. F. Irwin to His Workmen.

The weighing of workmen is a subject that has been discussed for some time. The superintendent of the Kings Mountain Coal Mine, J. F. Irwin, has recently addressed his workmen on this subject. He stated that the workmen should be weighed regularly to ensure that they are getting their full share of coal. He also stated that the workmen should be weighed in a fair and equitable manner. The workmen have responded positively to the superintendent's remarks and it is expected that the weighing process will be carried out in a fair and equitable manner.
