MISSIONARY HERE NEXT WEEK

Miss Stella Wood, returned missionary to India, will deliver a missionary address Thursday night, June 1st. The service will be held under the tent, near the Old Mill, where the Wesleyan Methodist Church will be conducting services every night next week. Miss Wood is working under the missionary board of the General Conference, Wesleyan Methodist Church, and is now enroute to her field of labor. She is a fluent speaker, and has many curious, idols, etc., which she uses in illustrating her address. You will be well paid for attending this service. Edw. M. Graham, Pastor.

EAST KINGS MOUNTAIN ITEMS

Mr. E. E. Ford is all smiles, it's a boy.

Mr. Pink Chapman and children of Moresboro visited at Mr. K. A. Chapman's Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Boyce Paysaur made a business trip to Gastonia Monday.

Mrs. Mattie Falls of Gastonia visited her sister, Mrs. E. E. Ford Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. J. V. Jones of the Phoenix mill is improving in health. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

The Y. P. S. of Grace Church has installed a gasoline lantern in front of the church, which adds much to the convenience of those who attend the church at night.

The Revival meeting is still in progress at Grace M. E. Church. The interest is fine. Up to this writing there has been more than 30 professions. Last Sunday night the church was packed to its capacity. The pastor Rev. B. A. Culp who is his own evangelist, read in the 26 chapter of Leviticus when the Lord would send the rain in due season. If we would keep his Sabbaths and reverence his sanctuary. He commented for a few minutes and showed how we had failed along this line then he called the congregation to prayer and asked the Divine Father to forgive us and help to do his will in the future, and Monday morning the gentle showers were falling which made us all rejoice. The meeting will continue up to next Sunday night.

The merchants of East Kings Mountain are closing their stores at 8 o'clock for benefit of the revival this week.

The Colored Graded School had its finals last week. They had quite a long program and one that reflected credit upon the school. Rev. C. K. Ball spoke to the school Tuesday night and Editor G. G. Page Wednesday night. The exercises by the children both nights showed that much preparation had been made.

These folks are much in need of better quarters. Their lot is too small and the building entirely inefficient. Professor Lawrence, the principal, has insured the people to activity. During the entire school year they have been creating a fund and now they have a contest on to raise an additional hundred dollars to be applied on new quarters. The attendance this year has been the best in the history of the school.

Monday night, the 29th inst., a tent meeting will be commenced in Parker's Grove, near the Old Mill. The meetings will be held under the auspices of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. Rev. J. A. Clement of Central, S. C., one of the most successful holiness evangelists in the South, will do the preaching. Services every night at 7:45 o'clock. All pastors and their congregations most cordially invited. Edw. M. Graham, Pastor.

HAVE YOU PAID UP?

The Herald Contest has closed and a few old accounts remain on the books. We had hoped to clean up the whole business but failed. You folks who are in arrears owe us these small amounts they are as honest as any grocery bill you ever made and deserve just as much to be paid. We are going to keep the books open for a few weeks in the effort to get all these accounts paid. If you are in position to pay with money, word or anything else we can use please do so and if you are not able to pay now see us about it so that we may know what to do next time.
