

A CROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED

LOOK, MOTHER! SEE IF TONGUE IS COATED, BREATH HOT OR STOMACH SOUR.

"CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS" CAN'T HARM TENDER STOMACH, LIVER, BOWELS.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue. Mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When the little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child to-morrow. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine made by "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

Nothing to Do but Wait. Jones was a raw recruit just arrived. The second day of his army life he was put on the picket line grooming horses. The stable sergeant, having given the command to groom, sauntered around to see how the work was progressing. He found Jones with an anxious and expectant look on his face. "Well, Jones, have you groomed your horse?" "Yes, sir," he replied obediently. "Have you cleaned out his hoofs?" Jones hesitated. "No, sir—he's been standing on them sir, and I've waited over ten minutes for him to lie down."—Judge.

OLD PRESCRIPTION FOR WEAK KIDNEYS

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfil the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it. A prominent druggist says, "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy that I know of has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact that, so many people claim, it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention this paper. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores.—Adv.

Working a "Good Thing." Herbert Hoover hasn't been able to regulate the appetites of Washington children.

A family recently received a big barrel of apples. Several days after that little Johnnie, a friend, came around to call.

He happened to be in the kitchen and spied the apples. Some way or other nobody thought to connect apples with Johnnie. But did that bother him?

"I like apples," he finally said. Still nobody said anything. "Guess I'll take one," said Johnnie. And he did so.

Still nothing was said. "I'll take one for little Brother Billie," continued Johnnie, pocketing a second apple.

The Lord certainly helps those who help themselves.

ARE YOU SAVING?

The old Scotch quotation should often come to mind these days: "Man, a mickle makes a muckle." "We must not be penny wise and pound foolish," for we should have recreation, play-times, and vacations; our health and mentality as well as good looks require it; but do we need to spend as a nation $450,000,000 a year for the movies?

Let us go to fewer moving picture shows and buy Thrift Stamps instead. Do we need, as an American nation, to spend $50,000,000 yearly for gum, and $200,000,000 for candy, $900,000,000 for tobacco, and $2,000,000,000 for liquor? Think of spending 32 cents per capita for liquor and only six cents for milk, the food that will keep our babies alive, who are dying by the thousands each year from lack of proper care.

It is only by each person sharing the burden and saving his share that our government will be able to provide for the expense of this war. We are required to go without certain foodstuffs to save wheat, meat, fat and sugar, but how many Americans are really going without until it hurts?

We must scrape the cake and bread bowl, save by paring very thinly the vegetables and fruits we use, scrape out each eggshell with a teaspoon and it is broken.

The outer leaves of lettuce, either the head or remainder, may be rolled and shredded with a sharp knife, and may be used as a garnish for salads or in salads. When you can save a cent on a five or ten-cent purchase it is a saving of 20 or 10 per cent, which we consider a large rate of interest. When eggs reach the lowest price is the time to put them down for winter. Use pint of water glass to every ten quart of boiled cooled water. Use a stone receptacle and pack them carefully, up to crack one egg. Cover the jar and keep in a cool place. Eggs thus packed will keep a year perfectly.

Eggs are not likely to be as cheap as usual this year, as food is so high. Even at 35 cents a dozen it will be profitable to pack them.

Forget thyself; console the sadness near thee—Thine own shall then depart. And songs of Joy, like heavenly birds, shall cheer thee, And swell within thy heart.

INVITING FOODS FOR THE INVALID.

We have been told so many times that all foods which are served to an invalid should be made as attractive as possible, for daintiness in service is a great aid to a fickle appetite. An orange in its natural state is pleasing to most of us, but to the frail invalid the sight of the dainty pulp with all the connecting tissue removed, placed in a glass dish or served in a long-stemmed glass, the fruit dusted with powdered sugar, will be far more appealing.

Baked apples, stewed prunes, baked pears or bananas, figs, dates and fresh berries when they agree with the digestion, are all most palatable. Cantaloupe which is scored out by small spoonfuls, sprinkled with a bit of salt or sugar and served in a pretty glass cup or dish, is much more dainty than when served in halves or sections. Watermelon may be served in small balls, using a potato cutter.

Custards of various kinds are all for the sick one; the more eggs they contain the more nourishing they are. Junkets of various flavors are also good, and when topped with a spoonful of whipped cream make a most satisfying dessert. In all desserts using milk or eggs the freshest and best are always to be used; the slightest suggestion of any flavor not just right will be more quickly noted by the patient than it would be the case in health.

Plain ice creams are invaluable as refreshments in case of fever and when the throat is sore or inflamed. The patient is not only refreshed but also nourished by the frozen dish, which slips down with so little effort.

Soups and broths are foods which help digestion and are valuable as food also.

Meats of different kinds, subject to the order of the physician, should be well cooked; chicken is especially good and because of its short fiber it is easily digested. Small quantities well and daintily served will not often be refused.

Sponge cakes are the best for invalids, and all puddings should be of the simplest kinds. Gelatin in various flavors will add variety; tapioca, rice and cornstarch are good when well cooked.

What's the Use? What's the use of growling about it? You don't like a growling puppy.

MAN SLEEPS WHILE HIS BEDDING BURNS

Occupant of Next Room Finds Law

Entered to Find the Mattress Afire stretched calm and still like Brunhilda on her pyre—only Brunhilda did not snore.

The intruder picked up the pitcher and emptied its contents on the modern Rip Van Winkle, who stirred, muttered drowsily, and slept again. The fire was out, to all appearances, and the rescuer left, pursued by the snores of the rescued.

Five hours later the man in the next room appealed to the management. "He's snore again," he complained, "and I can't wake him up."

It took two strong men to rouse him sufficiently for him to slide off the burning mattress.

HUG BY PRETTY GIRL ENDS IN LOSS OF $130

San Francisco.—A long hug by a pretty girl cost Charles Smulter, of this city, $130, and the fact that the young woman was beautiful does not console him in the least. Smulter told the police that he was walking down the street when the "fair young thing" threw her arms about his neck babbling terms of endearment with vehemence. Smulter struggled a half block before he could break from her embrace. Then he discovered that his wallet was missing.

THOUGHT SHE BURIED SON

Georgia Woman Treated to Sensation When She Meets Him in Atlanta.

Atlanta, Ga.—All the sensations associated with the miracles of olden times have been experienced by Mrs. Rosa Holley Whitehead of Atlanta, who recently attended, as she thought, the funeral of her son, Aubrey Whitehead in Louisville, Ky. After the ceremonies Mrs. Whitehead returned to Atlanta and met her son, who is in perfect health. The cause of the curious mistake was the result of a remark made by Aubrey, which was overheard, that he "would end it all in the river." The body of a man was found in the Ohio river and young Whitehead disappeared. There was great resemblance in the body to young Whitehead. A Louisville undertaker is wondering who is going to pay for the expensive funeral.

"ROLL BONES" TO SHOW JURY

Detroit Defendant, After Demonstrating a Crap Game, is Convicted.

Detroit, Mich.—While a court and a jury looked on and sanctioned the act, a real old-fashioned crap game took place in the courtroom here.

After some of the jurors had startled the court by admitting they had never seen a crap game, Alfred Frank, a negro, who was the defendant in the case on trial, was called on to demonstrate "rolling the bones."

"Now, talk to 'em," as you did the night of the murder," the court ordered, and Frank obeyed. It was one of the names given the dice that led to the shooting of Charles Powell, another negro. Frank was found guilty of the crime.

HADN'T TAKEN HIM FOR THAT

Nothing in Nuptial Contract Stipulated That Woman Had United Herself to Brass Band.

The trifling causes that some people set forth in seeking a divorce come up for discussion at a social gathering, when the following anecdote was related by William A. South of Michigan:

Some time since a woman entered the office of a lawyer, and on being asked the nature of her business by the legal light declared with a positive air that she wished to sue for a separation from her husband.

"Just a moment," responded the lawyer. "Let's begin at the beginning. Why do you wish a divorce?"

"Because my husband snores," answered the would-be client. "He snores so loudly that I cannot sleep."

"That is something, of course," returned the lawyer, with an inward smile, "but didn't you take him for better or for worse?"

"I surely did," was the prompt rejoinder of the other. "But I didn't take him for a brass band."—Philadelphia Evening Telegraph.

Zone of Quiet.

The black-whiskered, unkempt stranger had been wandering about for some time watching the swarms of workmen engaged on the Tower of Babel.

"How quiet and orderly everything is here," he remarked to one of the foremen.

"How's that?" asked the foreman, eyeing him sharply.

"I say," repeated the stranger, "how quiet and orderly everything is here. Everything running along smoothly, no disturbances, everybody doing just what should be done, at just the right time. Such an easy-running place, this."

"Say, where are you from?" "Oh, me? Why, I just dropped over from Petrograd."

Most Startling Endorsement Ever Published

Dr. A. W. Cramer, Registered Pharmacist and Druggist of Plano, Illinois, writes under date of December 12, 1916:

"Eatonic Remedy Co., Chicago, Ill. Gentlemen—The following incident which happened in my place of business I know will be of great interest to you, and I hope, of great benefit to humanity, mentally and physically. I keep a quantity of EATONIC piled on my show case. I recently missed a box, and knowing neither myself nor clerk had sold it, I could not account for its disappearance. Yesterday morning a man walked into my store and said: 'Mr. Cramer, I owe you fifty cents for a box of EATONIC which I stole from your show case. I am bothered with stomach trouble and, not having the money to spare to get a box, I took EATONIC. It has done me so much good my conscience bothered me until I had to come back and pay for it.' This is the most wonderful testimonial statement in all my experience in the interest of any preparation. It is positive proof, to my mind, that EATONIC is all that is claimed for it. If it had not helped this man his conscience would have left him untroubled. Very truly yours, A. W. Cramer."
