Pursuant to the Proclamation of the President of the United States and of the Governer of North Carolina, I. F. H. Fries, North Carolina Director of War Savings, acting under the authority of the United States Treasury Department, have asked the ministers of the Gospel and the supprintendents Schools to have a War Savings message presented in every church in North Carolina on Sunday, June 23, have called upon every township or in North Carolina on Sunday, June 28, have called upon every townsmp or ward War Savings chairman to conduct a house to house canvass for War Savings pledges during the week following, and have summoned citizens of North Carolina to meet at their respective schoolhouses ou Friday, June 28, 1918, the hour of the meeting to be fixed by the local chairman.

Local citizens will be named to conduct the schoolhouse meetings, who will keep a record of the proceedings and report the names of all persons present and pledging, and the names of all persons present and refusing or neglecting to pledge, with their reasons for so doing.

War Savigs Stamps (which are United States Government Bonds, the same as Liberty Bonds) can be paid for during any month in the year of 1918, but it is intestified that subscriptions for them will be signed during the week beginning June 23, and. If any deficit exists at the end of the ho canvass, at the schoolhouse meeting on June 28.

The price of each War Savings Stamp depends upon the month during The price of each War Sarings Stamp depends upon the month during which it is bought. During June each Stamp will cost $4.17. During July each Stamp will cost $4.18, and so on, one cont more each month during 1918., On January 1 1923, the Government of the United States will redeem all War Savings Stamps at $5.00 each, so matter during which month in 1918 they were bought. They cost less during the early months at 1918 than during the later months because the person who buys barlier has loaned his money to the Government for a longer time than the one who buys later. A large number of these establishments which have been found to have exceeded their allottment have been closed up temperarily. The Food Administration is pre paring to put a number of inspectors in the field in North Carolina and will be able to quickly detect any violations of rules and regulations governing the sale of sugar or any other food product and the temper of the Food Administration indicates that willful violators and food "hogs" may expect no mercy at the hands of the Food Administration when they are caught.
