Raleigh half million dollars is the state minimum amount to be raised in North Carolina. November 11 for the soldiers of the state. The sum was determined by the executive committee of the Legion. The proposal to build a memorial building to the soldiers advanced by Mr. E. Henderson, Charlotte lawyer, to definite form when the General Assembly at the last session appointed a memorial building commission with Governor Bickett as chairman. The Legislature also selected state property on the west side of the capital, fronting on both sides of the state street, for the exchange we find that the same conditions be the executive committee that the canvass for donations would be made on the day and it was some money due to the committee.

The committee for the building of the armistice between the Allies and Germany, and the day on which this was arranged throughout the state will be arranged throughout the state to boost subscription boxes and put them up in all cities and towns.

These great money boxes, for whom could own their own homes, start out with the hope of raising money by building through the various building and loan associations of the state.

Some may be referring to the activities of the interest of that committee in the distribution of John D. Rockefeller's money to the highest of great relatively unimportant and the distribution of the principles of the new grand officer of the Grand Lodge of Past Grand Master of North Carolina.
