

I AM GLAD TO ENDORSE PE-RU-NA

Glad to Try Anything
Three years ago my system was in a terribly run down condition and I was broken out all over my body. I began to be worried about my condition and I was glad to try anything which would relieve me. Peruna was recommended to me as a fine blood remedy and tonic, and I soon found that it was worthy of praise. A few bottles changed my condition materially and in a short time I was all over my trouble. I owe my restoration to health and strength to Peruna. I am glad to endorse it.

JUST WHAT DID SHE MEAN?

Young Teacher's Reply Might Have Been Merely a Statement of Plain Fact, or—

The young primary teacher had been continually annoyed by Bobby's mother ever since he had entered school. Nothing suited her. At first it was the hours, then the arrangement of Bobby's seat, and finally, after a score of complaints about everything imaginable, she began to come to school to criticize the teacher's methods and books used. "Now, these readers are not nearly so interesting as the ones we used to use," she said. "Couldn't you get some of those old books and use them to supplement these?" she asked.
"I don't know whether I could find any," hesitated the little teacher.
"But you will find the stories so much more interesting that you will be paid for your effort in hunting them." Insisted the woman. "How I did love those stories! There was one about a little red hen. It—"
"I don't believe that would interest my children now," interrupted the young teacher. "You see, the hen grew up."—Indianapolis News.

Easy Money.
A discharged soldier with his young wife recently went on a shopping tour in Washington. Ex-soldier, very tired and not having much interest in walking the aisles of a department store, sat himself down in the lobby and promised his wife to remain there until her return. Soon he was fast asleep. In a reclining position, with his hat in his hand, he was enjoying a quiet nap. When his wife returned she was shockingly surprised to see a dollar and a half in her husband's hat.

LABOR SITUATION IS LESS SEVERE

Improvement Is Reported by Bureau of Crop Estimates After Investigation.

WAGE RATE NOT CONSIDERED

Actual Supply of 1919 Was 83 Per Cent Against 72 Per Cent One Year Ago—Less Favorable on the Atlantic Coast.

Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.
Improvement in the farm labor situation this year over 1918 is reported by the bureau of crop estimates, United States department of agriculture, after investigation in all agricultural counties of the United States. By improvement is meant net increase of supply and consequently more labor for planting, cultivating and harvesting in relation to the work to be done. Wage rates were not included in the investigation.

Improvement in 1919.
Stated in percentage of a normal labor supply as related to a normal demand for labor, the actual supply of 1918 was 72 per cent and of 1919 it is 83 per cent—still inadequate without greater than normal dependence on machinery and animal, tractor and motor power, and without more than usual labor by farmers and their families. However, the improvement over 1918 is considerable.

In both years the groups of states that were and are provided with labor in relation of supply to demand, less than, or at the most equal to, the average for the United States, are the North Atlantic, the South Atlantic and the South Central.
Among these three groups of states, the greatest improvement is in the North Atlantic and the least is in the South Atlantic, and these extremes of high and low improvement are not equaled by the North Central and Western states, in each of which the average improvement is almost the same as that of the entire country. The improvement is evenly distributed throughout all state groups, except the North Atlantic states, where the gain is twice as great as in each of the other groups of states.

Situation Is Worse.
Apart from tendency toward relief from labor scarcity from 1918 to 1919, the situation this year is less favorable on the Atlantic coast, from New England to the South Atlantic states as a group, than in the states west of the Appalachian mountains as groups, and in this long strip of coast the situation is worse in the South Atlantic group of states.

ESSENTIAL FOR LIVE STOCK

Fences Should Be Made Tight—Have Permanent Pastures and Keep Only Purebred Sires.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)
Where live stock is a factor on the farm, make every field hog-tight and sheep-tight; have thoroughly good permanent pastures; grow leguminous crops; build a silo, and keep only purebred males. These five things are absolutely essential in the economical production of live stock. Of course this program calls for some labor and expense, but the permanent condition of prosperity in the sections devoted to live-stock production is proof of the good profit derived therefrom.

STRAW IS QUITE VALUABLE

Can Be Used as Roughage in Wintering Stock—Use It Liberally for Bedding.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)
Straw is too valuable to be allowed to remain unused. Fresh oat straw, as well as wheat straw, can be used as a roughage in wintering stock. It is also advisable to use it liberally as bedding for farm animals as it adds to their comfort and absorbs the liquid part of the manure which is the most valuable portion.

ASHES GOOD AS FERTILIZER

On Account of Scarcity of Coal Considerable Amount of Wood Must Be Used This Winter.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)
On account of the scarcity of coal there will probably be a large amount of wood used as fuel this winter. Use all the waste timber, dead and dying trees for this purpose and be sure to conserve the ashes for garden fertilizer. They are rich in plant food, particularly potash.

MAKE MOST OF IMPLEMENTS

Average Farm Tool Is Only About Half Worn Out by Use Alone—Keep Machinery Busy.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)
The average farm implement is only about half worn out by use alone. The rest of the wear is due to rust and decay. Make the greatest possible profit out of machinery by using it continuously for profitable work until it is worn out.

PORTABLE HOGHOUSE HAS ITS ADVANTAGES

By Aid of One Horse It Can Be Moved Around Farm.

Farmer May Construct A-Shaped Pen for Pigs in His Own Back Yard—Ground Underneath Is Kept in Fertile Condition.

A portable hoghouse, fashioned like a tent for summer camping, and transported from place to place by means of a chain and single-tree, is the latest oddity in hoghouse construction. Its quaintness, however, does not argue against its practicability. The farmer may construct this A-shaped home for piggy in his own back yard with the proper specifications and material.

It should be built of 1-by-12-inch plank. The opening should face south. The floor is 8 feet wide and 6 feet from front to back, nailed to three runners or skids. The skids may be built of lumber or poles 6 inches in diameter and flattened on one side, to which the floor is nailed. A hole bored through the front end of the outer skids will give access to the chain and single-tree, to which a horse or team is hitched.

A piece of 2-by-4-inch material supports the outer edges of the top of the floor to prevent the house from spreading at the bottom.
The sides of the house are built of six pieces of 1-by-12-inch plank 8 feet long, nailed to a piece of 2-by-4 lying flat 9 inches from the top of the plank, another 3 1/2 feet from the top, and a

Hitch Horse to this Pig Pen and It Can Be Conveniently Hauled Anywhere.

A piece of 2-by-8 milled edgewise 11 inches from the bottom. A right-angle block of 2-by-8 inch will serve as a brace at each end of the under side of the house.

The long piece of 2-by-8 will serve as a "safety-first" measure for piglets whose careless mother would just as soon flop down on her brood as in a puddle of mud.

The materials required are 12 pieces of 1-by-12-inch by 16 feet for the sides, back and floor of house; 9 pieces of 16-foot batten; 3 pieces 2-by-4-inch by 12 feet for the framework; 2 pieces 2-by-8-inch by 12 feet for the rail or guard; 1 piece 1-by-4 inch by 16 feet for the saddle-board; 3 poles for skids; nails. The cost will probably be about $12.

The advantages of a portable hoghouse are apparent. The house can easily be moved from spot to spot, permitting the ground underneath to keep in a fertile condition. The pigs enjoy being moved about and reciprocate by taking on flesh.—S. R. Winters, in Popular Science Monthly.

COVER CROPS SOIL BUILDERS

Three South Carolina Farmers Co-operating With County Agent—One Good Rotation.

To build up thin soil is a problem which demands the attention of the county agent in Lexington county, South Carolina. Three farmers in one community are co-operating with him by growing cover crops, and are conducting demonstrations extending over several years. One of these men, who has been working on the subject for five years, has allowed this rotation on one piece of land:
Corn and velvet beans or cowpeas, followed by small grain, followed by cowpeas after grain has been harvested, then crimson clover, or hairy vetch and rye, followed by cotton or grain.
This rotation has been kept up until the land, which was very thin, is now producing one and one-half bales of cotton an acre.

PLOW WHEAT STUBBLE DEEP

Weed Seeds Are Buried and Most of Them Destroyed—Flies Cannot Crawl to Surface.

As soon after harvest as possible all wheat stubble should be plowed deep. This buries the weed seeds which are in the stubble and most of them are destroyed. The small, delicate flies cannot crawl to the surface when they are buried under more than five or six inches of compact and pulverized soil. The plow should therefore be followed with a harrow, drag or disk, says the University of Missouri College of Agriculture.

DAIRYMAN NOT SOIL ROBBER

He Not Only Studies How to Feed His Cows, But Also How to Maintain Fertility.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)
The dairy farmer not only studies how to feed his cow, but how to feed his land. He is not a soil robber, as he realizes that the farmer who reduces the fertility of his land robs without reason, since he steals from himself.

His Experience.
"Goodness gracious, Yabelle! What sort of a butler is this new one you have? He admitted me with the most condescending unctious, strutted half-way across the reception room with all the dignified pomposity of a strolling behemoth, and then suddenly sagged down in a chair, produced and lit his pipe, flung his feet up on another chair and began scratching himself."
"Oh, you'll have to bear with Bliggins. All the experience he has had as a butler was in the movies, where he butted for the width of the scene, and then was at once until he got his cue again. But doesn't he do it beautifully while he lasts?"—Kansas City Star.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected.

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview of the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

Joyful Occasion.

"My darling," said a fond mother, who believed in appealing to children's tender feelings instead of punishing them, "if you are so naughty you will grieve mamma so that she will get ill and have to lie in bed in a dark room, and take nasty medicine, and then she may die and have to be taken away out to the cemetery and be buried, and you—"
The child had become more solemn, but an angelic smile overspread his face at his mother's last words and, throwing his arms about her neck, he exclaimed:
"Oh, mamma, and may I sit beside the coachman?"—London Tit-Bits.

Exonerated.

"Whatever did you see in me to induce you to marry me?" she asked.
"Nothing," he replied.
"What?" she cried indignantly.
"Oh, it wasn't your fault, my dear. I evidently had visions and I ought to have consulted an oculist at the time."—Boston Transcript.

Impossible Task.

"No man can serve two masters."
"I should like to try it once. It ought to be easy compared to my job. I'm trying to please 600 masters."
"Six hundred! How do you make that out?"
"I'm chairman of the house committee of our club."—

Why Investigate?

"What's that you say?"
"There's too much futile investigation going on."
"That's right. Eat your hash. Never mind what's in it."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

MILLIONS Suffer from Acid-Stomach

Millions of people suffer year after year from ailments affecting practically every part of the body, never dreaming that their ill health can be traced directly to acid-stomach. Here is the reason: poor digestion means poor nourishment of the different organs and tissues of the body. The blood is impoverished—becomes weak, thin, sluggish. Ailments of many kinds spring from such conditions. Biliousness, rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, general weakness, loss of power and energy, headache, insomnia, nervousness, mental depression—even more serious ailments such as catarrh and cancer of the stomach, intestinal ulcers, cirrhosis of the liver, heart trouble—all of these can often be traced directly to acid-stomach.
Keep a sharp lookout for the first symptoms of acid-stomach—indigestion, heartburn, belching, food repulsing, that awful painful bloating after eating, and sour, gassy stomach. EATONIC, the wonderful modern remedy for acid-stomach, is guaranteed to bring quick relief from these stomach miseries. Thousands say they never dreamed that anything could bring such speedy relief—and make them feel so much better in every way. Try EATONIC and you, too, will be just as enthusiastic in its praise. EATONIC is the only remedy for acid-stomach; your vim, vigor and vitality will always be weak and ailing as long as you have a sharp, aching, burning, or sour stomach. Take EATONIC Tablets—they taste good—you eat them like a bit of candy. Your druggist has EATONIC in cents for a big box.
