

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA TO OBSERVE 25TH ANNIVERSARY

President To Open Ceremonies With Radio Address

The Boy Scouts of America will observe the 25th anniversary of the founding of this great character building and citizenship training movement in America with a full year of celebration which will open Friday night, February 8, at which time Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States, will speak to assembled Scout Troops throughout the Nation over a coast-to-coast radio hook-up at 8:45 o'clock.

The first part of the celebration will take place during National Boy Scout Week, Feb. 8 to 14th. During the week there will be National and local programs featuring the place of Scouting in the Home, the Church, the School and the Community. February 10th is National Scout Sunday and the majority of the Churches in America will observe Sunday with special references and scout sermons. Many Troops will attend the Church with which the Troop is associated and Scouts will participate in the service.

Throughout the year 1935 special programs will be staged noteworthy of which is a state-wide jubilee program at Chapel Hill during April and the National Scout Jamboree in Washington during the later part of August when representatives from the 30,000 Boy Scout Troops in America will come together and camp for a ten day period in the Nation's Capitol.

6,425,511 men and boys have been enrolled in the Boy Scouts of America since 1910. In 1934 over 1,000,000 men and boys were associated in the program of Scouting.

WHO ARE THE FIVE MOST PROMINENT PEOPLE IN KINGS MOUNTAIN?

Who are the five most prominent people in Kings Mountain? That is the question to be decided by the readers of the Herald. We believe that everybody has a right to their own opinion, so send us your list of the five most prominent people in or near Kings Mountain. Your list might include a lady or two, but that's all right by us, as we have met some mighty fine women in these parts. You must sign your name to your list, but your name will not appear in the paper. Voting will last only through February 17, so send in your list right away.

After the voting has been completed we are going to tabulate the results and show you the number of votes each candidate received. Maybe later we will write up each of the five most prominent persons selected by the readers of the Herald.

Through State CAPITOL KEYHOLES By Bess Hinton Silver

G. O. P. CANDIDATE - Some Republican members of the General Assembly are inclined to view with favor the suggestion that former Congressman Chas. Jonas, now the Representative from Lincoln county in the Legislature, may become a candidate for Governor next spring in opposition to Gilliam Grissom who already has voiced intentions of making the race. Mr. Jonas attracted wide attention with his bill to provide discretion between Capital Punishment and life imprisonment and in first degree criminal cases and his attitude favoring removal of tolls from bridges in Eastern North Carolina. It might be well to observe his smoke.

DOUBT REMOVED - Former Lieutenant Governor R. T. Fountain of Rocky Mount, has let be publicly known that he is seriously considering running for Senator in opposition to Senator Josiah W. Bailey in

SCOUTS AND PATRONS TO CELEBRATE 25th ANNIVERSARY

B. S. Peeler, chairman of the Boy Scout organization in Kings Mountain, called a meeting of the local committee on Scouting in the office of Attorney J. R. Davis Friday evening and it was agreed that this community should join in celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America during Scout week, Feb. 8-14th.

Plans were made to begin the week with a dinner for parents, patrons of Scouting and the Boy Scouts at the High School Cafeteria on Friday at 7 p. m. The price is being arranged at 75c per plate for adults and for the Boy Scouts. At this very popular price an excellent meal is offered and it is hoped that the community will join with great enthusiasm in this effort to increase interest in Scouting.

A program is being arranged which shall include the Scouts themselves, two local speakers and Capt. B. L. Smith, Supt. of Public Schools in Shelby. At 8:45 President Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Honorary President of the Boy Scouts of America, will address the organization by radio.

SCOUTS PROPOSE NEW LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Local Troop Two Boy Scouts propose a new town administration for Kings Mountain. An election is called for the occasion of the Scout dinner at the High School Cafeteria on the evening of the 8th. All parents and patrons of Scouting are qualified to vote. A complete now ticket is posted and if elected take office Saturday, the 9th, at 10 a. m. for a period of one hour. The newly elected town council will assemble to adopt laws requiring that all citizens live up to the oath and laws of the Boy Scouts.

The other troops, numbers one, three and four, have posted an opposing ticket and are campaigning to have their ticket elected.

- TROOP II Check here to vote straight ticket: I.-MAYOR. 1. () Earl McGill. II.-TOWN COUNCIL. 1. () George Mauney, Chmn. 2. () Martin L. Harmon. 3. () Fred Dixon. 4. () Jack Randall. 5. () Carl Flinker. III.-TOWN CLERK. 1. () J. W. Jenkins. IV.-FIRE DEPT. 1. () McRoy Sealy, Chief. 2. () Dick Baker, Asst. Chief. 3. () Campbell Stuart, Truck driver. (Cont'd on page six)

P. D. Herndon Makes Big Yield Per Acre Of Cotton

We are printing below a news item taken from the Southern Cultivator published in Atlanta, Ga. P. D. Herndon, of Kings Mountain, N. C., sold his Wilde's long staple cotton for 20 cents a pound last fall. He srew 528 pounds of lint net to the acre.

Councilmen's Meeting Postponed

The regular meeting of the city councilmen was postponed until next Monday night on account of two of the members being absent from the city.

WE WANT CORRESPONDENTS

We want someone in each community served by the Herald to volunteer to send us the news each week of what happens in their section. This will mean lots to the building of the Herald as well as the community. Elsewhere in the paper we are printing a list of communities that we are especially anxious to have the news from each week. If you are interested doing this work please contact the editor for further details.

REV. PATRICK CALLED TO PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. Patrick of Latta, S. C., has been called to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church. He has notified members of the congregation that he will preach for them Sunday, Feb. 17. Mr. Patrick filled the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church on several occasions. He has not decided definitely that he will accept the call for regular service yet.

HULLENDER BROTHERS ARRESTED

Chafe and Charlie Hullender, brothers of Kings Mountain were arrested Tuesday, being charged with the burglary of McConner's Store on Church street. A preliminary hearing was held at recorder's court in Shelby and they were bound over to Superior Court for trial. About $22 worth of cigars, cigarettes, tobacco, and can goods were stolen from McConner's Store last Friday night, by the two brothers it was alleged.

Chief Bryant reports that a few drunks were picked up over the past week end.

The local police department was notified to be on the look out for a negro, 5 feet and 8 inches tall, weighing about 170 pounds, who was thought to be headed towards Kings Mountain. This negro is reported to have stolen an overcoat valued at $40 from a Mr. Kirby in Shelby.

MISS MARY YOUNT MAKES HONOR ROLL AT SALEM ACADEMY

Miss Mary Charlotte Yount, of Kings Mountain made the honor roll for the first semester at Salem Academy, Winston-Salem, N. C., according to a report received by the Herald from the principal of the Academy.

HISTORY OF SCOUTING IN KINGS MOUNTAIN

(By Carl Davidson) Scouting in Kings Mountain is not just a thing of the last few years. In fact we had one of the first, if not the first, troops to be organized in North Carolina.

Rev. C. K. Bell, a former pastor of the Lutheran church, was organizer and scoutmaster of this troop 27 years ago. This first troop was composed of C. E. Neisler, Jr., Fred Baker, Paul Peterson, Ben Mauney and Jas. McCoy.

However, the first troop in Kings Mountain to be organized under the National Charter was Troop No. 1 organized in 1924 and sponsored by the First Presbyterian church. This troop today has an active membership of 32 boys with Carl Davidson as Scoutmaster. Soon afterwards, in fact the next year, Troop No. Two was organized and sponsored by the Lutheran church. This Troop has an active membership of 32 boys also, with Lanle Dettmar as Scoutmaster. In 1931 a new Troop, No. Three, was started with the First Methodist church as its sponsor. Today this Troop has a membership of 12 (Cont'd on page six)

HIGH ENGAGE NEWTON

Central High will play Newton Thursday evening in a double-bill. The girls game will begin at seven with the boys beginning at the end of the girls' game.

After two straight losses at the hands of Cherryville and Shelby the Highs are anxious to break into the win column, and they are confident of accomplishing this Thursday evening. The admission is 10 and 15 cents.

SPECIAL SCOUT SERVICES

In keeping with Annual Boy Scouts' Week a Special Service will be held at the Central Methodist church on Sunday night at 7.30. The Rev. W. M. Boyce of the A. R. P. church, will make the address and Rev. C. K. Derrick, Pastor of the Lutheran church will assist in the service. The Scouts will attend in a body, dressed in their uniforms. The public is cordially invited to attend this service.

JAMES W. WARE PASSES AT AGE OF 94 EARLY SAT. MORNING

James W. Ware, age 94, died at the home of his son, Mr. Charles P. Ware, near Kings Mountain, early last Saturday morning following injuries received in a fall a few days before his death.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at three o'clock with Rev. W. M. Boyce, his pastor, in charge. He was assisted by Dr. J. M. Garrison a former pastor and Rev. J. N. Wise, pastor of El Bethel Church. Interment was made in El Bethel cemetery beside his wife who died 40 years ago.

The large crowd which taxed the capacity of the church attested the esteem and respect felt for the aged man and his family.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. E. L. Campbell and Mrs. C. T. Grand; two sons, W. P. Ware and Charles P. Ware, all of Kings Mountain.

Five children have preceded him to the grave. Mr. Ware has 34 grand children, 53 great grandchildren and two great great grandchildren.

Mr. Ware was a veteran of the Civil War and at the time of his death, the oldest citizen in Cleveland county. He was a well known figure on the streets of Kings Mountain and until recently thought nothing of walking from his home to town, a distance of three miles. He usually began a conversation with his friends by saying, "I'm the oldest man in Cleveland county and I've never had a doctor."

He also boasted of being the champion of his regiment. Mr. Ware had never been absent from a Memorial Service for Veterans since the United Daughters of the Confederacy began the custom of holding these services on the tenth of May, many years ago and always enjoyed reminiscences with his comrades. His presence will be greatly missed at these services.

DR. WARE ACCEPTS GOVERNMENT POST

U. of A. Instructor to be Senior Agronomist of Bureau of Plant Industry.

Dr. J. O. Ware, "Jake" as he is known to his many friends in Cleveland county is a native of Cleveland county and a brother of J. S. Ware, local postmaster. Dr. Ware is a graduate of N. C. State College and also Cornell University.

Dr. Ware in a letter to his brother stated that he did not know where he would be located at the present, but that it would be somewhere in the Southern States. Fayetteville, Jan. 3.—Dr. J. O. Ware has resigned as agronomist with the University of Arkansas College of Agriculture to become senior agronomist in cotton genetics and breeding in the newly organized Division of Cotton and Other Fiber Crops of the Bureau of Plant Industry, United States Department of Agriculture.

His appointment is in recognition of the cotton improvement program carried on by the College of Agriculture in Arkansas under his direction, a program instituted in 1920 soon after Dr. Ware came here. The program has resulted in Arkansas achieving a first rank place as a staple growing state. — Arkansas Gazette.

COUPLE TO CELEBRATE

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy A. McGill, two of Kings Mountain's most aged and highly respected citizens will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary next Saturday, Feb. 9th. On account of the illness of Mrs. McGill, the couple expect to spend the day quietly surrounded only by their immediate family.

MEETING OF CENTRAL P. T. A.

A meeting of Central P. T. A. will be held at Central School on next Tuesday afternoon at 3:30.

WOULD ORGANIZE COUNTY BOARD OF HEALTH

On January 31 Senate Bill 129 "Relating to the Organization of the Cleveland County Board of Health" was introduced and sent to the Committee on Health. The bill provides for the organization of a Board of Health for Cleveland County and allows the Board of six members to elect the County Health Officer and the County Physician.

The Chairman of the Commissioners, the Mayor of Shelby, and the County Superintendent of Schools constitute three members, the Cleveland County Medical Society on the fourth Monday in November 1936 shall elect two physicians to serve for two years, and each two years hereafter shall elect such physicians, to take office on January 1st succeeding. These five members at the first meeting after election shall select one dentist to serve on the Board as the sixth member.

MILK ORDINANCE ENFORCEMENT DELAYED

Mr. L. P. Store, dairy inspector, said there will be a short delay in the enforcement of the recently passed milk ordinance, due to the fact that the legal angle of the ordinance is being investigated.

BESSEMER CITY MAN DIES

Mr. D. M. Withers died at his home at Bessemer City last Saturday morning following an illness of two or three months.

Mr. Withers has been a popular salesman for the Singer Sewing Machine Company for many years and was well known in Kings Mountain where he spent much of his time.

STREETS BEING PAVED

City workmen are busy this week repairing the streets. The holes in the street at the corner of Railroad avenue and Mountain street are being filled with new asphalt.

HURT IN ACCIDENT

Friends of Mr. John J. Logan will regret to know that he had the misfortune to suffer a broken leg in an accident which occurred last Monday afternoon. Mr. Logan was hauling a load of wood and in some way fell from the wagon, the wheels running over his legs.

He is thought to have had no other injuries and is getting along as well as could be expected. Mr. Logan is at his home on Gold street.

THEY ARE STILL PAYING

- M. L. Harmon. H. F. Everhart. R. C. Baker. B. S. Peeler. A. H. Cornwell. A. G. Sargeant. P. D. Fulton. J. M. McGinnis. J. E. Garvin. Mrs. I. H. Patterson. H. P. Stowe. Mrs. Thompson Jackson. W. D. McDaniel. M. R. Randall. Ruth George. W. C. Ledford. Ted Gamble. McCoy Service Station. N. F. McGill. T. N. Harmon. B. A. Neal. G. W. King. Carl Putnam. W. M. Morehead. G. W. Allen. E. B. Hanis. Mrs. Fleming Ramseur. Mrs. Lona McGill. Mrs. W. M. Goforth. W. C. Putnam. C. A. Bridges. J. N. Gamble. H. R. Parton. R. B. Keeter. Miss Viola White, Graham, N. C.

DILLING MILL BOOSTERS CLUB HAS LADIES NIGHT SAT.

Pres. Meyers And Vice Pres. Reeves Attend Supper

The Boosters Club of the Dilling Mills entertained their wives and sweethearts at their fourth meeting at the Woman's Club building last Saturday evening. Mr. J. E. Garvin, general superintendent of the Dilling Mill, presided at the supper and the following made talks: Mr. A. G. Myers, president, Mr. J. B. Reeves, vice president, Mr. Perk Thompson, of Textiles, Inc., and Mr. Claywood E. Lynch, editor of the Herald.

Dr. J. H. Henderlite, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Gastonia made the main address, and was introduced by Mr. Myers. Dr. Henderlite said that the real things of a community were not banks, roads, bonds, buildings, nor money, but the real things of a community was the "fellowship" of people. He also said "In union there is strength. It is organizations like the Boosters Club that binds one another together that makes a stronger community." Dr. Henderlite further said "It gives one happiness to receive, but it gives one a great deal more happiness to give."

Music for the occasion was furnished by the orchestra taken from the personnel of the Dilling Mills.

Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Reeves gave favors to all the ladies present.

The officers of the Boosters Club are: C. T. Montjoy, president; S. J. Kirby, vice-president; H. O. Ariail, secretary and treasurer.

The Boosters Club was organized in November 1934. The purpose of the club is to help any needy ones and to boost their mill and their community.

The Dilling Mills Company are manufacturers of fancy dress goods and combed yarns.

OUR NEW FEATURES

Ever desirous of giving the people of Kings Mountain and vicinity a better paper we have signed a contract for a full year's feature service, which includes:

- News Photos. —Washington Column. —National Cartoon. —Editorials. —Serial Fiction. —Comic Strip. —"Today and Tomorrow." —Pattern Service. —Health Column. —The Woman's Angle. —Rambling 'Round N. Y. —Comic Philosophy. —Sportette. —Sunday School Lesson. —Feature News. —Bruce Barton Essay. —4-H Club News.

We hope you will enjoy these features each week. We tried to select a feature service that would appeal to all readers of the Herald subscriber family.

Bring Us Your Old Magazines

We have had several people to call for old magazines in response to our announcement last week, but we have not had so many old magazines brought in. Rumble around the attic, cellar, or out-house and get your old magazines together, and if you haven't a way to get them down to the Herald office, we'll call by for them. An old magazine to a person that has not seen it is just as new as a current issue. Let's help stimulate good reading by bringing your old magazines to the Herald magazine free exchange. Folks come by and see our collection. They are free for the asking.