THE TEN COMMANDMENTS AND THEIR MODERN CHRIS- TIAN VALUES

Rev. Angus G. Sargeant, Pastor of the First Baptist church, will begin a series of sermons Sunday night, Feb. 10, on "The Ten Commandments and their Modern Christian Values."

Herald Starts Free Magazine Exchange

The Kings Mountain Herald has started a Free Magazine Exchange. Readers of the Herald who have old copies of magazines are invited to bring them to the Herald Office. The paper in turn will distribute them to those who wish to make use of the exchange.
There will be no charge in the transaction.

Bring us your old magazines.
Call by the office and examine our Magazines and see if there are any which you wish.

READ CLASSIFIEDS FOR OPPORTUNITY

Opportunity knocks on your door through the Classified Section of the Herald. Don't put your paper down until you have read that section through thoroughly, because new and interesting ads come in, and one of these may have just what you have been looking for a long time.

They sell; they rent; they buy; they find the lost... in fact, they're quite wonderful to perform the many services which they do.

Starting Soon New Features

High School News

The high school is proud of the new certificate in our principal's office. It designates that Kings Mountain is fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools for the 1934-35.
Thursday, during chapel period the Loftstrom and St. Clot troupe of trained monkeys were presented at our school. There were sixteen real African monkeys who have been in

DELEGATION FROM KINGS MTN. CALLS ON LEGISLATURE IN INTEREST OF SCHOOLS

Last Thursday, January 31, a delegation from Kings Mountain called on members of the legislature at Raleigh in interest of education.
They were met, on the most part, by a group favorable to schools. This delegation presented the cause of public education in an effort to support Supt. Clyde A. Erwin's program of $22,000,000 for North Carolina schools. They called the attention of the committee to the fact that the North Carolina child, at present time does not receive much more than one third as much as average child in U. S., and that the North Carolina teacher receives a wage which is lower than the worker's salary.

SARA MAE FALLS WINS CONTEST

The Ruth Bryan Owen Citizenship Contest is being sponsored by the D. A. R. The requirements on which the representatives are chosen are:
character, patriotism, scholarship, leadership, and service. The senior girls were asked to list all of the activities that they had taken part in, all of the contests, all of the honors that they had received, etc.
The faculty read each one of these and chose the four girls who had the best showing. The four were:
Frances Allen, Sara Mae Falls, Ruby Hughes, and Juanita Putnam.

The records of these were read and the student body voted on the one that seemed best to fill the requirement. The election went in favor of Sara Mae Falls. Her record will be sent to Raleigh. Each town that has a D. A. R. organization moving pictures many times. The admission was only ten and 15 cents.

Everyone who went thoroughly enjoyed the program.

The date has been set for the triangular debate. It be held March 22.
The schools with which Kings Mountain will compete are Bessemer City High School, Rutherfordton, Spin-dale High School.

may send the record of one pupil to Raleigh. The committee there will choose the best record and that person will be sent to Washington, D. C., with all expenses paid. One person from each state will get the trip free. They go in April when the National Congress of the D. A.
R. is in session.
