

CAPTAIN SMITH SPEAKS AT M. E. CHURCH

Captain B. L. Smith, superintendent of the Shelby schools, spoke to the congregation of the Methodist church Sunday morning in the absence of the pastor. Attorney J. R. Davis presided at the service. It was reported that Pastor Williams who has been absent for several weeks on account of sickness would be back this week and will fill his pupil next Sunday morning.

CANVASS BEING MADE ON BETTER HOUSING PROGRAM

Chairman B. S. Peeler of the local Better Housing Committee announced that a canvass was being made this week to determine the repairs needed to be made on property in Kings Mountain. Mr. Hill Putnam and Mr. W. D. Hankhead are making the canvass. Every property owner in Kings Mountain will be contacted. Mr. Peeler asks that every one please cooperate with this project as it is for the betterment of Kings Mountain.

HARMON-SHERER

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Gladys Harmon of the BethWare community John David Sherer of Kings Mountain, which took place Saturday, Feb. 3.

The ceremony took place at the Shelby Circuit parsonage, with the bride's pastor, Rev. J. N. Wise, officiating. Only a few close friends of the couple were present.

The bride wore a becoming costume of navy blue with harmonizing accessories. She is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Harmon and a granddaughter of the late Alex Harmon and wife, Mrs. Rachel Harmon. She is an attractive and charming young woman.

Mr. Sherer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Girard Sherer of Erwin, Tenn. For a number of years he has made his home with his grandfather, Mr. J. C. Baumgardner, in Kings Mountain where he holds a position.

MEETING OF THE HOME AND ARTS CLUB

Mrs. Jesse Stewart was hostess to the members of the Home and Arts Club and few invited guests at her home on West Gold street on last Wednesday afternoon.

During the business session books were selected for the year and a nominating committee appointed as follows: Mesdames L. P. Baker Charles Thomasson and Troy Carpenter.

Mrs. E. C. Cooper had charge of an inspiring and helpful program on "Religion In Art." A group of children in vestments under the direction of Miss Virginia Parsons two sacred songs — Beautiful Savior — and, Ancient of Days. Mrs. Aubrey Mauney gave a most comprehensive talk on Music with particular emphasis on the songs of the Old and New Testament after which the children sang: Hallelujah, and Away In a Manger. Mrs. W. M. Boyce discussed most ably, Architecture and Paintings, dealing mainly with such religious pictures as Madonna Of The Chair, Sistine Madonna and Last Supper. These pictures as well as many other religious pictures were displayed during the meeting. The program was concluded with the singing of The Lord Is My Shepherd by children and a piano solo A Poem, by Miss Parsons.

During the social hour the hostess served a tempting chicken salad course followed by sweets.

Invited guests included Mesdames S. C. Ratterras, Charis Warlick, J. M. Patterson, J. M. Garrison, Hill Putnam, Suttle and A. H. Patterson
