"HANSEL AND GRETEL" TO BE PRESENTED

The operetta, "Hansel and Gretel" will be presented at Central School Friday evening, May 17 at 8:15 o'clock.

The fairy opera that is liked by all children as well as grown ups 16 also one of the favorites among producers. Hansel and Gretel was written by Engelbert Humperdinck. Humperdinck set music to a story that a relative of his had written for a Christmas celebration. It was the custom in Germany In his day for families to give some sort of entertainment on that day. After it had first been produced, the people liked it so well that Humperdinck elaborated the music and since then it has been considered one of the best loved operas.

Stories of this opera may be found in many books that have even been adopted for study as well as en. tertainment for the child.

The characters ars as follows: Peter-a binder of broom, D. F.

Hord.

Gertrude-his wife, Jacqueline Rawles.

Hansel - Edgar Cooper.

Gretel - Bettey Lee Neisler. The Cookie Witch-Mary Evelyn Goforth

This operetta is given under the direction of Miss Hambright and Miss Parsons. The proceeds will go to the school.
