State And National News Condensed In Brief Form

—State News—

RALEIGH, June 12.—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, the nation's first lady, who delivered the commencement address at the graduation exercises at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill last night, left here this morning at 5 o'clock for a 600-mile flight to West Point, New York.

GOLDSBORO, June 12.—The potato movement in this trucking center of Eastern North Carolina reaches its peak this week with prices better than in years.

A survey today showed that truck farmers of the section will receive above $2,000,000 on the crops and that they will "make good money on the transactions."

RALEIGH, June 11.—Three of the five convicts who escaped from the Caledonia prison farm in Halifax county yesterday after knocking a guard in the head were captured this afternoon in Northampton county after being trailed by bloodhounds all night and today.

GREENSBORO, June 12.—A suit to recover cotton processing taxes in the sum of $146,998.99 was on file by Oakdale Cotton Mills of Jamestown, in U. S. District court here today.

The suit, described as the first of its kind to be filed in the state, was against Charles H. Robertson, collector of internal revenue for North Carolina.

The taxes in question were paid over a period of one and one-half years, and the plaintiff termed the levy "invalid and unconstitutional."

Attorneys for the cotton mills said they would take the suit to the United States supreme court in event adverse decisions are met in the lower courts.

CHAPEL HILL, June 12.—Advised by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt to "think out new ways of doing things" 410 new graduates of the University of North Carolina today faced the problems of life that come with graduation.

The president's wife delivered the commencement address in Kenan stadium here last night, just before Governor Ehringhaus awarded diplomas to the graduates, and conferred five honorary degrees, one of which to the first lady.

Mrs. Roosevelt motored to Chapel Hill by way of Raleigh, and after the exercises here, returned to Raleigh for the night.

Josephus Daniels, ambassador to Mexico, and her Raleigh host, introduced her to the commencement audience as "a leader in all causes that work for the betterment of America."

"These are difficult times", Mrs. Roosevelt said, "We are more prosperous and hopeful than a few years ago. But we who look at realities—and you graduates must look at realities—we cannot say we are satisfied with our country or things as they exist today."

RALEIGH, June 12.—Oral appeals to Edwin Gill, state parole commissioner for a pardon for Luke Lea former United States senator from Tennessee and World War veteran, were presented here today along with opposition from the judge who presided at Lea's trial and a recommendation for clemency from one of the prosecutors.

SEEK TO BLOCK GREEN LIQUOR REFERENDUM

GOLDSBORO, June 10.—A temporary restraining order enjoining Green county from holding a referendum on whiskey July 9 was signed by Judge Paul Frieze at Snow Hill Saturday.

The order was secured by the Rev. J. C. Mewborn and the Rev. J. G. Phillips, ministers representing the Greene county dry association. A hearing on making the order permanent was set for June 22.

—National News—

NANKING, June 12.—The Nationalist government central political council, China's highest executive body was reported today to have rejected the Japanese military authorities' demands affecting North China.

GREENVILLE, S. C., June 12.—The Greenville Piedmont today says the question of abolition of the 25 per cent curtailment which has been in effect for several months was the principal issue for discussion at this afternoon's meeting of print cotton manufacturers in Spartanburg.

WEST POINT, N. Y., June 12.—The greatest current need of the world, President Roosevelt asserted today is "the assurance of peace—an assurance based on mutual understanding and mutual regard."

Standing before the graduating class of the United States Military Academy, the chief executive said: "If you strive at all times to promote friendship and to discourage suspicion, to teach respect for the rights of others and to deprecate aggression to oppose intolerance with a spirit of mutual helpfulness—then indeed your services will be of full value to your government and a source of satisfaction to yourselves."

SALT LAKE CITY, June 12.—The tir of expectancy around the search for William Mahan, scar-faced suspect in the George Weyerhaeuser kidnaping, subsided early today but a heavy force of officers remained at Butte, Mont., in the belief he still was in that vicinity.

After Federal agents and police had followed up dozens of clues with out success, Jere Murphy, chief of police, said he believed the 32-year-old ex-convict had escaped through a tight net of police patrols, possibly hitch-hiking out of the country.

BUENOS AIRES, June 12.—Paraguay and Bolivia today signed the peace protocol putting a close to the end of their long and bitter war in the Chaco Boreal.

BAER-BRADDOCK FIGHT LISTLESS

NEW YORK, June 12.—Despite its dramatic prospects and the probability it will be a surprisingly hard fought match, the world's heavy-weight championship fight between champion Max Adeltbert Baer and challenger James J. Braddock tonight has failed to arouse either the fine frenzy or excitement or the sharp differences of opinion generally associated with such momentous fistic affairs.

Knights Of Pythias Officers Elected For Ensuing Year

At a recent meeting of the local lodge of the Knights of Pythias new officers for the coming year were elected. They will be installed the first meeting night in July which will be July 2. The officers are elected for one year.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB TO PRESENT PLAY

On Tuesday evening, June 18th, at the High School auditorium at 8:15 o'clock, the Junior Woman's Club will present a two-act musical comedy "Cicero Steps Out."

The best talent in Kings Mountain was selected for this show, and as the result the public will be assured of an finished and polished production.

The plot deals with the President of Hillandale Seminary, a girls school, who has advertised for both a janitor and a professor of botany. The boy who comes to apply for the janitor position, and who is one of the students boy friends, is mistaken for the botany professor, and is given that seat of honor. Then when the real professor comes, he is mistaken for the janitor, and is given that lowly position. Quite a mix-up results, but all ends happily.

Simpson, a supposed butler—Jack Ormand.

Miss McWhipple, a spinster teacher—Mrs. Jesse Stewart.

Polly Stanton, a popular student—Katherine O'Farrell.

Ruth Ryley, Polly's roommate—Jean Ware.

Mrs. Henry Bohunkas—Ruth Hord Charles Smith, a professor by proxy—Carradine Moss.

Cicero Socrates Smith, a janitor by necessity J. L. Settlemyre.

Dora, who has trouble with her special—Debbie Suber.

Peter, devoted to Dora—Humes Houston.

There are twelve senior chorus girls in lovely and attractive costumes, also six Junior chorus girls and approximately fifty children in the opening choruses.

A home-made cake will be given to the one who holds the lucky number on Tuesday evening. So come out and support your Junior Woman's Club as well as have an evening of thrills and laughter.

FARM LOAN INTEREST TO BE REDUCED

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 12.—The interest on all loans made by the Federal Land Bank of Columbia through national farm loan associations will be reduced to 3½ per cent for all interest payable in the one-year period commencing July 1, 1935 and to 4 per cent for all interest payable in the two-year period commencing July 1, 1936. H. Scarborough, president of the bank, has announced. On loans made directly by the bank and not through national farm loan associations the interest rate will be one-half percent higher for these periods.

The temporary reduction of interest on all Federal land bank loans having installments due prior to July 1, 1938, Mr. Scarborough said, was authorized by the Farm Credit Act of 1935, which has been approved. Interest payable on installment dates occurring after June 30, 1938, will be at the original contract rate which is 4½ percent on loans now being made through national farm loan associations, and varies from 5 to 6 per cent on loans made prior to April 1, 1935.

PLAY AT BETHLEHEM

The Young Peoples Division of El Bethel will present a play Saturday night June 15th, at Bethlehem school house. The play is a three-act comedy and is entitled, "Two Days To Marry." Proceeds will go for the benefit of the Division. Admission 10 and 15 cents.

CHECKS ARRIVE FOR FARMERS

2,310 checks totaling $103,667.95 arrived at Shelby to County Agent Wilkins by registered mail Monday afternoon, and according to County Agent, notices will start going to the farmers just as rapidly as possible, notifying the farmers to call at the office for their checks. The farmers that had contracts that had been split or that had any adjustment, will receive their checks some weeks later and are asked not to call at the office until notified by letter.

Farmers are asked to call for their checks on the day specified on the notice received and no checks will be given out unless the bearer brings his letter to the office.

If the above suggestions are followed by the farmers, it will enable the work to move according to schedule and will progress much faster.

The Bankhead applications will be completed within the next few days and this is requiring a large office force to check and type these in preparation to forwarding them to the Raleigh office.

REV. WOOD AT LUTHERAN CHURCH

At the 11 o'clock service Sunday, the Rev. Raymond D. Wood, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran church, Florence, S. C., will be the preacher. Mr. Wood is an outstanding young minister of the church and the congregation rejoices to have him with them for this service. Other services Sunday will be the regular Sunday School at 9:45 and the meeting of the Luther Leagues at 6:30 in the Sunday school building.

The public is cordially invited to all of these services.

There will be no evening service. Mr. Mayer, the supply pastor of St. Matthew's will preach for the congregation of the visiting minister.

Training Course Held At Presbyterian Church

A Training Course for officers of the auxiliaries throughout the Kings Mountain Presbytery was held at the Presbyterian church last Thursday with both a morning and afternoon session.

Mrs. O. W. Myers, in behalf of the hostess auxiliary, gave a welcome address and Rev. P. D. Patrick, new pastor of the local church, conducted the devotional service.

Mrs. McGeachy, of Tryon, president of the Presbyterial, presided. The speakers of the day were officers of the various auxiliaries represented.

More than a hundred auxiliary officers from churches of the Kings Mountain Presbytery were present.

At noon the guests were invited to the Woman's Club where a beautiful lunch was served buffet style.

The dining room and entrance hall were made inviting and attractive with quantities of mixed flowers.

Through STATE CAPITOL KEYHOLES (By Bess Hinton Silver)

WHISKEY — State politicians are hopeful that the wet and dry issue can be kept out of the 1936 primaries. They aver this is a question to be voted upon and determined by the people — not gubernatorial or senatorial candidates. There is little a Governor can do about it. Governor Ehringhaus attempted to smother the alcohol waters in the closing hours of the late legislative session, but failed. And don't forget, a Tar Heel Governor hasn't the veto power.

COURAGEOUS — Senator Josiah Bailey has no doubt made thousands of friends in his efforts to amend the Wheeler-Rayburn utility bill in Congress. Senator Bailey has submitted no less than 41 amendments to the bill, all of which, it is said by (Cont'd on page six)
