Reports filed by 119 lobbyists out of a total of 121 who registered during the general assembly, show they received $109,222.65 in fees and expenses, while the salaries of the 170 members of the general assembly of $600 each for the session and of $700 for the lieutenant governor and speaker of the house amounted to only $102,800 for the session.

Thus the lobbyists who reported how much they received both in fees and expenses, received $6,422 more than did member of the general assembly in salaries from the state.

MY NIGHT IN KINGS MOUNTAIN

Editor's Note: An elderly gentleman came into the office and said that he had gone since the morning before without food, that he had slept on the floor all night in the railroad station. He asked us to buy some of the Npocm he had written. We told him that if he would write us a story on his night in Kings Mountain we would pay him for it. So his story follows below:

A few weeks ago I left New Orleans, where I had been employed for a long time, and came by train and bus into western Georgia. From there on, until I reached Greenville, S. C., (where I ran out of money), I was able to make a bare living. Tuesday I trod the highway from Gaffney, S. C., almost to Kings Mountain. Night fell shortly after I got there. Tired, hungry and moneyless, I went into a poolroom to rest and to escape a heavy down pour of rain. Anxious to get under cover for the night, I looked up the night policeman and asked him if any provision was made to take care of people who were placed as I was. I mentioned the fact that I am not far from seventy years old and had tramped the road footless all day long, and needed rest and sleep. I was told by the policeman that no provision had been made to take care of men placed as I was. He said people ought to stay where they belong. He didn't explain how they were to live in their hometowns when they were moneyless, jobless and friendless. Finally he told me I could stay in the railway station. I thanked him for that.

There was one man and two women in the waiting room when I got there. The arm-rests on the benches make it impossible to lie down on them, so all step on the floor with a layer of newspapers to rest on. Almost any kind of a shelter looks good on a rainy night to one who has no other place to go to. But who likes to see women lying

MAKE APPLICATION FOR HOME LOANS EARLY

Salisbury, N. C., June 19.—The attention of home owners in distress who desire aid of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, was called to the fact that under the amendment of HOLC Act, recently passed by Congress, the period for filing new applications will expire at midnight, June 27th, 1935. After that date, it was stated by T. C. Abernethy, State Manager of the Corporation here, no applications will be received from home owners who are in distress and who are eligible under the law for assistance, and he urged that all those desiring assistance file their applications at once.

Mr. Abernethy stated that regulations, as to eligibility, remain virtually unchanged, and those desiring complete explanation of what cases are eligible may receive it either by calling at the State Office, Post Office Building, Salisbury, N. C., or one of the District Offices, or by writing for full information. Office hours of the Corporation, for the summer, became effective two or three weeks ago, and are from 8:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. Mr. Abernethy stated that these hours have been changed, for the convenience of the public, and application clerks will be on hand in the State and District Offices until 5:30 and later every afternoon until the time limit for filing applications expires.

District offices are located at follows: Raleigh, Charlotte, Greenville, Asheville and Greenville.

There are plenty of rough and dangerous men on the road. There are also plenty of high-type men on the road who are trying to get a living for themselves and families. To see men and women lying down, hungry perhaps, on a bare, unclean floor, one must say this should not be. There should be some real heart felt interest shown at least to the worthy poor. And we should remember that nobody really loves the hard-boiled, unsympathetic, individual.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS TO MEET

(Special to The Herald)

The North Carolina Young Democratic Clubs will meet in annual convention in Raleigh, on June 28th and 29th. The State Executive Committee will be called to convene, together with the Committee on the Convention, at the Hotel Sir Walter Raleigh, on Thursday evening, June 27th, at 8:30 P. M.

The principal speaker of the occasion will be the Honorable Rush D. Holt, the "Baby" of the Senate of West Virginia. Senator Holt is one of the most outstanding young Democrats, not only in the South, but in the entire country. He was elected defeating an old line politician and outstanding statesman, before he had reached the age of 29. He will attain the constitutional age of a United States Senator between now and the State Convention. Senator Holt has had office space in the Senate office building assigned to him, as well as desk space in the Senate hall, but may not be sworn in until he attains his 30th birthday, on June 19th. He is said to be a speaker of rare charm, is a thorough pro-administration Democrat, and will undoubtedly have a singular appeal to the Young Democrats of the State.

A number of red-hot controversies will in all probability be slated for deliberation.

Through STATE CAPITOL KEYHOLES

(By Bess Hinton Silver)

SPOTTED—The gubernatorial race (chiefly between Clyde R. Hoey and A. H. Graham) is a bit spotted from the standpoint of public interest throughout the State. You can talk to travelers and one will tell you that Hoey is running wild while another will avow that Graham is far in the lead. Most of the disinterested lads getting about over the State will tell you, however, that the campaign has not progressed far enough to raise many bets. The political gamblers want to see the horses warm up before they lay the long green on the mahogany.

STIRRING—When Thad Eure, principal clerk of the House of Representatives for several terms, announced that he would be a candidate for Secretary of State next spring, he didn't stop there. No, sir, Mr. Eure is determined to unhorse
