NEW BERN, July 24.—Without team, cultivator or harrow, John McSorley farmed a ten acre tract through the depression years and made money.

FAIRBURY, Neb., July 24.—Three gunmen believed headed by Alvin Karpis, unofficial "public enemy No. 1" fought a running gun battle with two police officers today in Fairbury streets.

Now operating on a smaller scale, he is still without a team, uses little hired help, and still says he makes a profit with his truck, cotton, corn, peas, beans potatoes and other produce.

BENNETTSVILLE, S. C., July 24.—Funeral services were held here yesterday morning for Baxter P. (Cyclone Mack) McLendon, nationally known evangelist who died suddenly at his home here last night.

BURLINGTON, July 24.—Bertha Tyndall says she is a bootlegger and that she'll remain one until she finds a better job so that she can care for her crippled son.

Death was due to a heart attack physicians said.

She says she wouldn't mind even going to jail because then "they will have to take care of my little boy there if they take me."

Only recently he had returned from Oklahoma City where he conducted a revival.

RALEIGH, July 24.—Revenue collections for the State of North Carolina showed decided increases for the first 20 days of July as compared with the same period of last year every levy participating in the gain.

Survivors include his widow, four sons and two daughters.

A report from the revenue department today showed that total collections for the period this year were $1,263,626 against $688,455.98 for the corresponding period of 1934.

CLEVELAND COTTON FARMERS GET MORE MONEY

Cleveland county farmers got $1,619,930 more for their cotton crop in 1934 than they did in 1932, according to a report by J. S. Wilkins.

In 1934 including benefit payments of $434,061, they received $3,703,402. Of this amount, $2,421,739 was for lint and $347,602 for seed.

In 1932, before the adjustment program was started, the growers produced 64,099 bales of cotton which sold at six cents a pound for a total of $1,838,359 and 30,639 tons of seed which sold at $8 a ton for a total of $245,112—or 2,083,471 for lint and seed.

In 1933 the growers planted 82,122 acres, but harvested only 67,900 acres. The 45,907 bales produced on this acreage sold 10 cents a pound, or a total of $2,295,370. Plow-up payments and options granted on government-held cotton added $258,935 to this sum, bringing the total to $2,554,305.

The 1934 planting was 49,981 acres, which produced a crop of 42,220 bales which sold at 12 cents a pound.

Last year, growers of the county also received benefit payments of $2,690 on their corn-hog contracts. Thirty-five growers who have started raising raspberries received $775 for the first harvest from 25 acres.

Old Ferguson Mine Now In Operation

GREAT SERVICE AT CENTRAL METHODIST

An audience that overflowed Central Methodist Church last Sunday night voted their enthusiastic endorsement of the union service idea during the vacation season. A congregation of at least 500 necessitated extra chairs in the aisle. The spirit of co-operation was evident throughout. The second of these services will be held at Boyce Memorial A. R. Presbyterian Church Sabbath evening at 8:00 o'clock. Rev. P. D. Patrick will preach.

SPONSORED BY OTIS D. GREEN POST AMERICAN LEGION

The only adult quadruplets in the United States will make a personal appearance in Kings Mountain Saturday evening at 8 p. m. at the High School Auditorium. The charming young ladies are 4-5th of one unpaired years old, and are talented entertainers. They are being brought to Kings Mountain by the Otis D. Green Post of the American Legion.

The Keys Sisters, Roberta, Mona, Leota, and Mary, four of a kind, made an appearance at the First Baptist church in Shelby Sunday night and over 2,000 people flocked to see them. An entirely different program will be staged in Kings Mountain Saturday night.

Quadruplets are born only one set to every 1,000,000 births. The Keys sisters were born in Hollis, Okla., and are now sophomores at Baylor University in Texas. They varied in weight when they were born from 3 3/4 to 4 1/2 pounds, and their weights now range from 130 to 157 pounds.

Tickets are now on sale for the performance at Summers Drug Co., Griffin Drug Co., and Summitt's N. Way. The prices of admission will be 25c for adults and 15c for children. The first eight rows of seats will be reserved for 10c extra.

The local post of the American Legion is to be congratulated upon securing such an unusual entertainment program for Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Flake Keys, mother of the four sisters will also be present.
