Calvin Plonk Finds Old Copies Of The Herald

Calvin Plonk in cleaning up the attic at his home on Gold street found several copies of the Herald that were published from 1904 to 1919. The oldest copy found was of the date of February 18, 1904. At that time the paper was published by T. A. Sikes, and was a four-page sheet that was printed on Thursday morning.

Some of the advertisements in the paper at that time were: W. A. Mauney, dry goods, Carpenter and Bro., dry goods, Rhyne's Shoe Store D. J. Holt, One Price Merchant, Plonk, Kiser and Co., dry goods, T. W. Kendrick Co., The Corner Drug Store, Kings Mountain Hardware Co., and several others.

A few of the news items were:

Mr. D. J. Keeter of Grover passed through Kings Mountain Tuesday on his return from Lincoln County where he had been to visit his father.

Best cotton is bringing 13.50 on this market.

Mr. R. S. Plonk has been confined to his room this week, but glad to see him out again.

Mr. Charles A. Dilling returned from a visit to Black Mountain.

With an appropriation from the national government of $100,000 for a monument to be erected upon the battlefield near Kings Mountain, the opening up of the old Catawba Gold Mine and the development of the tin mines near here, with the seven cotton mills and roller mills, etc., already in operation, Kings Mountain bids fair to grow rapidly in the future and then the "new court house" will help the looks of the town.

Mayor Campbell has gone to Grover to see the sights.

Mr. J. C. Baumgardner went to Glendale, S. C., last Friday to see his daughter, Mrs. Hannah Lockman, who is sick. We are glad to report that she is much better.

Young Peoples' Revival At Methodist Church

A young peoples' revival will start next Monday at the Central Methodist church. The services will be under the direction of Rev. J. F. Jackson, new supply pastor. He will be assisted by Rev. W. McFerrin Stowe, who is at present assistant pastor of the Cherryville Methodist church. Mr. Stowe will be in charge of the musical program and direct the singing. The services are to be held each evening at 8 o'clock and will continue all next week.

Mr. Jackson says the services are to be especially adapted to young people with young peoples' sermons and all are invited to attend irrespective of denomination. Even though the services are primarily for the young people the older folks are invited to attend these services.

The purpose of these evangelistic services is to bring about a closer relationship between the church and the young people, and it is hoped that a large number will avail themselves of the opportunity.

Don't forget when: Monday night 8 o'clock. Where: Central Methodist church. What: Young Peoples' Revival.
